CASTLE'S STORY STILL FILLED WITH OLD CHARGES

He Is Advertised as Man Who Closed Doors of Enterprise Bank.

JOB TOO BIG FOR HIM

ANCIENT PLAY TAKES CROWD

GREENVILLE, PA., Oct. 25.—Homer L. Castle appeared before about 200 people in Greenville tonight. The "Two Johns" were at the opera house and this drew the crowd. Castle was rather limp and lifeless. He acts like a man who had gotten into something he would like to be out of and is looking for the hole.

While he repeated many of his libelous charges tonight, he omitted his attack on Robert McAfee, secretary of the commonwealth. He was also silent about The Gazette. Just in passing it might be mentioned that he had not a word to say about his two banking ventures. He did not tell how he served apparently as a dummy director on the board of the wrecked and defunct Prudential Trust Company of Pittsburgh. Not a word was told about his part in the Turtle Creek "political" loan, of which he prates so much. Castle is throwing stones at the other fellow and is hopeful that the rock will not come his way.

It was not because the people of Greenville did not know of the meeting that so small a number came out. The local papers contained "paid notices" of Castle's coming and many bills were posted about the town. He was advertised over the signature of E. W. Hodge, chairman of the Prohibition county committee, as the man who had made the charges against the state treasury "which has led to the closing of the doors of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny." Castle says The Gazette lied when it charged he was making speeches which tend to weaken public confidence in banks.

Mercer Safely Republican.

The people of Greenville did not flock to hear Castle rant, because they are not taking stock in his charges. Mercer county is firmly Republican. It will be found returning a good majority for J. Lee Plummer this fall.

In the Arlington hotel this evening gathered a crowd of Republican leaders from this end of the county almost as large as the audience that heard Castle. In the assembly were W. J. Whieldon, Republican county chairman; J. L. Green of Stoneboro, a former county chairman; Col. Silas Hunter, and many others who have been over the county and know the feeling of the voters. They say Mercer will not follow any Prohibition-Democratic procession. It might be added there are a lot of Democrats of the same opinion.

Castle told his audience that he would repeat all the charges he had made against men and banks in his former speeches. He has blue penciled from his talk the libelous attack he has been making on Mr McAfee. This is the kind of rot Castle asked his audience to believe:

"A man told me today, who ought to know, that when we get to the facts about the Enterprise bank the whole institution will be found to have been gutted. They have got President Gwinner closed up now. They have got most of the directors closed up. The directors are making every effort to have their own accountants go over the books and they cannot get to them. It is freely asserted that politicians' notes are being paid. They never would have been paid if the bank had not closed. The machine is paying these notes, and, I fear, at the expense of some other institutions. It is not a payment, just a transfer."

Castle Too Small for Task.

It is sufficient to say that he closed this prattle in this wise:

"I am pouring myself into the fight as best I can."

Slopping over might be more expressive. Castle is rattled. The job he has tackled is too large for him and he is sloshing. Castle said in speaking of the $10,000,000 in the treasury: "Pennsylvania has got no business to have that much money on hand. That sum would corrupt even a Prohibitionist."

This is a rough recommendation for W. H. Berry, but Castle is too much of a gentleman to lie. He says it is wrong to distribute the funds in the little country banks. He considers it a crime that 60 per cent of the state money is deposited in the rural banking institutions. It is all wrong, he says, to give these banks deposits of $5,000. They appear to be safer than the Prudential Trust Company, of which Castle says nothing.

Castle announced in his speech tonight that he would appear on the Democratic platform in Allegheny Carnegie Music hall Saturday evening. George W. Guthrie and John Marron will also make speeches.

WANT CARNEGIE MEDAL FOR WHIPPING TEACHER

MARION, O., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Because Miss Bertha Dickason whipped 17 pupils of her school in one day the board of education at Espyville today unanimously adopted a resolution praising her and suggesting that a Carnegie hero medal be given her. A petition had been filed asking the teacher's removal on the ground of brutality, but the board declares she did her duty, and adds that some of the pupils' parents ought also be punished.

HIS JUDICIAL (?) TEMPERAMENT

GOVERNOR ASKS PRESIDENT TO TAKE HOLD

Requests Full and Complete Investigation of Enterprise Bank Failure.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, Oct. 25.—Gov. Pennypacker has asked President Roosevelt to have the federal authorities make an examination of the affairs of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny. The governor this evening made public a copy of a letter which he sent to the President. The governor's letter follows:

October 25, 1905.

To the President, Washington, D. C.

Sir—The Enterprise National bank, doing business in Allegheny, has recently failed, having at the time among its deposits $1,-030,000 of the moneys of this commonwealth. These moneys were deposited upon the faith of the stability of the institution, arising through its organization as a national bank and because of these deposits the commonwealth is much interested in the ascertainment of the condition of its financial affairs. Our commissioner of banking has no control over it and no power to make any such investigation.

Since it was organized under federal law, and is subject to your supervision, I write to ask that a full, complete and careful investigation may be made so that everything connected with the condition of its affairs and the causes which have led to such a condition may be fully disclosed. I am ready to render all the assistance in my power to secure a thorough ascertainment of the facts. I am, sir, with respect,

Very truly yours,
SAMUEL W. PENNYPACKER.

The governor had a long conference with Attorney General Carson yesterday and again today relative to the public funds in the Enterprise National bank, and it is believed Mr. Pennypacker's letter to the President is the outcome of this meeting. The governor's action was a great surprise to his official associates, all of whom construe it to mean that his sole purpose is to see that nothing is left undone to protect the state's money in the suspended bank.

MOODY TAKES CHARGE OF BANK INVESTIGATION

Department of Justice Sends on Two Representatives—Bonding Companies' Officials Confer.

The department of justice at Washington yesterday announced it had taken charge of the investigation of the Enterprise National bank. The determination of the attorney general has been kept secret, largely because of the fear that the inference would be made that evidence has been secured which will warrant criminal prosecution of some of the parties connected with the bank. The real purpose of the district attorney in taking charge of the matter, it is stated, is to keep advised of the progress of the investigation and be prepared to take any action that the evidence should warrant. In commenting upon the situation Assistant Attorney General Milton D. Purdy, who has charge of the case in the absence of the attorney general, said:

"It is not an extraordinary procedure for the legal department to take charge of bank failures when there is the least reason for believing the directors or any persons connected with the bank have been guilty of violation of the statutes.

Does Not Indicate Crime.

"The fact that the department has taken this action is no assurance that any indictment will be brought against the officers of the bank. It is simply an investigation of the affairs of the bank."

Two government officials have been ordered to Pittsburgh to participate in the examination of the bank. Judge Olds, the legal adviser of the comptroller, goes to render assistance to Receiver Cunningham, while Special Examiner Edward P. Moxey has been ordered from Chicago to work under the direction of District Attorney Dunkle.

NO LONGER WANTS TO DWELL IN COMMORAH

Only Republican in Neighborhood of 200 Writes Will on Hand Bill and Shuffles Off.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

STROUDSBURG, PA., Oct. 25.—After writing his will on a handbill printed to advertise his sale of household goods, Frank Hussey of Kunkletown was found dead in bed under circumstances pointing to suicide. Several years ago Hussey's wife committed suicide.

Hussey for a number of years was the only Republican in Eldern township, in a total vote of nearly 200. Register of Wills William L. Andrew today admitted Hussey's will to probate. It reads:

"This is my will that everything that belongs to me, my boy, or son, Simeon G. Hussey, is to receive after just debts are paid, as I want to go with my wife, Nettie F. Hussey. Francis F. Hussey."

The will was written with an indelible pencil in very large letters and covers more than half of the large bill. Hussey had considerable property and life insurance. There is a half sister of the son and heir living in Massachusetts and the will promises to bring about litigation.

ROCKEFELLER A MOTORIST.

Oil Magnate Takes Out a License and Will Use His Automobile All Winter.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—(Special.)—John D. Rockefeller has entered the list of New York motorists. He has taken out license No. 25,140 in Albany for a 20-horse power steam touring car, which he has heretofore used only in Cleveland and Lakewood, and during the winter will be driven in that vehicle from his home to his office.

Some years ago at Lakewood, Mr. Rockefeller took up bicycling, and he became a familiar figure on the drives in the vicinity of the resort, pedaling with the enthusiasm of a boy, and apparently with as much enjoyment. Then he became an enthusiast at golf.

TO BUILD CANAL CARS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—A contract has been awarded by the Panama canal commission for 18 75-ton steam shovels to be used in excavation work on the canal, to the Bucyrus company of South Milwaukee, the lowest bidder, at $10,000 each.

Another contract was awarded to the American Car and Founary Company at Pittsburgh for 800 wooden freight cars for the Panama railroad at $990 each.

FLYER PLOUGHS ITS WAY THROUGH WRECK

GREENSBURG, Oct. 25.—(Special.)—The Pennsylvania railroad's 13-hour "flyer" narrowly escaped being wrecked at the local passenger station last night. A freight train had bucked on the steep grade, piling the wreckage of two cars between the tracks. An effort was made to flag the "flyer," but the danger signals could not be distinguished on account of the heavy fog, and the fast train dashed through, knocking the wreckage from the track.

GIRL WITH SHOTGUN DRIVES OFF THIEVES

BEAVER, Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Armed with a shotgun Miss Sadie Merriman of Moon township drove three Italians from her father's farm, where she had caught them stealing apples. The men seemed disinclined to leave when first requested, but when Miss Merriman secured the gun and leveling it at their heads commanded them to "drop those apples and get out," the robbers hastily decamped.

THE VATICAN RINGS WITH YANKEE HURRAHS

Sailors of United States Cruiser Minneapolis Greet the Pope With Cheers.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

ROME, Oct. 25.—The pope today received Lieut. Frank E. Ridgley, Paymaster Hugh R. Insley, Prof. William Snyder Eichelberger and Prof. Frank Littell, of the naval observatory at Washington and 45 Catholic sailors of the United States cruiser Minneapolis, now at Naples. They were conducted to the vatican by Chaplain Johnson McC. Bellews.

His holiness, who was dressed entirely in white and accompanied by Monsignor Bisleti, master of the pontifical chamberlains, Monsignor Kennedy, rector of the American college and members of the ecclesiastical court, received the Americans in the hall of the consistory. To each he gave his hand to kiss, while he spoke kind words, especially to the officers. The pope was presented with a basket of beautiful flowers tied with ribbons from the caps of the sailors. This presentation greatly pleased his holiness.

The pope then delivered a short address in Italian which was translated by Monsignor Kennedy, thanking the Americans for coming to see him, and expressing his pleasure at meeting so many representatives of the American navy. Addressing the sailors, he said he was glad of the opportunity to enjoin upon them "the necessity of obedience to the government and to their superiors, as by such obedience capable sailors and soldiers are made."

His holiness gave his blessing to all present, and to their families and friends and presented each with a souvenir medal. When the pope left the hall, the sailors saluted him with three hearty cheers which resounded throughout the vatican.

IS TRYING TO CORNER SAUERKRAUT MARKET

NEW BRIGHTON, Oct. 25.—(Special.)—A corner of the sauerkraut market is being planned by Henry Blinn, a farmer living near New Brighton, who claims to have raised 20,000 heads of cabbage on three acres of land. Blinn was in New Brighton yesterday looking for capitalists to back him in his sauerkraut venture.

DIVORCE SUIT ENDS MATCH BASED ON VISION

"TOO OLD," SHE SAYS

Dr. A. M. Grubbs and Miss Myrtle Beattie Were Married Only a Week Ago at Youngstown.

RELIGIOUS BASIS FOR LOVE

"He's entirely too old for me" was the reason 17-year-old Mrs. A. M. Grubbs, until a week ago Miss Myrtle Beattie of McKeesport, gave to Alderman B. L. Coursin yesterday when she asked him to start proceedings for a divorce from her husband of recent date, Dr. A. M. Grubbs. The latter is an osteopathic practitioner, and is prominent in the Coursin Street Methodist Episcopal church. He is distinguished by being four and one-half times as old as his bride, his aged being 76.

This May and December romance was started in Dr. Grubbs' medical practice. It was cemented in his Sunday school class. The bonds were drawn tighter when the couple baptized each other in the sulphuric waters of the Youghiogheny. It was consummated at Youngstown. It was accentuated when the doctor was ejected from the home of the bride's father. It was saddened when he was refused sight of his bride, and it will probably be ended in the divorce court without contest, as the doctor says he is undetermined as regards fighting the action. And all McKeesport is vastly interested.

Romance Started Years Ago.

When the girl-wife called at Alderman Coursin's office yesterday she was accompanied by her parents, and she seemed thoroughly agreed with them in her further statement: "I don't want to live with him; he's too old for me."

Dr. Grubbs first met Miss Beattie several years ago at the home of her parents, where he called as a physician. From that time on his visits were frequent, but the parents considered his age too great for his visits to mean more than a fatherly interest in the attractive young girl. Then the two began to have long walks together and a year ago he introduced her to members of the Coursin Street church and made her a member of his Sunday school class. All the time he had been instructing her in his religious beliefs, it is said, and was preparing her for a religious education at a woman's college. After he had taken her into his Sunday school class his attentions grew more marked, and nine months ago their engagement was announced. This astounded relatives of the couple, and the opposition was so strong that the two finally stated they had given up the idea of marrying, although they still loved each other.

Dr. Grubbs was very severe in his denouncement of the relatives' action, calling it interference with an "act of Providence." The match takes on the religious aspect when considered in connection with the inspiration and visions which have influenced the physician, according to the statement he made at the time the engagement was first announced. The first Mrs. Grubbs had died several years before this courtship began. He said that some of the happiest moments of his life had been spent with Miss Beattie under the trees of Olympia park, where they studied together the Scriptural lessons and planned a life together in the work of the gospel. Dr. Grubbs was "inspired" according to his own statement, and he believed that she would ultimately become a great evangelist. He believed they could accomplish a great work together, and for that reason he was trying to educate her in his religious beliefs and doctrines.

Doctor Saw Two Visions.

He said their affinity had been revealed to him by two visions, one of which represented a high bridge over a muddy stream. He was on the bridge and the girl was on the bank of the river trying

GEN. GROSVENOR IS CONFIDENT HERRICK IS WINNER

Oracle of Athens Says Evidence All Points to His Election.

WILL NOT ESTIMATE

Superintendent Baker Declares Anti-Saloon League Can Offset Liquor Vote.

FINAL REPORTS DUE SOON

SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM L. W. STRAYER, Staff Correspondent.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 25.—"Taking all the evidence and testimony at hand, I believe Herrick will be elected," said Gen. Charles H. Grosvenor today. "But I must say this is the most inscrutable campaign I ever saw. It is indeed."

Gen. Grosvenor was a caller at state headquarters today. He, too, has jumped into the harness and will help in making a whirlwind finish of this remarkable Ohio campaign. Last night he spoke in his home town of Athens; tonight he will speak in Chillicothe, and from now until the end of the fight he will make at least one speech a day.

Gen. Grosvenor is known as the oracle of Athens, the champion political prophet and soothsayer of the land. No national campaign is complete without an ante-election estimate from him, and he usually comes close to the mark. When asked today to cast a horoscope on this election, he said:

"Gov. Herrick will be elected, of that I feel sure. But I can't give figures; I never do in a state election. In a national campaign I can generally tell which states will go Republican and which Democratic. But this year, especially, I would hesitate to predict majorities.

Can't Give an Estimate.

"I never saw anything like it in all my experience. There has been an entirely new alignment. If I knew Herrick was going to get only Republican votes, I might make some sort of an estimate. But who can tell how many Democrats will vote for him? No, there is no way of measuring the sentiment out in the brush and up the hollows.

"The fact that the saloon men will largely support Herrick is no reflection on the governor. It does not mean Herrick is the friend of the saloons, but it does mean the other fellows have pressed the fight so the saloon men have to vote for Herrick in order to keep the radical anti-saloon element from winning. The whole situation is a difficult one to solve, and it seems to me to undertake a definite estimate of Herrick's majority at this time would be only making a wild guess."

"What do you think will be the effect of the Taft speech at Akron?" he was asked.

"I do not care to discuss that," said Gen. Grosvenor, "although I do not think the interests of the Republican party will be endangered by it. I saw Mr. Cox in Cincinnati recently and he said to me, as he did to The Gazette, there would be no relaxation of effort on the part of the Cincinnati organization. Hamilton county will give Herrick a majority of about 30,000, Mr. Cox said.

"I repeat I believe Herrick will be elected. The signs point to it, and from all I am able to learn that is the best guess. But I must admit the situation is inscrutable, quite inscrutable." And the general meditatively stroked his patriarchal beard.

Baker Makes a Forecast.

The Rev. Perley A. Baker, national superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, the man who inaugurated the attack upon Gov. Herrick and raised the liquor issue that until recently was the burning question of this campaign, says he thinks Pattison, the Democratic candidate, will win. Said he:

"It is my opinion that Mr. Pattison will be elected, although I would not like to predict any figures at this time. My opinion is based on the large defections among Republicans, of which we have knowledge. Of course the liquor vote, or a large part of it, will go to Herrick, but I believe we will have enough to elect our man in spite of that.

"There has been a great deal of misapprehension regarding this campaign. It has been said the league has gone into partisan politics, but that is not correct. Our organization is non-partisan, and our only part in this campaign has been to raise the issues which the Democrats have seized upon and made use of. The fact that Gov. Herrick is a Republican has no significance to us. It is the man, not the party, we are after. We have been accused of maligning Gov. Herrick, but this we deny. Some men might consider themselves maligned if you would quote the ten commandments at them. We have told our version of the governor's record, and that is all."

Have you any figures or polls from which you make an estimate that Pattison will win?" was asked.

"Well, we have some figures, but I do not care to refer to them. You could scarcely call them a poll of the state, but they are sufficient to convince us that Pattison will win."

At state headquarters reports are being received daily from workers in every section of the commonwealth, and preparations are being made for the final round up or poll which will be taken next week.

TECH SCHOOL COLORS TO BE CARNEGIE PLAID

Students in Manual Training Will Receive Cloth from Scotland and Will Wear the Tartan of the Highlands.

The Carnegie plaid, with its grounds of dark green and steel blue, the thread lines of black, yellow, red, etc., will be the colors of the new Carnegie Technical schools. The students made their selection this week and now there comes across the Atlantic a whole web of the famous woollens to be used in making tartans to be worn by the young craftsmen who have been fortunate in becoming the charter pupils in the institution in Schenley park.

The boys spent a week in selecting their colors. They are an original lot of young men and wanted to get out of the rut which characterizes school colors in general. When the plaid of the Carnegie family in Scotland was suggested, it met with instant approval. It was impossible to obtain the peculiar combination of weaves here, and a cable was immediately sent to a Scottish manufacturer who makes a specialty of plaids. The manufacturer communicated that a web of the Carnegie plaid was on the way to America.

The Tech. students expect to get the cloth next week and will set to work making a school flag, pennants and the tartans, which will be worn on state occasions. The peculiar selection has made a pronounced hit among the young women friends of the Tech men, and in a short time nothing will be more popular in Pittsburgh than the Carnegie plaid.

Some important meetings of the students will be held this week. The school yell has not been decided upon, but every young man who has a suggestion for the words is privileged to get out in the park and give his particular choice. As soon as the plaids arrive the school pin will be decided upon. This, it is declared, must be a design that will go nicely with the colors of the tartan.

MINISTER'S WIFE MAKES CHARGES

Troubles of the Rev. T. C. Anderson, Burgess of Tarentum, Will Be Taken to Court.

SAYS IT IS LIKE M'CLOY CASE

The troubles of the Rev. T. C. Anderson, Tarentum's minister-burgess, came to a head yesterday when his wife entered charges of disorderly conduct, assault and breach of the peace against him, and their only son, Alexander Anderson, aged 13.

These charges were made before Justice Bell of Tarentum. When Mr. Anderson was summoned to the office of the justice he was very nervous and troubled, and after finding that it was impossible to postpone the hearing, he waived a hearing and had the case held for court. Both he and his son were placed under bond of $500 each, furnished by William Woods, a prominent member of the United Presbyterian church of which Mr. Anderson is pastor.

Mrs. Anderson in her written statement accuses her son of tearing a paper from her hand by force and seriously wrenching her arm and says that by "his rough and brutal treatment," he had made "her life miserable." She accuses her husband of choking her on last Sunday in their home and of threatening her life, so that now she is afraid of him, and for this reason is bringing the matter to court.

Accounts for Wife's Action.

The minister said last evening that the only way to account for his wife's action was that she was mentally unbalanced, but he was glad the matter would be brought to a close at last, and he had waived the hearing for court to enlighten many as to the cause of his persecution and the trials which he had suffered for the past 11 years. He said his wife had been used as a tool by the faction in the congregation antagonistic to him, but he did not believe that her recent action was on their advice. Mr. Anderson said during his absence in Chicago some time ago his wife had been examined by two noted specialists on nervous disorders, Dr. T. M. T. McKennan and Dr. Theodore Diller, and he had in his possession their verdict that Mrs. Anderson was suffering from a mental disorder which had been aggravated by outside interference. He said he had kept this trouble secret through 11 years of his 22 years of married life, but that now as through her own action it would become public for the first time, that it was perhaps for the best, as it would explain his position to many.

Defends His Boy's Character.

In referring to his wife's charges against his son, he spoke of the manly character of his boy. In speaking of his wife's persecution he likened the case to that of Mrs. Sarah McCloy, who harassed the Rev. Mr. Thomas of the South Side, Pittsburg, with fictitious charges and was finally placed in an insane asylum. He said that no doubt that some thought the charges his wife had made were true, and he could not criticize them if they were honest in their belief, but also many believed in Mrs. McCloy's claims. Mr. Anderson in conclusion called attention to his past record in the church and borough and the vindication which has been given him by the presbytery. Mr. Anderson said he expected to remain in the borough for the present.

Mrs. Anderson when seen at her home last night refused to discuss the case and referred the reporter to the justice of the peace.

TAFT ANNOUNCES HE IS NOT CANDIDATE

Says He Has No Intention of Resigning or of Running for President.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The Post tomorrow will quote Secretary Taft as follows:

"I have no intention of resigning from the cabinet to make a campaign for the presidency and, furthermore, I have no intention whatever of making a campaign for the office of the nation's chief executive.'

"Secretary of War Taft is not planning to enter a campaign for the presidency, has no intention of doing so, is content with his seat in the cabinet and means to stay there as long as the President desires it. Such is the substance of an announcement made by him yesterday and which will tend to put at rest, temporarily at least, the talk of his being a presidential candidate.

"'I am satisfied with my present place, and shall be pleased to remain in the cabinet as long as I can,' added Mr. Taft. 'I have already said that I had no intentions of becoming a candidate for the presidency and authorized no one to spring the 'presidential boom' as it is called.'"

The Post adds that Secretary Taft's statement was called forth by published reports in connection with his recent Akron, Ohio, speech that he has presidential ambitions.

PROPOSE SECOND BOND ISSUE OF $2,500,000

Kansas Natural Gas Company Stockholders Will Meet Monday to Vote on Plan.

A special meeting of the stockholders of the Kansas Natural Gas Company will be held Monday at the offices of the company in the Farmers Bank building to consider a proposition to authorize a bonded indebtedness of $2,500,000. The new bonds are to be secured by a second mortgage on the company's property, and are to be used either by sale or pledge to pay off the present floating indebtedness of the company, purchase additional properties, complete the company's present lines and build new ones.

The plan of the company to create a second bond issue is due principally to the fact that in the development of its properties opportunities were found for certain extensions which would add largely to the value of the whole property. There is only a small floating indebtedness, it is said, and it was deemed wise to finance the extensions and additions permanently from the start, rather than to do the extra work by the use of notes.

FRICK TAKES A PEW.

Rents Seat in St. Bartholomew's Church Adjacent to Those of Prominent Society Folk.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Henry C. Frick has taken up a permanent residence in this city. He has given up his apartments in Sherry's, where he has lived for several months while in New York, has brought his family from Pittsburgh, and is living in No. 640 Fifth avenue, which he has leased from George Vanderbilt at a yearly rental, said to be $50,000.

To still further identify himself and his family with New York and New York society, Mr. Frick today rented a pew in St. Bartholomew's church, adjacent to the pews of persons prominent in society.

GETS DROP ON INTRUDER HUNTING FOR SWEETHEART

NEW CASTLE, Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Attorney H. A. Wilkinson awakened at 1 o'clock this morning by an intruder in his home, seized a revolver and hurrying downstairs found a foreigner. Holding the man at the point of his revolver, Wilkinson telephoned the police and the man was arrested. He gave the name of John Hill, and said he had been hunting his sweetheart when he got into the wrong house. He was discharged.

HARRIMAN TRAIN LEAVES CHICAGO

APPEARS MINUS TROUSERS

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—The special train of E. H. Harriman, in which Miss Alice Roosevelt is a passenger, arrived in Chicago tonight at 8:05 o'clock, 50 hours and 44 minutes actual running time since starting from Oakland, Cal., having elapsed. The train started east at 9:07 o'clock, having been in Chicago one hour and two minutes.

The crew of the train and the passenger officers of both the Northwestern and the Lake Shore railroads asserted that no effort whatever was making to establish a record.

The run from Omaha to Chicago, 492½ miles, was made in 10 hours and 50 minutes. The time scheduled for the Overland Limited between Omaha and Chicago is 12½ hours. The running time from Chicago to New York will be about the same as that of the 18-hour limited train over the Lake Shore railroad.

OMAHA, NEB., Oct. 25.—Only for the interference of Julius Kruttschnitt this morning, E. H. Harriman, the railroad magnate, would have walked out on the platform of his car without his trousers on, and with about 2,000 people watching his actions.

As it was Mr. Harriman had already opened the car door when he was stopped. The special train pulled into Omaha half an hour before it was expected and Mr. Harriman was yet in bed. He dressed so hastily as to forget the trousers, and after slipping on an overcoat, started for the door.

Kruttschnitt saw the omission and called out: "Mr. Harriman, it is pretty cold out there; hadn't you better put on a pair of pants."

The occupants of the car roared, and joked him unmercifully as he finished dressing and went outside.

CLASSES JOIN FORCES TO FIGHT THE POLICE

Class Rush Becomes So Desperate That the Bluecoats Are Summoned to Scene by a Riot Call.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Twenty-five policemen and 200 students of the Chicago College of Dental Surgery fought this afternoon, following a class "rush," and 15 students were arrested. The police fired several shots in the air to frighten the students.

The freshmen and the junior classes were involved and the scrimmage became so desperate a riot call was sent to two police stations. When the police arrived the struggle between the students had been in progress half an hour and had blocked all traffic in nearby streets.

The students joined forces at the approach of patrol wagons. The policemen were pelted with stones and vegetables, while water was poured on them by students from the upper floors of the college. The policemen felt they were losing ground and fired several shots. This brought the students to a halt, and the policemen rushed on them with clubs, drove them in all directions and made the arrests.

Arthurs, formerly a private in the command, will sit at the regimental headquarters tonight. Maj. John C. Dunkle and Lieut. L. H. Johnson of the Fifth regiment will conduct the inquiry. The charges are trivial.

EASTON, PA., Oct. 25.—Special interest was added to Founder's day exercises at Lafayette college today by reason of the fact that it was the 80th birthday anniversary of Francis A. March, LL. D., the noted American philologist and the 50th anniversary of his connection with the college as an instructor.

SUIT ENDS THE MATCH

to reach him. He finally reached her and lifted her up beside him, after which the stream was cleared and they could see that their course had been approved. Another vision revealed a great ladder reaching far out into the heavens, he at the top and the girl at the bottom. After a while she managed to climb up to him and they were joined by a spirit.

Although the match was broken off by the opposition of relatives and the doctor ceased to be so active in his church affairs and no longer publicly paid attention to Miss Beattie, it became evident that they had not given up their cherished plans. This was demonstrated a week ago last Sunday when, in the presence of a great throng of people, the couple baptised each other in the Youghiogheny river at the foot of Thirteenth street, McKeesport.

No Parental Blessing for Him.

The next development was when they left McKeesport together in secret last Friday. They returned that evening and Dr. Grubbs took his wife to the home of her parents to receive the parental forgiveness and blessing. Instead he received one of the swiftest ejectment proceedings in the history of Allegheny county, the ejector being Miss Beattie's father. The parents learned the next morning that he had spoken the truth; that the couple had been married in Youngstown Friday by Elder F. S. Whitslar at his home, 255 West Boardman street.

Saturday evening Dr. Grubbs reinforced himself with Alderman W. D. Mansfield and again sought the Beattie domicile and his wife. He was refused admission to the house and possession of his wife. He has not seen her since.

Ages Not Important, He Says.

While considered somewhat of a religious fanatic, Dr. Grubbs was highly respected among the church members, and there was a sentiment akin to consternation at the romantic development. When seen yesterday Dr. Grubbs said:

"Yes, we were married in Youngstown, O., last Friday, and on that evening we went to Mrs. Grubbs' home for the parental blessing, but I was ejected. I have not heard that she wanted a divorce and cannot say just what I will do under the circumstances. Everything would have been all right had it not been for the interference of Mrs. Grubbs' parents. The girl loves me and I love her, so what should the difference in our ages matter? I cannot say if I will make any further efforts to see my wife or not."

JURIST'S AUTO IN MIXUP.

Justice Potter's Machine Participates in Three-Cornered Mishap in Which Woman Is Hurt.

A collision between a grocery wagon and a runabout driven by James McCarthy of 751 Mellon street, on North Negley avenue yesterday resulted in McCarthy and Miss Eliza Kane, who was driving with him, being thrown out. McCarthy escaped with slight bruises, but Miss Kane received a bad gash on the thigh.

The horse attached to the runabout ran away after the accident and collided with an automobile owned by Supreme Court Justice W. P. Potter of 304 South St. Clair street, breaking the axle of the machine. The runabout was badly wrecked and the horse slightly injured. Miss Kane was removed to her home.

GOES BACK TO PRISON.

Bondsman of Stanley Francis, Convicted Swindler in Cotton, Gives Him to Authorities.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Stanley Francis, convicted of fraud in connection with the Storey cotton swindle, who was allowed his liberty on bail pending argument on a motion for a new trial, has been sent to jail again.

Francis was surrendered to the United States authorities today by his bondsman, John H. Scott, who secured from Judge Holland the cancellation of his bond of $25,000. Efforts were made to secure other bail, but at the closing of the government offices the announcement was made that they had been unsuccessful, and Francis was taken to Moyamensing prison.

STRIKERS HOLD RUSSIA IN TOILS

Railroads and Industries Paralyzed and Situation Nears Serious Crisis.

CABINET IN LONG SESSION

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 25.—Confronted by a situation more crucial than any since the beginning of the political and social upheaval of Russia and which at the time this dispatch is filed shows no signs of amelioration, the emperor's ministers under the leadership of Count Witte, spent almost all of yesterday in conference in the hope of finding some way out of the crisis into which the Revolutionists and Socialists have cast the country.

The general strike on the railroads is complete except in a few border provinces. St. Petersburg, Moscow and other large cities are almost as closely beleaguered as if they were invested by besieging armies. At the same time the industrial strike has assumed large dimensions, and the turbulent elements in several localities are offering open resistence to the troops.

The ministers, who had been in session during the day, resumed their meeting after a short interval for dinner, and continued their deliberations until long after midnight. The result of these deliberations is not known.

The Finland railroad at Helsingfors and the steamers constitute St. Petersburg's only means of communication with the outer world this morning. The postal authorities are now refusing to accept ordinary mail and commercial correspondence is at a standstill.

The strike is complete in the great factory region on both banks of the Neva above the city, and in several other industrial quarters. Forty thousand men are out, but they are conducting themselves in a most orderly manner. The store clerks union tonight proclaimed a two weeks' sympathetic strike for political reasons, but it is probable that it will be only partially obeyed. Prudent inhabitants are laying in stocks of provisions, so as to prepare for emergencies. As a consequence the prices of provisions have risen sharply.

Large meetings, mainly of workmen, were held last night in the university and the higher schools, at which the sentiment was unanimous for continuing the strike on the railroads to the bitter end. The proceedings at several of the meetings were of a strongly revolutionary character, the orators calling on their auditors to rise and slay all "chinovniks" and the police and to meet the troops with armed force. These speeches were received with enthusiastic cheers. The police were powerless to interfere, the precincts of the university being forbidden ground to them, under an Imperial ukase.

COMMISSION DECIDES TO INVEST IN BONDS

Money in State Sinking Fund Will Be Used to Take Up Block Not Due for Several Days.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, Oct. 25.—That an honest effort is being made by the sinking fund commission to administer its affairs to the best interests of the commonwealth is apparent from the action taken today at a meeting of that body. At the close of the meeting the commission made public the following telegram, which was sent to Sailor & Stevenson, Philadelphia bankers:

"Sinking fund commission will purchase $45,000 4 per cent state bonds due 1912 at price you name in your letter of 23rd instant, viz.: 110⅝ and interest, and will purchase all you have to offer at that price until December 1st, 1905. When will bonds be ready for delivery?"

This telegram was signed by Robert McAfee, secretary of the commission; W. P. Snyder, auditor general, and W. L. Mathues, state treasurer, who constitute the commission.

A copy of the telegram was given out at the auditor general's department tonight with the explanation that the commission had consulted with Gov. Pennypacker and Attorney General Carson before agreeing to the purchase of these bonds, and that both of these officials advised the commission to buy them.

Both are expected to reach Pittsburgh this morning.

In the office of former Gov. William A. Stone a conference was held yesterday afternoon. Those present were Mr. Stone, representing the Mercantile Trust Company; Robert Snodgrass of Harrisburg, representing the United States Casualty and Guarantee Company of Baltimore; John P. Hunter, for the Equitable Trust Company, and Attorneys Thomas P. Trimble and William B. Rodgers, for the Enterprise bank directors. William A. Sipe apeared as personal counsel of President Fred Iswinner. The corporations named are bondsmen for state deposits in the Enterprise bank amounting to $1,022,000.

Distribution of the Bonds.

The distribution of the bonds is as follows: United States Guarantee, $400,000; Equitable Trust and Mercantile Trust, $250,000 each. The total bonds aggregate $900,000. This, however, does not represent the entire security on the state funds, as the directors are bonded for double the amount of the state deposits. The object of the meeting of the attorneys was to determine the relative liability of each of the bonding companies who are sureties for the state money.

The board of directors of the Enterprise bank held another meeting last night in the office of Attorney Thomas Trimble in the Frick building. At the conclusion of the meeting it was announced that there had been only a general discussion of the situation. Evidently, as each day goes by, some additional information is incorporated in their proposed plan of procedure. The state treasurer's action in filing judgments for more than $2,000,000 against the directors is a matter of some concern to them, and to protect themselves they are preparing to take prompt measures to secure all the money outstanding on notes that are due.

Experts to Help Receiver.

Receiver Cunningham yesterday morning dispensed with the services of the clerks in the Enterprise bank and started his own force of five assistants and a stenographer on the work of auditing the accounts. The men chosen are taken from national banks in Pittsburgh and are regarded as the most expert and fastest accountants and banking clerks in the city.

Charles P. Trimble was yesterday appointed receiver for the Allegheny Mattress and Spring Bed Company, against which complaint was filed by W. P. Trimble Sons & Co. The court was satisfied of the inability of the company to carry on its business in the usual way, although it is not insolvent. The receiver is ordered to conduct the business until January 1, 1906, and is placed under $20,000 bond. The late T. Lee Clark was an officer in this company and his death caused the temporary embarrassment.

The directors of the Standard Building and Loan associations Nos. 1 and 2 met yesterday morning and elected George Bardonner treasurer of both associations, to succeed the late T. Lee Clark. No director was chosen to fill Clark's place.

The first suit growing out of the failure of the Enterprise National bank will be filed this morning by Attorney John Marron, who will ask for an injunction to restrain a Pittsburgh bank from disposing of 145 shares of the preferred stock of the Crucible Steel Company, which his client gave the Enterprise bank as security for a loan of $8,500.

Attorney Marron yesterday stated the discovery that the Enterprise bank had hypothecated in other banks the securities given for loans was made when his client attempted to pay the loan yesterday. Mr. Marron says it was found the securities had been stripped from the collateral note and used in negotiating a loan in a Pittsburgh national bank. When the Pittsburgh bank was asked to turn over the stock certificates, it was then discovered the stock had been transferred to the name of one of its directors.

Mr. Marron stated his client gave 100 shares of the preferred stock and 100 shares of the common stock of the Crucible Steel Company to secure a loan of $8,500.

Bank Asked for More.

When the slump in the stock market came some time ago and the market value of Crucible stock diminished, the Enterprise bank called upon his client for additional security and the bank was given 45 additional shares of the Crucible preferred stock.

When it was found the 145 shares of preferred stock had been hypothecated in another bank, the owner of the securities refused to pay the loan unless the preferred stock and the 100 shares of the common stock, which was found at the bank were returned to him. Mr. Marron declined to tell the name of the Pittsburgh bank which holds the 145 preferred shares, or the name of the director to whom the stock was transferred since the Enterprise National failed, after the cashier committed suicide. This action, Mr. Marron says, indicates a conspiracy.

Five or six other persons, depositors in the Enterprise bank, have consulted Mr. Marron with a view of bringing criminal suits. Another instance of hypothecated securities was revealed by Attorney Walter E. Lyon, who is counsel for Francis J. Torrance and Arthur Kennedy. Mr. Lyon yesterday stated that Mr. Kennedy had secured a loan of $20,000 at a bank and he had given as security $65,000 worth of stock of a concern that was paying good dividends. Mr. Kennedy, he said, did not know the note was in the Enterprise bank till it was found by Bank Examiner Cunningham. The security, Mr. Lyon alleges, is missing, and so far the bank examiner has not been able to find it.

Declares Books Were Correct.

"The books of the bank contain no evidence that there had been anything wrong in the dealings of the bank up to the time that I turned them over," said George Ralston, head bookkeeper of the Enterprise National, last evening at the residence of his father, 197 Grant avenue, Bellevue.

Mr. Ralston reached Pittsburgh yesterday morning, coming from Havana, Cuba. He left Pittsburgh October 9 on his wedding trip. On his arrival at Havana last week he found a cablegram notifying him of the suicide of Cashier Clark and the closing of the bank. With his bride he returned to the United States on the next steamer and hastened to Pittsburgh.

"I was at the bank today," he said last evening. "The affairs there were being conducted by Bank Examiner Cunningham's staff. My visit was only a short one, since I could not expect to remain in the service of the bank at this time.

"I can add nothing to what has already been said regarding the bank's closing. It is evident that if I had any knowledge of the condition of affairs I should never have taken the step I did, married and started on my wedding trip at this time. I am absolutely without any knowledge of any wrongdoing at the bank. If Mr. Clark kept a private set of books I knew nothing of them and I only wish now I knew where they were. My own books are in the possession of the bank examiner and they will speak for themselves."

Coroner Will Hold Inquest.

Coroner Joseph G. Armstrong issued the following card last night:

On account of the agitation that has been going on pertaining to the suicide of Cashier T. Lee Clark of the Enterprise National bank, the coroner has decided to step aside from the regular practice in cases of this kind, which were always made solely his cases, and hold an inquest. The coroner also requests any person or persons knowing anything pertaining to the cause of the accident to be present at the hearing and give such information as may be in their possession. The details appearing in one of yesterday's afternoon papers is very much mistaken when it says that the coroner gave no reasons for not holding an inquest, because the reasons are very plainly stated in an article in yesterday morning's papers. The same article in the afternoon paper is also very much in the wrong in saying that the coroner was losing any fees by closing the case as he originally intended doing, because the fees are just the same in submit cases as in cases where an inquest is held, with the exception of the expenses attached to the jury.

The appearances are that this case is being made a political issue and it is being made to appear that the coroner is covering up something that the public should know, for the benefit of some political party. This is absolutely untrue, as the coroner knows nor cares nothing for any political party when it comes to business pertaining to his office. The inquest will be held not later than 10 o'clock Monday morning, and any newspaper having any attorneys it wishes to be present at the hearing may have them there and the coroner will be glad to have them ask any ot questions having any bearing on the case at hand.

Mr. Frederick Gwinner, Sr., president of the bank; the directors of the bank and Bank Examiner Cunningham will be subpoenaed to appear at the inquest and tell what they know pertaining to Mr. Clark's death.

Coroner Armstrong said the inquest might take place on Saturday. He has been confined to his home with throat trouble for a month but is rapidly improving. If he is able to be out by Saturday he will hold the inquest on that day; if not it will go over until Monday. He means to hold it personally, so that there can be no quibble as to where the responsibility rests.

Forty thousand dollars of the insurance upon the life of Cashier Clark was paid to the widow's attorney yesterday. This money cannot be touched by Clark's creditors or the creditors of the bank.

WISE AND MINOR SUE MRS. FLOWER

DR. FLOWER REPUDIATES THEM

Attorneys Jesse H. Wise and William E. Minor, doing business under the firm name of Wise & Minor, entered a summons in assumpsit yesterday against Eleanor Lockhart Flower. Roberts & Carter are the attorneys for the plaintiff. No statement was filed in the suit, although it is presumed it grows out of the settlement made by Mrs. Flower in the estate of her father, Charles Lockhart.

It is alleged these attorneys were among those employed to bring about a contest of the estate or to get a settlement. Among the other known attorneys were John C. Haymaker, William B. Rodgers, Joseph Stadtfeld and D. T. Watson. Just what part Messrs Wise & Minor had in this matter is not known. Attorney F. P. Iams was also mentioned as having had a hand in the affair, together with a number of doctors and detectives.

Two of the attorneys who are acknowledged representatives of Mrs. Flower denied last night that either Mr. Wise or Mr. Minor had been employed in the case in any manner or form as far as they knew. They claimed to be in ignorance as to the amount involved in the claim for fees, and stated they had not heard that these lawyers had asked for fees. They said emphatically that neither Mr. Wise nor Mr. Minor had been consulted by them in any manner or form relative to the settlement in the Lockhart estate, and had not been in consultation at any of the meetings. The same thing was denied by attorneys representing the Lockhart estate.

Dr. Flower, husband of the defendant in this suit, said last night that he was as much mystified by the action against his wife as any person. He was positive that Mrs. Flower had never retained either of the lawyers, and said positively that he knew she had never spoken to either of them about the estate or the settlement. He said she would not know Mr. Minor if he presented himself, and knew Mr. Wise as a member of the same church, but had not retained him to do any work for Mrs. Flower in a legal way. Mrs. Flower had always consulted Attorney John C. Haymaker, he said, as Mr. Haymaker had been his father's personal attorney for years and had always been retained by them in any legal matters.

"I am as much in the dark regarding this action against Mrs. Flower as you are," said the doctor, "and she knows nothing about the matter at all. I know that anything that was done in connection with the Lockhart estate, if that is what they are suing about, was attended to by Mr. Haymaker and those he might have employed, but that is a private affair that interests nobody and is nobody's business. I don't care to talk about it, as I am in no way interested in what Mrs. Flower might have done regarding her own affairs. I do know that if that suit is for fees, she will not pay them, whether they file a precipe or a statement."

Mr. Wise refused to discuss the suit, except to say that the statement when filed, would explain his part in the Lockhart affair, and what he was entitled to. He refused to go into a detailed explanation, but claimed he was retained in the matter, which led to a settlement.

BIGELOW PLANS FRANCHISE RAID

W. H. Stevenson Charges Elevated Railroad Is Projected for Liberty Avenue.

SIMILAR TO BOULEVARD GRAB

The charge is made by William H. Stevenson, former councilman and leader of the Orphans party, and is supported by current report, that Director Bigelow has planned another franchise raid, similar to the Grant boulevard grab.

Mr. Stevenson makes the charge that Director Bigelow proposes to secure for a syndicate, composed of the financial backers of the Bigelow machine, a franchise to build an elevated railroad in Liberty avenue from Eleventh street to the Point, and that the franchise is to be railroaded through the city councils in the interim between the municipal election next February and April, when the new mayor and councils are to go into office.

Mr. Stevenson states that this franchise is to be sold or leased to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and the elevated road in Liberty avenue is to be built for freight traffic of the Pennsylvania to the new warehouse at the Point, forming a loop with the elevated line down Duquesne way. Speaking on the subject yesterday Mr. Stevenson said:

"Liberty avenue, from Eleventh street to the Point, is to be stolen from the city and turned over to a syndicate. Plans have been completed and the time acneduled for the perpetration of this outrage is immediately following the February election. An elevated railroad is to be built in Liberty avenue and after it is completed it is to be turned over to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

Resembles Boulevard Grab.

"The county campaign and the campaign for mayor and councils will be over in February and the bosses doubtless think that the people will have forgotten before the date of another election. It will be remembered that the traction franchise for the Grant boulevard was stolen at a similar period after the election of councils in February, 1904, and the installation of the new councils in April following.

"This franchise grab as planned will resemble closely the Grant boulevard theft. The franchise for the elevated road is to be forced through councils and turned over to a syndicate which will lease or sell it to the Pennsylvania Railroad.

"The Grant boulevard franchise, it will be remembered, was sold to the syndicate backing the Bigelow machine to the Pittsburgh Railways Company, and public spirited men have attacked this nefarious transaction in the courts. I have been gathering information for some time regarding this latest job, and had decided to give to the public during the present week what I have learned. I am giving this information today because of the publication this morning, indefinite though it was, regarding plans for an elevated railroad in Liberty avenue.

"The talk that the new elevated road is to be used for suburban passenger trains is the purest buncombe, and is only intended to throw dust in the eyes of the public. The road will be used in conjunction with the Duquesne elevated road for hauling frieght to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's warehouses at the Point.

Elevated Succeeds Surface Tracks.

"When the Grant boulevard franchise was rammed through councils, pleas that were almost tearful were made about the necessity for more street car lines. Everybody knows what has happened. No one appreciates more than I the inadequate transportation facilities of Pittsburgh and vicinity, but the men behind this latest projected grab have no intention of affording the relief so much needed.

"To fully realize the extent of the job set up one must call to mind the contract made with the city at the time the franchise for the Duquesne elevated railroad was forced through councils and given to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The contract called for the removal of the tracks on Liberty avenue within two years. Even that small compensation to the city for a franchise worth millions of dollars is to come to naught and an elevated freight road is to take the place of the present surface road.

"The Orphans party councilmen made a hard, but unsuccessful attempt to obtain a cash compensation for the Duquesne franchise, but the fact remains that the contract calling for the removal of tracks from Liberty avenue still exists and doubtless will be violated like all the pledges made by the Citizens party to the people. The various public utterances of Director Bigelow in regard to 'a city beautiful,' the magnificent thoroughfare Liberty avenue would be after the removal of the tracks and the relief to the congestion of the city are evidently insincere and for the purpose of diverting the public mind from the true intent and purpose of the Citizens party managers to loot the city of every valuable franchise and take from the taxpayers the last opportunity of forcing from the corporations their just and proportionate share of the cost of the city government."

Deny Stevenson's Charge.

Director Bigelow emphatically denies that an elevated line is planned in Liberty avenue, and says no such project has ever been discussed by him and the Pennsylvania railroad officials. The Pennsylvania railroad officials also deny the story.

"It is rot, simply rot," said General Agent Herbert A. Jaggard of the Pennsylvania system. "I know there is absolutely nothing to it. How the counting of passengers at Union station could be connected with an elevated line in Liberty avenue I cannot tell. The counting is simply to ascertain the amount of business done at Union station. Such a count is made every once in a while at the Broad street station in Philadelphia."

"If an elevated railroad in Liberty avenue is contemplated the company seeking the franchise will have to fight every property owner in the avenue," said William A. Renshaw, a Liberty avenue property owner and merchant, yesterday.

"I have not heard and do not know that there is such a scheme," said Mr. Renshaw, "but if an elevated railroad is ever built in Liberty avenue the damage will be enormous. It will run up into the millions of dollars. Liberty avenue is the most promising street in the city and it is to the interest of the city at large, as well as the owners of the property in the street, to protect this thoroughfare from elevated roads.

"A couple of years ago, when the Philadelphia Company proposed to build an elevated traction line in Liberty avenue, the property owners organized and appointed a committee to protect the street. I am a member of this committee. The committee has never been discharged and is ready to take up the fight again whenever necessary."

HEAVYWEIGHT M'GRAW FALLS INTO CELLAR

Tips Beam at 250, but Puddle of Soft Mud, Averts Injury—Two Others Are Hurt.

Hugh McGraw, aged 25, of 55 Fourteenth street, fell into a 20-foot excavation at Garrison alley and Penn avenue, about 9 o'clock last night, and escaped injury. McGraw weighs about 250 pounds. It is supposed he was walking along the sidewalk and fell over a short railing into the cellarway. Some persons passing heard McGraw groaning, but were unable to see to the bottom of the excavation. Special Officers Jeffries and Morgan, while searching with their pocket electric lights, found McGraw lying in a puddle of mud. He was locked in Central station on a charge of drunkenness.

Charles Hammer, aged 15, of 818 North Negley avenue, fell through a skylight at the Annex hotel, Sixth street and Penn avenue, yesterday, and broke his back. He was employed as a plumber's helper and fell from the second floor to the basement. He was taken to the Homeopathic hospital.

Patrick Conway, an old soldier, of 3005 Brereton avenue, fell down a flight of stairs at his home at 7 o'clock last night. He was taken to the West Penn hospital. He is 65 years old and his condition is serious.

Captures Morganza Fugitive.

John Fisher, aged 20, was arrested yesterday at Foster and Forty-second streets by Capt. Welsh, as a Morganza fugitive. Fisher is alleged to have escaped from that institution two years ago, and says he has been working all of that time at his trade at the McConway-Torley foundry. He will be sent back to Morganza.

A Sale of Good MANDOLINS

Like the rest of humanity, we occasionally make mistakes. In placing his Mandolin orders for fall and Christmas trade our buyer, instead of splitting his order into two shipments, as he intended to do, ordered the full quantity for both shipments. We made the discovery of the duplication some weeks after the first shipment, and now the second shipment is on its way.

Stylish Millinery for Girls.

Latest Models in Street, School and Dress Hats.

IN charming hats for girls we are showing some of the most exclusive styles in the city. A special interest is taken in the various styles of youthful hats to make the hats girlish, to give them a jaunty effect; to get away, as far as possible, from the bad taste of putting elderly shapes on young heads.

An assortment of girlish hats is carried in this department that has no parallel in the city. The range begins with the simply-banded scuff soft felt hat, and the hats grow better and more stylish as we reach hats of kid, of patent leather, of silk combinations, of satin, and of beaver. These hats for girls are shown in white, in combinations of black and white, and of red and black, and many other unions of color.

We also have two-toned felts and trimmed hats in all the nice shades that have been given felt.

A very elaborate display is now being made of dressy velvet hats and hats in those captivating lace effects.

We should like to see girls come with their mothers, as it is a prerogative of the girl to say what she likes best in millinery. Don't forget that.

We have a very large variety of trimmed hats for girls, the range taking in every youthful style, beginning at $1.75 and ranging up to as costly as one may see fit to consider.

Silk and velvet roses, three in a bunch, branched with foliage, different varieties at 50c a bunch.

Very large imported Roses of silk and velvet, two in a bunch, richest of colors, special at, a bunch, 95c.

Wings, Quills, Fancy Feather Ornaments, Pompons and Breasts, in endless variety, also ptarmigan wings in all colors, at 50c.

Ostrich Plumes in black and white, all new shades, the popular lengths of 13, 15 and 18 inches, and such popular prices as $2.25, $3.75 and $5.00.

ESPECIALLY FOR WOMEN we have 100 new and beautiful hats just from the trimmers' hands. All the new shapes and designs, from the smart little toque to the ever-becoming sailor. The materials used are velvets, and two-tone felts, and combinations of velvet and silk. The colors are black and colored chenille effects. We are going to name a special price for these hats, and among them are many high-priced samples from several New York manufacturers. Choice from the entire lot is $5.00.

Now Is a Good Time to Choose Fine Novelty Tailored Gowns.

$25.00 and Easily Along to $200.00.

THE finer models in this collection cannot possibly be surpassed in beauty. Individual as many are, today you get them, tomorrow or next week they may be gone.

The diversity of the collection is impressive—if twelve suits don't exactly meet your wishes probably the thirteenth will.

Here's a long-coated corduroy suit with broadcloth cuffs and collar, serving to heighten its quiet elegance. Gay Eton suits on every side charm, though their very differences bewilder—hard to know which is most becoming.

That with velvet jacket, handsomely decorated with braid in unusual ways, and garnished with cerise, has a delightful skirt of broadcloth banded with velvet.

American tailoring is superb—Paris ideas are magnificent—here you will see copies of Francis coats in the newest shades, barely reaching the hips and as elaborately decorated as an eton.

Braid has a prominent place.

Buckles also share in popularity, and embroidery of gold is high in honor.

A handsome princess style of broadcloth is developed with checked velvet vest and outer loose jacket with white corded silk. These suits would not be so French in style, though American in price, were not the skirts as individual as the coats. They are uncommon skirts. Such variations as tucks, pleats, folds, circular and other fashions as only geniuses can invent.

Kid Gloves for Women and Children.

THIS morning we speak of some of our lines of inexpensive gloves for women and children—not absurdly cheap, but reasonably cheap—gloves that you can rely on for service, and which are as neat as need be.

Women's two-clasp French Kid Gloves, glace finish, all the new Fall shades, brown, tan, beaver, mode, gray, white and black, equal to any $1.25 gloves sold here about, 95c a pair.

Women's two-clasp French Suede Gloves, medium and long fingers, silk embroidered backs, equal to any $1.35 suede on the market, $1.00 a pair.

Children's Kid Gloves in all the new Fall shades, sizes for the tiniest child to the young miss or young man, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50.

President Roosevelt's appearance before an Arkansas audience, clad in a raincoat and pajamas, is characteristic of the foremost exemplar of the strenuous life. The assembled crowd not having its ardor dampened by a pouring rain, Mr. Roosevelt felt it should not be disappointed by reason of him having gone to bed.

Isham Randolph, member of the board of consulting engineers, predicts the Panama canal will be completed within 10 years. Mr. Randolph has just come from the isthmus and speaks from knowledge of the conditions and preparations for work. His estimate is high testimony to the aggressiveness and efficiency of American engineering, as well as American energy. Ten years is enough.

During the past few days the postoffice and bank burglars have been exceedingly active throughout the country. This is their favorite season for operating, as noted in this column some time ago, and special precautions should be taken until good "tracking snow" appears. Village bankers and postmasters naturally have to depend more on themselves than on the one or two officers on duty in such places.

Capt. Groome, superintendent of the new state constabulary, is to be commended for his announced decision to have only effective men, physically and mentally, and of good moral character, on his force. Of 1,000 applicants who underwent the physical examinations, but 250 stood the test. These will now take a mental examination and then the character of those successful will be investigated. A similar policy in choosing city policemen would effect a decided improvement in the personnel of the force.

The tie-up of Russia's railways is made complete by the defection of the Warsaw & Baltic employes. Yesterday not a train left or entered St. Petersburg. Many other industries are becoming affected daily. Realizing the helplessness of the government, which is unable to concentrate troops at the storm centers, agitators are growing bolder and freely urge revolution. Russia has passed through more than one crisis, but the one now gathering promises to tax the government's resources to the utmost. The outbreak at Ekaterinoslov is of the gravest moment.

The 300 school teachers of Toronto, Canada, who will arrive in Pittsburgh this afternoon have chosen an interesting and instructive place to visit. In no other city in the country could they enjoy more sights of direct educative value. Not only in the schools, but in the great industrial plants will they gain many valuable suggestions for use in the class room. Greater Pittsburgh is full of object lessons, many of which are appreciated more by the stranger within our gates than by the long-time resident, who has grown accustomed to the sights of the "workshop of the world."

A plea of guilty has been entered by S. C. Wilkinson on the charge of embracery in connection with the Allegheny graft cases. Sentence will be imposed later. Wilkinson trusts to the mercy of the court, and mercy will, presumably, be extended, with due regard to the necessity for discouraging such practices. Meantime District Attorney Stewart has decided not to call any of the graft cases until after election, so no politics can get mixed with the machinery of justice. After election the grafters should be made to suffer, and if there be further attempts to fix juries there can be no consideration of mercy in dealing with the offenders.

Foreign critics attending the Chinese military maneuvers, which are taking place in the vicinity of Pekin this week, are reported to be greatly impressed by the enormous improvement shown by the Chinese troops over their form of five years ago. This is part of the general awakening in China. The chief drawback in the Chinese army at present is lack of equipment. The old-fashioned rifles with which the troops are supplied are ineffective. Lord Beresford, in 1898, inspected 14 different "armies" in various parts of China, and counted as many different kinds of rifles, finding only one "army" approaching completeness of equipment according to western ideas. In his opinion, the Chinese need only training, equipment and leadership to make excellent soldiers.

Turn on the Light.

Gov. Pennypacker's letter to President Roosevelt requesting an exhaustive investigation of Enterprise National bank affairs is a timely contribution to the widespread demand to have the light turned on. Nothing short of the most complete investigation and exposure of the facts will satisfy the public. The sooner the information can be made public the better, and, when the truth is known, vigorous prosecution of the guilty will be in order.

Already the controller of the currency has detailed a special examiner and sent counsel to assist Receiver Cunningham. The department of justice has taken steps to be fully informed, and will be ready to take whatever action the case requires. All of this is gratifying to the lovers of truth and justice, for it gives assurance of punishment for all who have been guilty of wrong-doing and ultimate protection for the innocent. The Gazette can only repeat the request it has emphatically made to TURN ON THE LIGHT and if possible to have it turned on BEFORE THE ELECTION.

Characterless persons and organs which have been dealing in reckless charges and assertions calculated to shake public confidence have conspicuously belittled such facts as have been authenticated. Happily, however, their power to do harm by circulating baseless rumors is diminishing. Their animus is better appreciated from day to day as their basest slanders are refuted. Though they may grow more hysterical in their ravings they are attracting less attention. Sensible people are winnowing out the grains of truth, are satisfied the worst is over, that state funds are secure and that no wholesale conspiracy to defraud has been in operation. The Enterprise National affair is bad enough, but it is isolated and it will be probed to the bottom.

With Stolen Goods.

While The Gazette cannot agree with the Orphans, Lincoln party and Independent Democrats that any connection exists between the Republican state organization and the discredited Democratic-Citizens organization in this county, it can appreciate the accuracy of the arraignment of the Big-elow-Verner-Hays outfit. The record of this miserable purloiner of a reform movement is an open book. Its impositions on the public are fresh in remembrance, for the burden of them is upon the people. Its violation of every solemn pledge, made in order to get in control, is notorious.

In the course of the pronunciamento is a pertinent quotation from City Controller Larkin when that gentleman was freeing his mind July 25, 1904, which summed up the situation at that time and the situation is not now one whit different. "Neither he, nor any other man," said Mr. Larkin, "can restore the Citizens party to confidence while it has stolen goods in its pockets. There must be true repentance and that repentance must include restitution by the repeal of the boulevard, bank and water grabs."

Other sections of the address give a graphic view of the nature of the boulevard and bank grabs. Citizens party leaders and their associates, it says, procured the boulevard franchise in violation of every enunciated principle of the Citizens party and immediately put it on the auction block to be sold to the highest bidder. City funds, the address says, obtained by the sale of the bonds, long in advance of necessity, are deposited in favored banks at 2 per cent, though Controller Larkin openly offered to secure depositories of equal reliability that would pay 3 per cent.

No restitution has been made by the repeal of these grabs and the people cannot have confidence in the Democratic-Citizens alliance, held together "by the cohesive power of plunder" only. Mr. Larkin spoke truly; there can be no confidence in that discredited organization under the circumstances. It can be trusted with no further lease of power. It has been faithless; it has devoted itself to graft instead of reform; in greed and disregard of public rights it has exceeded anything previously thought of. Its whole county ticket should be buried under such an avalanche of votes that it may never again emerge.

Fighting the Age Limit.

A Chicago corporation in need of help advertised recently for "middle-aged business men, active and intelligent," and was overwhelmed with applications. The management had decided that for the particular purpose in view, the selling of real estate, men of mature age were better qualified than younger men. The president of the corporation is also a member of the Anti-Age Limit association, which may have had something to do with the corporation's attitude toward middle-aged men. In interesting contrast is the announcement of a Chicago magazine, devoted to "short cuts in business," than no person in its employ, in any capacity, from janitor to editor, is over 30 years of age. The statement is made in proof of the publication's progressiveness and enterprise, but it is more likely to awaken doubts as to the common sense of the management. The establishing of such an arbitrary age limit is the company's own business, but boasting of it is not the best kind of advertising. A correspondent writes to a New York paper that he is over 65 years old, but his employers believe him to be about 40. He is encouraging them in the belief in order to retain his position, although his work has given great satisfaction.

A great deal of nonsense has been written about the "dead line" in business even since Dr. Osler's playful remarks on the age limit were given such wide circulation. The fact is, employers are not paying nearly so much attention to the ages of their employes as to the character of their services. The man who says he is 65, but encourages his employers to believe him 40, is going to unnecessary trouble if his work is as satisfactory as he says it is. He is in the insurance business, and so long as he is writing a sufficient number of policies each month, his company will not care whether he is 65 or 85. A man of 25 who didn't "deliver the goods" would stand no better chance of permanent employment. It is the man who "makes good" who holds his job.

An Elevated Rumor.

A report is current that an elevated railroad franchise for the Pennsylvania railroad will be sought on Liberty avenue. Such a project in the hands of the Bigelow-Verner-Hays combination cannot be countenanced, for it would certainly prove a repetition of the Grant boulevard steal. Pittsburgh hears with apprehension and fear any rumors of franchises to be granted by the powers now in control of the city government.

There is another aspect in which such a proposition can be considered. If the Pennsylvania railroad should come forward with a definite business proposition to make full and adequate compensation to the public and to absolutely protect the city by assuming all consequential damages, it would be entitled to a respectful hearing. There is no other plane on which such a project can be reasonably discussed. All rights of the Pennsylvania railroad in Liberty avenue have been relinquished in consideration of the permission to build an elevated road in Duquesne way, and any fresh proposition to occupy Liberty avenue must be considered as a primary project on the basis of full, adequate compensation and ample guarantees to hold the city free from all possible resulting damages.

Officials of the railroad company and others deny that such a project is contemplated. They ought to know. There is certainly no foundation for the claim that two tracks in Duquesne way are unequal to handling the freight traffic between the Point and Eleventh street. They are ample for three times the conceivable business of that branch. A Liberty avenue line might be desired for the accommodation of suburban passenger business. But in any case, the people of Pittsburgh will not approve any deal for a franchise with the present faithless administration and will consider nothing but a business proposition on the basis of full compensation and guarantee as above stated.

A new candidate for public favor has appeared in Braddock, the Evening Journal. Its first issue was on Tuesday evening and it is creditably arranged and printed. James L. Quinn, formerly connected with The Gazette, is editor, and Charles F. Kramer, associate editor. These young men should be able to achieve success.

Straw vote fiends attempted to poll a prayer meeting in New York the other night. This is only a shade better than polling the mourners, a Chicago feat during the first Bryan campaign.

It is to be hoped Mr. Bryan will not accumulate so many gifts in his travels as to cause him to take an even more bitter view of the protective tariff upon his return.

QUIET OBSERVATIONS ON WAYS OF WORLD

The More Freely We Use What We Have the More Will Be Given.

By ERASMUS WILSON.

Belinda dear, once on a time,
My best beloved of pretty girls,
It was my wont to turn a rhyme
And say your mouth was full of pearls.

In blissful ignorance of yore
I thought my compliment but truthful;
But knowledge grows from more to more—
Only the brainless now are toothful.

So take a cab, Belinda dear,
Hie where the dentistry is painless,
Have out the pearls which now I fear,
Are merely teeth to prove you brainless.
—Westminster Gazette.

The foregoing blast was excited, or rather, the writer was incited to blowing it, by reading an article in which Sir Oliver Lodge gives it as his opinion,—"a opinion as is a opinion,"—that the more brains one has the less teeth one has—unless they are artificial.

What is your opinion, based on your personal experiences and observation?

* * *

There is, as you know, an eternal fitness of things; that is, all things eventuate, or work out in accordance with the original plan, which was from eternity past, and so on to eternity to come.

This is a good point to bear in mind, since those who refuse to order their conduct in accordance with the original plan are foredoomed to failure in this life, which means failure in life to come.

You may think this talk of Sir Oliver a joke, but he did not mean it as such, but spoke in all seriousness, and wisely, too, for it is a fact that the farther we get away from the original plan of living the more we suffer in body.

When people get smart, brainy, as they say, their main effort seems to be to inaugurate new plans different from the original. It is to this that we are indebted for bad teeth, appendicitis, consumption, baldness, and a majority of the ills which we are inclined to charge to carelessness, or lack of foresight, on the part of the creator of all things, ourselves included.

* * *

High living and bad teeth go together like fast friends, and that in spite of dentrifices and tooth brushes.

But what use have high livers for teeth, anyway? They insist on having their food made soft and mushy so they can eat with a spoon. This rule has become so general and so fixed that it is bad form entirely to eat with knife and fork as did our forbears.

Of course you may use a fork if you know how to poise and balance it to show off your rings, or shapely hands, or good breeding. But a knife, never, unless you are prepared to go to social limbo.

Teeth and fingers were made long before knives and forks or spoons, and were used exclusively by the best society in early times, even to the very earliest.

This was in accordance with the original plan, consequently society folks in those days were noted for good teeth and left fingers.

Me, Oh, my! wouldn't it raise a social ruction if a bunch of society folks fashioned after those who lived in really primitive times, should drop into the arena of fashion as it is today? And wouldn't the bunch be amused—or disgusted?

* * *

It hasn't been so long, not so very long, say two or three centuries, or even less—since society folks, royalty itself, ate with their fingers, crunched small bones, such as spareribs and the bones of birds, fish and small game, with their teeth.

To do this, sound, strong teeth were absolutely necessary, and for that reason the people had them, for according to the original plan the creative force or forces provide whatsoever is absolutely necessary in this world of ours.

The creative force exists today the same as when the things we see and know were created. Were it not so wounds in flesh of living things would not heal, and life would soon cease to be.

The contra force, if we may term it such, is as sure to destroy that for which there is no use as is the creative force to create, or develop that which is demanded by necessity.

Life, plus energy and action, means growth, efficiency, success; while life, minus energy and creation, means decay, degeneration, failure.

This being the law in the case you can readily perceive that there are good reasons why your teeth are bad, and your health, too.

* * *

Children of the wild have no trouble during the teething period, and mainly because they chew on bones, gristle, and shells.

Your teething children cry for something hard to bite on to help their teeth through. Unless they are supplied with this their teeth cause the tender gums to become congested, swollen and painful, even throwing the little innocents into fits and spasms.

These children of the wild begin to lose their teeth when their usefulness begins to fail. This is another wise provision of nature, it being an easy and sure way to their departure from the phase of life that is sustained by material food, their lives declining as their teeth take their leave.

Your children have enough of the wild in them to hanker for hard things to chew, nuts to crack, hard knots to untie. Being denied these their teeth grow indifferently, develop imperfectly and die prematurely.

Will civilization ever succeed in eliminating the wild from boys and girls?

Hardly, for when the wild, the original nature, has been eliminated the race will have been eliminated from the living world.

Fortunately there is a lot of the wild in children, as shown in their tastes and conduct. For instance:

A cat, an old tou pail, a boy,
A piece of twine, a quiet street—
A boy's face quivering with joy—
This makes the personae complete.

The boy, with rapid movement clasps
And holds the cat 'tween head and tail,
Then deftly he the strong twine clasps
And to the cat he hangs the pail.

The cat is nearly paralyzed—
It feels that something's wrong behind,
And looks around as if surprised
To see the long tail thus confined.

No pity lurks within the heart
Of the young urchin. There he stands,
To give the cat and pail a start
Py wildly smiting both his hands.

* * * * * * *

A cat, a pail, a dusty cloud—
A boy with care-depicted face,
Who murmurs in a voice not loud,
Oh, feline Requius-cat-in-pace.
—Jamie.

TAMMANY FORCES OUT OLD FERRY EMPLOYES

New Municipal Service Proves Another Pie for Followers of the Tiger.

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—That Tammany cannot possibly keep hands off anything in the shape of pie, was demonstrated today when the new municipal ferry to Staten Island opened. Employes who have grown gray in the service on the old corporation ferries, and who are known to all the residents of the island, were thrown out of their positions to make room for men with the Tammany brand upon their collars. Some of the old employes were kept, but they all found some one else in positions higher up, while they were inched down a little to make room for political henchmen at a little higher pay. There has been many a wail as a result, but that will have no effect.

Another thing the new ferry service proves is that while municipal ownership of public utilities might possibly be a good scheme if properly handled, it would be far from good under Tammany rule. On the new ferries are numerous positions that were never needed before, and their only value now is in making places for men with the proper pull behind them. The result will be that the new ferry service will be much more costly than the old system run by a private corporation. The improvement will not be so great as to be especially noticeable, either. If this can be taken as a fair sample of what Tammany would do with municipal ownership, it isn't hard to decide which way to vote. It would be a mighty costly experiment.

Littlest Man in Town.

The smallest man in the world has arrived in New York from the outside of the globe. Compared to Smaun Sing Hpoo, Tom Thumb would have appeared almost a giant. Hpoo is a Burmese. He is 23 years old, 34 inches tall and weighs just 20 pounds. That he is a valuable asset it shown by the fact that his life is insured for just $1,000 per pound, or $20,000. This little fellow is perfectly formed, and even muscular. He is quite an athlete in a small way, and it is to show himself and his athletic stunts—at so much per week—that he has come to America. He is now at one of the vaudeville thesters here, but he will undoubtedly make a visit to Pittsburgh before he leaves the country.

Pony Has Lively Morning.

One little yellow mustang caused more trouble and excitement in One hundred and Tenth street this morning than a whole circus might be expected to start. He was scared by an automobile, and dashed through the streets, hitting street cars and all sorts of obstructions. His driver clung to the reins, and followed the pony into the East river. The driver swam for shore, but the pony started for the other side. Two men in a boat followed and caught him, but he managed to capsize the boat before they got him to land. The feat was finally accomplished, however, and the pony is now munching hay in his stall as though nothing had happened.

One Penalty of Fame.

Souvenir hunters will appropriate anything to their collection. This morning as William M. Ivins, Republican candidate for mayor, left his headquarters at the Hotel Breslin, he dropped a handkerchief. The little piece of linen was immediately pounced upon by a prosperous-looking gentleman who but a moment before had nodded to the candidate. But instead of returning the handkerchief to its owner, the man put it carefully in his pocket, and apparently treasured it as much as he would a big yellow bill with a "C" on it.

Every Male Student Suspended.

Daubed on the wall of a room in the National Academy of Design at Amsterdam avenue and One Hundred and Ninth street, is an unsightly streak of paint, and because of it every male student in the academy has been suspended indefinitely. The commissioners of the academy have decided that the suspension may continue until the student responsible for the disfigurement reveals his identity to them. The daub of paint was applied Saturday morning when one of the hundred or so male students left his classroom and was on his way to the washroom to cleanse his brushes.

Murphy Declares He Is Confident.

After he had gone over reports submitted by his district leaders, Charles F. Murphy declared today the Democratic ticket would be elected by a big plurality. "I don't care to give figures," he said, "but Mayor McClellan's majority will be so large it would make you laugh to see the figures. The papers have said the Tammany executive committee would meet to consider the situation. There is no need of such a meeting." While some Tammany leaders declare the deserters from their ranks are swinging back into line, many of them assert that conditions are just as they were four or five years ago and that reports are so confusing they cannot make anything like an accurate estimate.

Gives Good Reasons.

One of the large manufacturers of the Canonsburg region in an interview with a representative of the Observer gave some good reasons why the Republicans of this county should be loyal to their party at this time. He said: "Movements like the one now in progress in Washington county are the beginnings of ultimate Democratic success, unless they are discouraged in their infancy and their promoters given to understand that this is a Republican county, true to Republican principles, and that it must not be taken away from the moorings that have brought to it an unlimited prosperity and progress."—Washington Observer.

COPARTNERSHIP OF LABOR AND CAPITAL

Popularity and Profits of Such Associations in England—Self-Help to Labor.

Co-operation has been a long-tried scheme in Great Britain, and the report of Consul Swalm of Southampton, England, on the results of labor copartnership, as seen through an exhibition recently held in London, is of present interest. Mr. Swalm in his report to the state department says that "one of the most interesting as well as instructive exhibitions of the results labor co-operative" managed opened at the Crystal Palace, London, some weeks ago, under the auspices of 'The Labor Co-partnership association,' which at the same time signalizes its twenty-first year of real, practical official life. For a very long time co-operation in some form, municipal or the combined individual form, has had adoption in the manufacturing centers of England, as well as in rural communities, some on municipal lines, dating back as far as 1251, at which time the supplying of 'good, clean water for the use of the inhabitants' was taken in hand by the old town of Southampton, and continues so to this day in that section known as the old town. In the last quarter of a century, however, an active and practical propaganda has been carried on on the lines of organizing all classes of industry devoted to labor co-operation, in which mutual sharing of profits, capital, control and responsibility should be the common lot. At the same time every inducement was given in argument to induce employers of labor to adopt plans of profit sharing and investment, with gratifying success, considering the conservative character marking the English business community, not to say the workmen themselves.

Products and Profits.

"The exhibition showed the products of nearly one hundred different co-operative associations and in the general quality and finish of goods met every ordinary and sensible demand. Some of these exhibitions had been in working existence from 1862, when the Paisley Manufacturing society was formed. In 1872 Hebden Bridge Fustian society came into life, followed by the Airedare Worsted Manufacturing society at Bradford; then the Wallsall Lock and Hardward society and the Leek Silk Twist society. These are mentioned among the many others, from their splendid success attending them as prosperous manufacturing concerns, in which labor is also the owner of the plant as well as the sharer in the profits arising from sensible and up-to-date management. It should be here stated that with the formation of the labor association, the interest in labor co-operation and partnership was quickened and consolidated, and a way afforded for the easy adoption of well-tried plans, and reasons given why so many dreams of the past had been rosy dreams only when brought to the hard test of practical work. Such men as Mr. Henry Vivian, the very able secretary of the association, and his coworkers, have builded a structure that today stands the test of practical judgment. Success is a sufficient answer to general criticism; labor and capital mutually profitably employed is an answer generally found satisfactory.

Growth of the System.

"The statistics that Secretary Vivian furnishes are of much interest. In 1882 there were only 15 co-operative societies for production, based on the copartnership policy. In 1903 these had increased to 77, and now number 126. In 1883 the capital of all classes amounted to $500,000. In 10 years this had increased to over $3,000,000, while now it stands roundly at $9,400,000. In 1883 the sales were about $800,000, by 1893 they had increased to $5,000,000, and in 1904 to the sum of $16,500,000. In 1883 the profits were $45,000; in 1903 they reached $325,000, while in 1904 the sum so set aside was above $900,000, with a dividend further on wages of $115,000. These figures as to the number of societies include those found in Scotland, where are found several large establishments, the Scottish Wholesale and the United Baking being most prosperous concerns. In Ireland the co-operative idea is strongly in force, but copartnership is recognized only in the setting aside of 10 per cent of profits for employes, and according them the right to become shareholders, but none of the Irish business is here calculated.

Extended to Agriculture.

"On agricultural lines, both in England and Ireland, the co-operative idea has found successful adoption. In Ireland the agricultural co-operative societies number about 800, with 79,000 members and controlling a trade of $7,200,000. The societies are formed almost wholly of the small working farmers and they are generally well satisfied with the practical benefits that have been assured in the past. With an increase of about sevenfold in a comparatively short time the advocates of the copartnership plan feel decidedly hopeful as to the future. It is a pleasure to note that the report shows a devotion on the part of the controlling factors to plain duty honestly performed, of the most gratifying character, meeting high ideals faithfully.

Effects of the System.

"A vast amount of educational work has been done among the working classes and much more remains to be done. The lack of general education of the class sought to be benefited, through lack in the past of schooling privileges of practical character, has left much to be desired on these lines. With the successful establishment of these copartnerships has come into practical shape prosperous and contented communities, and that alone is proving an immense factor in the development of the idea among these who think beyond the week end. Copartnership has not been made antagonistic to trade unionism, but is made to lead that organized spirit out on lines of real self-help."

Interesting Happenings Concerning the People Who Are Traveling.

Such was the answer of Freight Traffic Manager D. T. McCabe of the Pennsylvania lines west last evening as he walked out to the limited to go to Chicago. The answer came from Mr. McCabe jokingly in response to a question as to whether there was any special significance in his trip west.

But the answer carried a significance, for it voiced the expression of railroad men and travelers at the station and hotels yesterday and last evening over the test run that was made Tuesday by Messrs. Peck, Atterbury, Schoyer and Pitcairn from here to Chicago. The run itself was of interest in breaking the record between here and Ft. Wayne, and especially that part of it between Crestline and Ft. Wayne, where 121 miles was covered in 98 minutes of actual running time. That the general public is taking interest in the tests for bettering the time was manifested by a group of drummers at the Hotel Henry last night.

"If the boys of 20 years ago, or even of 10 years ago, would have had such opportunity to fly across the country, it would have seemed wonderful," one of the men was overheard to remark.

"Yes, and if the boys of 10 years hence are not hauled at the rate of 120 miles an hour, they will think the road is slow," chipped in another.

"And if the President's daughter isn't hauled over the Pennsylvania in record-breaking time, there will be a lot of disappointed people," rejoined a third. "Really, the Pennsylvania and New York Central roads have been doing stunts worth while, and I would not be surprised if the Pennsylvania road announced a 18-hour schedule this fall. The 18-hour trains have made a better record than any other trains in the history of railroading, I understand, and there is no reason why the 900-mile run couldn't be made in 16 or even 15 hours."

The families have become interested in the colonization of a large tract of land in the south, and their departure has been delayed for some time by reason of the quarantine restrictions. Passenger Agent E. W. McCort of the Pennsylvania saw that the people started in good shape from here. They were accompanied by agents of the colonization company.

Reckless Ohio Democracy.

The Democratic plan of campaign in Ohio is to double the hypocrisy and abuse, but after a party has been used to wipe up the earth it feels reckless.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

GOLD AND LOVE.

You may ask what man that you will
Which he the greater will prize,
Gold he's made or Love he creates;
And the man says Love—and lies.

For he gives to the Love he's won
The gift of a few waste hours,
Nor watches to see it increase,
Nor cares if it loses its powers.

While he gives to the Gold he's made
The strength of his virile years
To watch that his store grows big,
As he strives and gloats and fears.

So the Gold is safely hoarded,
And the Love just wasted dies;
And you ask which is the greater,
And the man says Love—and lies.

ARKANSAS GIVES HEARTY WELCOME

President Roosevelt Tells Her People Their Most Pleasing Crop Is the Babies.

DEALS WITH LYNCHING CRIME

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., Oct. 25.—President Roosevelt spent seven crowded hours in and around Little Rock today, and his journey from Fort Logan H. Roots, on north side of the Arkansas river, to the city park in Little Rock was marked by enthusiastic demonstrations of welcome by thousands of persons who lined the streets. While in Little Rock the President delivered two speeches, in one of which he denounced lynching, eliciting hearty applause.

After the President's address before 40,000 persons in the city park at Little Rock, the party was taken to the Albert Pike Masonic consistory, where a luncheon was given to the President. At 3:30 o'clock the visitors entered a special train at the Rock Island station to return to Memphis.

Gov. Jefferson Davis was the first to greet the President when the latter left the train this morning at Big Rock. A reception committee, which included United States Senators James H. Berry and James P. Clarke, Mayor W. E. Lenon and President George W. Rogers of the Little Rock board of trade, and 20 other prominent citizens united with the governor in welcoming the chief executive and his party. Carriages were taken to Fort Logan H. Roots on the summit of Big Rock, overlooking the city of Little Rock, across the Arkansas river. A salute of 21 guns was fired at the fort.

Greeted by Doves.

Upon returning to the city as the party entered the city park under an arch bearing the inscription, "Little Rock Greets You," 12 white doves were liberated from the apex of the arch, directly over the President's carriage. This feature caused great cheering, and the President smiled.

The exercises at the city park opened at 11:30 o'clock. Gov. Davis delivered an address of welcome in which he drew a word picture of the resources of Arkansas, touched lightly on the race question and assured the President that the people of Arkansas were glad he had come among them. The governor's tribute to southern women was applauded by the President.

In his response the President, after paying tribute to the G. A. R. and Confederate veterans who formed the guard of honor and to the armies they represented, said:

What is true of sections is true of occupations and positions. Thank heaven we are free now from all the danger of territorial antagonisms. Now we must see that there shall never come any antagonisms of the classes or antagonisms between capital and labor. Treat each man according to his worth as a man. Don't hold for or against him that he is either rich or poor. But if he is rich and crooked hold it against him; if not rich but crooked, then hold it it against him. But if he is a square man stand by him. Distrust all who would have any one class placed before any other. The man who is true to you is ultimately righteous and the man who will steal for you will steal from you. The man who will seek to persuade you that he will benefit you by wronging anyone else will wrong you when it will benefit him.

What we must do as a nation is to stand for the immutable principles of decency and virtue, regarding vice with abhorrence. If we make any artificial divisions we have done irreparable injury to the people.

Referring to the race problem, to which Gov. Davis had alluded, the president said:

Decency the Real Question.

The worst enemy of the negro race is the negro criminal and above all the criminal of the hideous type so often hideously avenged. Every reputable colored man owes the duty to himself and to his race to hunt down that criminal. Now as to the white man's side: Now to avenge one hideous crime by another is to reduce the avenger to the bestial level. Another thing which makes this lynch law so abhorrent is that three-fourths of the crime for which it is invoked are for others than that against the women of the country. Governor, you and I and all others in authority owe it to our people to drive out the reproach and the menace of lynch law in the United States.

We can afford to be divided on questions of mere partisanship, for comparatively the difference of tariff and the currency are of no consequence. After all the real question is, that of decency in the life of the home and honesty in public life. It makes little difference in the long run whether a Democrat or a Republican is President, but it makes every difference to have all our public officials honest and clean. The candidate is the candidate of his party, but the President, if he is worth his salt, is the president of the whole people. You can't get good public life unless you have good private life. The country will be all right if the average man is decent and clean in his home life, but if it goes below that average you can't make the country right. I have a great respect for a good man, and the only one I have greater respect for is a good woman, and if there is any here who does not agree with me I don't think much of him. We young men have a great heritage in this from men of our and let us see that we transmit it unimpaired to our children. Let their valor and their heroism of war and the 40 years of peace be an incentive to greater efforts.

Glad to See Baby Crop.

He closed with a tribute to the veterans of the civil war and said:

The only people I feel as glad to see as the veterans are the fathers and mothers with babies in their arms. Arkansas has cause to feel proud of its natural resources and its greatest crop is the crop of babies.

Then the presidential party passed through streets densely packed with cheering men, women and children to the Albert Pike consistory, where the luncheon was given at 2 o'clock. One hundred representative men sat at the tables and several hundred others occupied balcony seats overlooking the scene. At President Roosevelt's right sat Lieut.-Gov. John F. Lee, United States Senators Berry and Clark and Gen. Powell Clayton, formerly United States ambassador to Mexico, were among those occupying seats of honr. After a number of speeches and a response by the President, the party left for Memphis, arriving there at 8:30 and leaving 20 minutes later for New Orleans. An enthusiastic crowd greeted him at Memphis.

Examination for Postoffice Positions.

TAX COLLECTOR SHOT BY ISLAND SMUGGLERS

American Officer, Attempting to Take Dominican Revenues, Is Wounded in Battle.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Col. Clarence I. Edwards, chief of the bureau of insular affairs, received a cablegram this evening from Col. Colton, administrator of the customs revenues of the Dominican government for the benefit of its creditors, which indicates there is trouble along the frontier between Santo Domingo and Haiti. The dispatch says:

"The first reliable information, but without details, indicates that David F. Morris was slightly wounded and a Dominican guard killed at Neyba. Relief action has been taken. The incident has no political significance. All is quiet. Particulars later."

As the bureau had not received any preliminary telegram upon the subject there was considerable amazement when this dispatch arrived, but later it was figured out that there had been fighting between Mr. Morris and the smugglers who have been running goods into Dominican territory from Haiti. Neyba is a small town located at the eastern end of a lake whose western extremity crosses the frontier and evidently was used as a receiving point for the smuggled goods. Mr. Morris had charge of the work of collecting customs on this boundary line, which never before had been patrolled.

At present there appears to be no necessity for the use of armed force of the United States to assist the Dominican government, whose guard is under the supervision of Mr. Morris.

WILL CELEBRATE OPENING OF NEW TROLLEY LINE

The people of the Morningside district will have a celebration today to mark the opening of the traction line through that section. At 1 o'clock there will be a meeting at the Morningside school, at which J. Charles Dicken and others will make brief addresses. At 2 o'clock the school children will be placed in special trolley cars and given a trip which will cover all the new lines in the district and extend down Butler street to the forks of the road. The cars will be decorated and at least one band will take part.

Will Rebuild the Hall.

The Birmingham Turnverein building, destroyed by fire Sunday night, will be rebuilt at an early date. A meeting was held yesterday to appoint a committee to see the agents who handled the insurance and arrange for an adjustment. Several members of the board when seen denied all knowledge of any consolidation with the South Side Turnverein.

Thief Overlooks Cash.

J. Brothers of 1821 Locust street reported that a thief entered his house yesterday morning and stole $80 in cash and a bracelet. While the second floor was ransacked the thief overlooked $80 lying in a dresser. Mrs. Brothers locked up the house at 9 o'clock and went down town and returning at 11 o'clock found a back door had been forced open.

LITTLE KANAWHA CASE UP TO COURT

DENY CHARGE OF WASTE

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 25.—The litigation growing out of the sale of the Little Kanawha Syndicate to the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad was brought before the court of appeals here today. Joseph Ramsey, Jr., and George Gould, had counsel defending their interests to prevent John Jones of Chicago from interfering with the sale. Judge Richards will decide on Thursday the question of the right of Mr. Jones to stop the sale and to have a receiver appointed for the Little Kanawha syndicate property.

The plaintiff, John S. Jones of Chicago, who subscribed $100,000 to the syndicate, asks for the appointment of a receiver for the property. The coal holdings of this syndicate include 50,000 acres near Fairmont, and 300,000 acres in Gilmer, Braxton and Lewis counties. The lines of railroad immediately concerned are the Little Kanawha, the Parkersburg Bridge and Terminal Company, which was to bridge the Ohio at that city; the Burnsville & Eastern, the Buckhannon & Northern, the Bellington & Northern, the Zanesville, Marietta & Parkersburg, and the Marietta, Columbus & Cleveland. The plaintiff alleges the plan was to make a continuous line of railroad of the integrals, to supply outside markets from their coal holdings.

Mr. Jones alleges the money has been squandered, that Mr. Ramsey has built the Green county railroad, in which Mr. Gould did not join, but which Mr. Ramsey is endeavoring to sell at a price harassing to the other properties of this company, the whole combination being lumped.

The Gould-Ramsey interests deny waste of property or extravagance of management. Their control includes all of the $8,500,000 concerned, excepting the $100,000 subscribed by Mr. Jones.

In the trust thus imposed in them are the subscriptions of their closest friends and they quote that fact as proof that in no sense have they permitted the property to become reduced in value.

The attorneys for the defendants raised the question of the jurisdiction of the court and the entire day was devoted to argument of that point. Judge Richards announcing on adjournment that he would announce his decision tomorrow.

Injures Three and Damages House.

Susan Smith, Lena Williams and Leonard Peters, negroes, were severely burned in a fire which damaged the two-story brick dwelling at 2 Scott street early yesterday morning. They were taken to the Passavant hospital. The fire is thought to have resulted from a gas stove and caused about $100 damage.

MUTUAL LIFE IS TO PROBE ITSELF

WILL BEGIN WORK AT ONCE

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—More startling than the testimony before the legislative committee investigating the methods of insurance companies today was the announcement by President Richard A. McCurdy of the Mutual Life Insurance Company that a committee of the board of trustees of his company had been appointed to investigate the company and its methods.

The members of the committee are: William H. Truesdale, Effingham B. Morris and John W. Auchincloss, all prominent in the financial and business world. This action was taken at a meeting of the board today and was the result of the insurance investigation. The matter was brought before the board by President McCurdy, and the committee will begin its work at once.

Still another interesting development in insurance matters was the statement issued today by President Morton of the Equitable Life, showing the receipts of that company for the nine months of this year exceeded the expenditures by $16,723,197, an increase of over $500,000 compared with the same period last year. Receipts from premiums on policies for the third quarter this year were over $1,000,000 less than in 1904. The expenses of the third quarter of this year were $829,913 less than last year, but for the first six months there was an increase over last year of $424,943.

Takes Long Adjournment.

After an entire day given over to examination of Emory McClintock, actuary of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, and to the reading of column after column of figures, the legislative committee adjourned until November 8, the day after the municipal elections. This extended adjournment was taken to enable the members of the committee who are candidates for re-election to the assembly, to meet their constituencies and conduct their campaigns.

The testimony of Mr. McClintock was of a technical nature. A number of his explanations brought out the fact that his ideas were in many respects at variance with the established methods of insurance companies, and that of his own company in particular. This was especially apparent when the subject of deferred dividend policies was being inquired into. He said the word "deferred" was ambiguous and misleading, as it implied that dividends were accumulating or were paid at the end of each year. The company, he said, reserved the right when it wrote a policy to say what amount should be apportioned at the end of each dividend.

Favors Limiting Business.

Mr. McClintock also said he was strongly in favor of limiting the amount of business a company should write. He said an attempt had been made to come to an agreement with the New York Life and the Equitable Life to limit the amount of business done by each company to $1,000,000,000. This was finally increased to $1,500,000,000, but James H. Hyde of the Equitable, first declined to enter, then George W. Perkins of the New York Life objected. Mr. Hyde's objection was his ambition to make the Equitable Life Assurance Company the largest in the country. Mr. McClintock thought a law limiting the amount of insurance would be a good thing, and thought the multitude would lend its support to such legislation.

These views are contrary to those expressed by President McCurdy of the Mutual, when he was on the stand. Mr. McCurdy did not think that any company's business should be limited, even at the point when that business failed to be profitable to the company.

Mr. McClintock also thought that a law compelling the declaration of dividends at stated periods would be unwise.

He Makes the Dividends.

As to the method of computing the dividends that should be paid on a policy, he said the apportionment was made upon his judgment. It was not a matter of accurate calculation, but was based on the experience of previous years. The interest earned by the company, or the increase in the market valuation of the securities held by the company, Mr. McClintock said, were not taken into consideration in apportioning these dividends. He said that in 1903, when the dividends were reduced, the market value of the company's securities had decreased. In 1904, however, the securities rose in value so that $8,000,000, lost by the decrease the year before, were regained, and a million in addition. The dividends were not increased for 1904, however, yet they were not cut. He was still on the stand at adjournment.

CASTRO TO BE ASKED TO APOLOGIZE FIRST

If He Asks French Pardon There Will Be No Difficulty Settling the Difference.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

PARIS, Oct. 25.—The officials here are gratified at the action taken by the American government in instructing its minister at Caracas to endeavor to arrange the Franco-Venezuelan diplomatic incident and are hopeful of the success of Minister Russell's efforts, which are somewhat analagous to the efforts of the French minister at Morocco in behalf of Ion Perdicaris.

The first question which it is necessary to adjust is the withdrawal of the offensive action taken by the government of Venezuela toward M. Taigny, the French charge d'affaires. Thereafter the question of compensating the French Cable Company for its losses and redressing the expulsion from Venezuela of M. Brun, the manager of the company, remain to be adjusted.

No difficulty is apprehended in arranging the commercial features of the case if President Castro first corrects his discourtesy toward the representative of the French government.

53 Cottage St., Melrose, Mass.

Dear Sir—

"Ever since I was in the army I had more or less kidney trouble, and within the past year it became so severe and complicated that I suffered everything and was much alarmed—my strength and power was fast leaving me. I saw an advertisement of Swamp-Root and wrote asking for advice. I began the use of the medicine and noted a decided improvement after taking Swamp-Root only a short time.

"I continued its use and am thankful to say that I am entirely cured and strong in order to be very sure about this I had a doctor examine some of my water today and he pronounced it all right and in splendid condition.

"I know that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable and does not contain any harmful drugs. Thanking you for my complete recovery and recommending Swamp-Root to all sufferers I am very truly yours,

"I. C. RICHARDSON."

If your water, when allowed to remain undisturbed in a glass or bottle for 24 hours, forms a sediment or settling or has a cloudy appearance, it is evidence that your kidneys and bladder need immediate attention.

OLD SOLDIERS SPEAK PLAINLY

Committee of War Veterans and Soldiers Civic League Scrutinize Rival Claims.

DECLARES FOR REPUBLICANS

The Soldiers' Civic league and the War Veterans' association, both organizations of grizzled old soldiers who fought for their country during the rebellion, have declared against the Citizens-Democratic party. That aggregation has been soliciting the votes of the old soldiers, in spite of the fact that scores of veterans were discharged from the municipal service after the Citizens party came into power, although the law plainly declares that no old soldier may be dismissed from public employ for political reasons. The Republicans, of course, expected the veterans to vote for the Republican candidates. To decide which party deserved the support of the old soldiers, committees were appointed by both associations, the War Veterans and the Soldiers' Civic league. The two committees formed a joint committee and made their investigations together.

The joint committee gave out the following report yesterday, signed by L. W. Malasee, president, and F. L. Blair, secretary:

Report of Joint Committee.

Comrades: The joint conference committee of the Veterans of Allegheny and Soldiers Civic league, having made careful investigation and considered all the records of both political parties which are appealing to you for your support, has unanimously reported to both organizations that you should support the regular Republican ticket at the coming election, November 7, for the following reasons:

We have implicit confidence in the declaration that the Republican nominees are the nominees of the people, by the people and for the people.

The so-called Citizens party has outlived its usefulness in that it still follows its star-chamber method of naming candidates for office, being worse in this respect than the ring of a few years ago, which is now happily abolished.

Because the boss of the Citizens party, E. M. Bigelow, has declared himself opposed to a soldiers' memorial hall, a project that has cost the soldiers of Allegheny county considerable time and expense.

Because we find the candidates on the Republican ticket, from the top to the bottom, men of responsibility. Three of the county candidates served in the army of the United States during the civil war, namely: J. K. Campbell, John A. Fairman and C. B. Price. Two of them are nominees for the office of county commissioner and the other is a candidate for recorder of deeds. There are three sons of veterans on the ticket, all of them of the very highest character and business men of our community. All have been chosen by a free vote of the people at a primary election.

Because the Citizens party, Mayor Hays at the top, discharged a large number of well qualified comrades from the city service, owing to reasons thus stated by the mayor:

"Owing to change of administration your services will no longer be required after April 1."

Because the Republican party has always proved itself able to cope with the affairs of city, county, state and nation and has always been for the welfare of the people.

We therefore appeal to you, comrades, to vote the straight Republican ticket. Don't forget to make a cross (X) for the soldiers' memorial hall.

Enthusiasm at Republican Headquarters.

The Republican headquarters were crowded yesterday with enthusiastic voters from all parts of the county, their reports showing that the supporters of the Republican state and county ticket are increasing in number every day. The falsehoods told by the Democratic-Prohibition orators about the Republican state organization and by the Citizens-Democratic speakers about the county organization have turned into veritable boomerangs, returning to injure the inventors.

Preparations were completed for the Republican mass meeting to be held in the South Thirteenth street Turner hall tomorrow. Attorney General Hampton L. Carson and Perry A. Shanor will be the principal speakers. There will be vocal and instrumental music. The following Republican meetings will be held this evening: Elliott Republican club, Thirty-ninth ward, John W. Moreland, J. P. McKee and George Z. Hosack; Franklin school, Eighth ward, James Francis Burke, Perry A. Shanor, Charles B. Price, William Dodds, Harold M. Irons and Walter E. Billows; Forbes school, Sixth ward, Congressmen James Francis Burke and A. J. Barchfeld, Perry A. Shanor, A. J. Edwards, Harold M. Irons and George Z. Hosack; Morse school, Twenty-fifth ward, Capt. John A. Reed, Irvin K. Campbell and U. G. Vogan.

Allegheny Workers Named.

R. H. Jackson, chairman of the Citizens party of Allegheny, yesterday appointed the ward chairman of the party. The city executive committee will consist of the ward chairman and Jackson, S. G. Porter, A. L. Robinson, E. J. McElvain, A. O. Galley, Thomas B. Scandrett, Henry Hunneshagen and H. M. Davidson.

The Young Men's "Republican" club, the social department of the city payroll, is again in trouble. Yesterday a suit in replevin to recover a billiard table worth $210 was entered by William Wuerthle.

The Allied Independents' meeting on Saturday night at the Forbes street Turner hall will be addressed by ex-State Senator Lewis Emery, David Kirk, W. K. Jennings, G. H. Stengel and W. H. Stevenson. Oliver McClintock will be the chairman.

The Citizens-Democratic party held five meetings last night, L. S. Levin, William V. Noble and Robert H. Heath spoke at the South Side market house, and Mariano Cancelliere, Frank Lorenzo and Louis Biggini were the speakers at a meeting for Italians in the Sixteenth ward.

Saves Rent of Halls.

Meetings were held at the Franklin school house in the Eighth ward; at No. 26 engine house, in Webster avenue and at Glassport. The custom of holding meetings in engine houses and police stations was born under the present city administration. It is cheaper than using campaign funds to hire a hall.

It is announced from the fusion headquarters that Governor Folk of Missouri is to speak at the Democratic meeting in Carnegie hall, Allegheny, on Saturday night.

Judge Macfarlane in quarter sessions court, issued an order granting a writ of supercedeas in the matter of the division of the borough of Avalon into wards. Attorney Charles P. Lang, representing citizens of the borough, who object to the division, asked for the order. The coming election will be held under the usual conditions, as the supersedeas stays proceedings until the case has been argued before the superior court, where an appeal has been taken.

BRENNEN'S OBJECTIONS.

Democratic Attorney Argues on Technical Grounds Against Validity of Lincoln Party Papers.

The arguments on the application of the Citizens-Democrats to have the county nomination papers of the Lincoln party declared null and void, were concluded yesterday in common pleas court No. 2, before Judges Frazer and Shaffer. The court reserved its decision until a recent decision of a Berks county court bearing on points raised in the argument can be procured.

Brennen's objections were purely technical. It was impossible to get the names of all the signers on one paper, and Mr. Brennen, therefore, said the papers were a "dislocated lot" and invalid. He also objected to the manner of signing and the arrangement of the signatures.

Attorney John C. Bane replied to Mr. Brennen, saying the papers were all filed at one time and on the paper furnished by the secretary of the commonwealth. If the addresses of the signers were defective, it was the plain duty of the court to allow them to be amended. At any rate, Mr. Bane said, if the signatures objected to were stricken off their would still be 1,956 signers, sufficient to make the papers valid.

Takes Woman's Seat, Pays Fine.

Steven Crutha, a Pole, was fined $10 at the Oakland police station yesterday for taking a seat offered by a woman to a cripple on a Second avenue car Tuesday night. Crutha in his hurry to get the seat, knocked down the woman by pushing her aside.

BIGELOW PARTY RECORD SHOWN UP

CHARGE GREAT CORRUPTION

The Allied Independents yesterday issued a manifesto against the Citizens-Democratic outfit, the Bigelow machine, as the document calls the aggregation. The proclamation shows up the whole history of the organization, its traffic in franchises without compensation, its record of pledge breaking and its general corruption, giving specific instances of the latter. It shows that, despite the solemn pledges made by the Bigelow machine before it came into power, the delinquent tax collector still draws $30,000 a year in fees and that in face of the protest of its own mouthpiece, Controller John B. Larkin, the city administration still farms out city funds at 2 per cent, instead of allowing banks to compete for the privilege of being city depositories, and thus securing a larger interest on the money.

The manifesto is signed by the executive committee of the Allied Independents who consist of the Lincoln party, the Orphans and Independent Democrats. These names are appended to this indictment of the Citizens-Democratic party: H. B. Clark, H. G. Davis, W. S. Guffey, John A. Martin, James McClure, H. S. Paul, W. C. Reitz, G. H. Stengel and W. H. Stevenson. This is the proclamation in full:

Present Scathing Indictment.

We, the undersigned, constituting the executive committee of the Orphans party, the Lincoln party and the Independent Democrats, united in the cause of honest government, being impressed with the perils confronting the people through the dishonest alliance of the iniquitous and corrupt state ring and the pledge-breaking Bigelow machine, calling itself the Citizens-Democrat party, issue this call to the manhood, honor and conscience of the voters of Allegheny county. We present this indictment of the Bigelow machine:

We charge that every pledge made to the people has been wilfully broken.

We charge that the property of the people has been stolen by the leaders and financial backers of the Bigelow machine and by them sold to the highest bidder.

We charge that the Grant boulevard, constructed at a cost of $1,500,000, was stolen by the syndicate, through the power of the present administration.

We charge that the boulevard franchise, thus secured, was immediately placed on the auction block and offered to the Pittsburgh Railways Company for $2,500,000.

We charge that negotiations followed, which resulted in the signing, sealing and delivering of a contract, under which the syndicate is to receive $1,000,000 for the plunder.

We charge that E. M. Bigelow, the boss of the Bigelow machine, publically stated that he had collected a campaign fund of $200,000. Where did he get it?

We charge that E. M. Bigelow defeated in the session of the last legislature the bill prohibiting the construction of street railroads on boulevards.

We charge that Senator Boies Penrose, when asked why he refused to permit this boulevard bill to be passed, said he was compelled to take that course to protect the financial interests of the Bigelow-Verner combination.

Franchise Without Compensation.

We charge that the Pennsylvania railroad secured through the influence of E. M. Bigelow the franchise for its elevated road in Duquesne way, without compensation to the city, in defiance of a cardinal pledge of the Citizens party.

We charge that the Duquesne Light Company obtained through the same source its franchise without compensation to the city.

We charge that at the commands of Bigelow and his financial associates, millions of dollars of city money has been deposited in four favored banks at 2 per cent, in face of the protest of Controller John B. Larkin, who publicly guaranteed that through open competition a rate of not less than 3 per cent could be secured for all the city moneys.

We charge that the bank-raiding stalwarts and the Bigelow machine have been in close and visible alliance for the past two years, of which the most recent demonstration was the attack on the Lincoln party nomination papers by a state employe, the attorneys for the Bigelow machine and the chairman of the Democratic annex of the Bigelow machine.

We charge that Pittsburgh and Allegheny are two of the worst governed cities of the country. We charge that the gambler and the grafter ply their trade with impunity, and that men with criminal records occupy positions of trust and authority under the appointment of the ruling powers.

We charge that in spite of the promise of the Citizens-Democratic party, that no city employe would be compelled to take part in political work, every day policemen, firemen and other city employes are dragooned into the public safety building before Boss Bigelow, ordered to produce 10 votes per capita and threatened with discharge if they do not deliver the goods.

We charge that the Bigelow machine has failed to redeem its pledge to abolish the fee system of the office of collector of delinquent taxes, and the collector still draws his $30,000 a year.

Alliance With State Machine.

We charge that an alliance has been made between the Citizens party and the Penrose state machine for the purpose of defeating William H. Berry for state treasurer and preventing the disclosure of bank looting throughout the state. The Democratic annex to the Citizens ring is a partner in this conspiracy, and in exchange for a few county nominations has betrayed the Democratic candidate for state treasurer, and flaunts the evidence of its perfidy into the face of the people upon its banner in our streets.

We agree with Controller John B. Larkin in his statement given to the public on July 25, 1904, in which he said: "No man can restore the Citizens party to confidence while it has stolen goods in its pocket. There must be true repentance, and that repentance must include restitution by the repeal of the boulevard, bank and water grabs. Until this is done the Citizens party cannot hope to enjoy the confidence of the voters of the city of Pittsburgh."

We believe that if the Bigelow machine secures a majority of votes in the city of Pittsburgh in the impending county election it will be almost impossible to defeat its candidate for mayor next February. A victory for the machine at this time in Pittsburgh will attach to its support next February all the timid, weak and halting, who are ever desirous of being on the winning side, and will surely discourage many friends of honest government. If the people of Pittsburgh desire to redeem the city from the band of usurpers and grafters who now hold it by the throat, there is one way to do it, and that way is to go to the polls on November 7 and cast their ballots for the Lincoln party, and by so doing they will prevent a continuance for three years of the present disgraceful government.

Annual Epworth League Meeting.

The Allegheny City Epworth League union will hold its annual meeting this evening at 8 o'clock, in the Arch Street Methodist Episcopal church. Reports will be received from officers for the past year, and new officers will be elected. McClaren, president; Charles Yahres, vice president; Miss Clara Mussler, secretary; Fred W. Litten, treasurer.

WORK ON CUNLIFFE FOR TRACE OF MISSING FUNDS

Detective Takes Brother to Jail, but Prison Rules Interfere With His Securing Interview.

Strong pressure is being brought to bear on Cunliffe to have him reveal the hiding place of the $10,750, the balance of the missing funds he stole from the Adams Express Company on October 2. The Pinkertons are of the opinion this money is in possession of Mrs. Cunliffe. Yesterday afternoon a Pinkerton officer called at the jail with a brother of Cunliffe to have him try to influence the express robber to give up the balance of the money.

It was after 4 o'clock when the detective and Cunliffe's brother arrived. Prisoners are not permitted to be interviewed after that hour, and Warden Lewis refused to make any exception to that rule.

Warden Lewis agreed to permit a note to be sent in to the prisoner, which was done. Cunliffe replied by note that he would not divulge where he had placed the balance of the money. It is said that Cunliffe recently told the Pinkertons they had secured "enough of the money and should be satisfied."

It was reported yesterday that Mrs. Cunliffe was to be arrested on suspicion that she has the balance of the missing funds. No confirmation of this could be obtained yesterday. If proceedings are taken against Mrs. Cunliffe the preliminary actions will be brought in this city. Mrs. Cunliffe is at her parents' home at Hartford, Conn.

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and A FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Lady Baltimore

By OWEN WISTER
Author of The Virginian

IT WAS at King's Port—not its map name, of course—that Mr. Wister found Lady Baltimore and laid the scene of his love-story of the Carolinas. Imagine the most charming of Southern cities; old and shabby, hushed and gray—but peopled with a high-bred society more exclusive and self-sufficient than that of any court in Europe; a town where the atmosphere and the small talk of the forties are still preserved. In this rarified atmosphere rear a native lover, and at last confront him with a fiancee who spends her summers with the Newport "smart set" playing bridge, drinking high-balls and smoking cigarettes.

¶ A bull in a china-shop would be a more welcome guest than was this young woman when she descended on King's Port. Was it any wonder that the old town was set by the ears, that the young man wondered if he hadn't made a mistake, and as many social tangles presented themselves as a dozen chapters would scarce unravel?

DESTITUTE WOMAN IS REFUSED AID

City Official Threatens to Put Penniless Mother and Baby Out Into Street.

APPEAL AT MAYOR'S OFFICE

"If you leave her here, we will put her out in the street," is what John R. Brooks, the examiner of the city department of charities, said yesterday when a woman, carrying a 10-months'-old baby in her arms, penniless and without food for 24 hours, was presented to Examiner Brooks as an applicant for charity.

The destitute woman was Mrs. Mary Dobrics. She was accompanied to the charities department by a woman who acts as court interpreter at the court house. The examiner abruptly refused to aid the woman, and when the interpreter grew indignant and said she would leave her in the charities office the examiner replied he would put the woman out in the street, according to the story the interpreter told afterwards at the mayor's office.

The woman was also denied relief at the mayor's office. Unable to talk herself, except in broken English, the interpreter, an intelligent young woman, told her story, which was a sad one. She said her husband was killed in a coal mine at Export, Pa., two months before the baby was born.

She later lived in Allegheny and then went to South Sharon, where she was arrested several days ago by Allegheny officers, on a charge of larceny preferred by Mike Schlat, a Slav of Wayne street, Allegheny. Schlat claimed he was engaged to marry the woman, but when the day of the wedding approached she and $120, which he said he owned, disappeared.

Seeking revenge for the woman jilting him, he had her arrested. She was kept in jail in Sharon for two days and brought to Pittsburgh on Tuesday and placed in jail until a hearing yesterday morning, before Alderman Frank Schellman of Lower Allegheny, and discharged, there being no evidence against her. Schlat, who made the charge of larceny against her, did not appear at the hearing.

The woman was without money to pay her fare back to South Sharon or even to buy food. She said she had a brother in Homestead, and the alderman gave her car fare to Homestead. She went there, but found that her brother had left. She came back to Pittsburgh and was sent to the interpreters at the court house. One of them took her to the charities department, and then to the mayor's office, and asked for transportation to South Sharon. The mayor's assistants said they could do nothing for the woman, claiming it was a case for the county to handle.

Facing starvation and away from home the woman was in tears. The mayor's office force refused to give an order on the director of charities for transportation to South Sharon, but finally consented to call up the county poor authorities at Woodville and ask them to do something. The county authorities declined to take the case, and the mayor's clerk next telephoned to the Allegheny city department of charities and the North Side administration also refused to pay the price of a ticket to South Sharon.

While the mayor's office was trying to shift the case onto the county and Allegheny Contractor James H. McQuade walked into the mayor's office and inquired the cause of the trouble. No sooner was it explained that the woman was in distress and the city authorities had refused to help her, than he went down in his pocket and produced the price of a ticket to South Sharon, amounting to $2.10, and something to spare. The woman thanked him gratefully.

EX-JUDGE GORDON HAS PRIZE DREAM

REPUBLICANS LAUGH AT TALE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Press Building,
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.

Two very sensational statements were today made by Mayor Weaver's political managers. Col. Sheldon Potter, director of public safety, announced that his "latest" police canvass discloses the names of 15,86[illegible] bogus voters on the registry lists found in 22 wards.

Ex-Judge James G. Gordon is credited with having unearthed the second sensation. The story is to the effect that the Republican leaders propose to steal the election by substituting ballot boxes. This is to be done in the river front wards, or downtown section, 14 wards to be the theater of this scheme of political legerdemain.

At a cabinet meeting of the "reformers" this afternoon newspaper men were told in detail of the plan. It is that the Republican organization has provided a duplicate ballot box for every voting precinct in the first 14 wards. Ballots giving the required Republican majorities, with check sheets, etc., are to be placed in these boxes before election. Every one is to be allowed, so far as the organization is concerned, to vote as they please, their ballots being placed in the boxes properly provided. After the polls close, when the election officers art at lunch, the bogus boxes are to be substituted for the real ones, and their contents counted.

As a "pipe dream" this yarn is hardly up to the Gordon standard. Weaver controls the police. They will man every voting precinct in Philadelphia on election day. Representatives of the Democrats, City party and Lincoln party will also be present, not only when the votes are cast, but when they are counted. Under such conditions a fraud of this character is impossible.

Republican leaders say this ballot box story is too ridiculous for denial and point to the fact that the "reformers" always make such charges before election, in order to help them to explain defeat afterwards.

This afternoon the "reform" newspapers published a table giving ward majorities, which showed that the Republican ticket would have a majority of about 14,000. It was stated that the figures were prepared by organization leaders. This is not true. Republican leaders have not yet given out any estimates, claiming only they would win by a good majority.

"When we give figures our majority will run thousands above the fake estimate published today," said Senator McNichol.

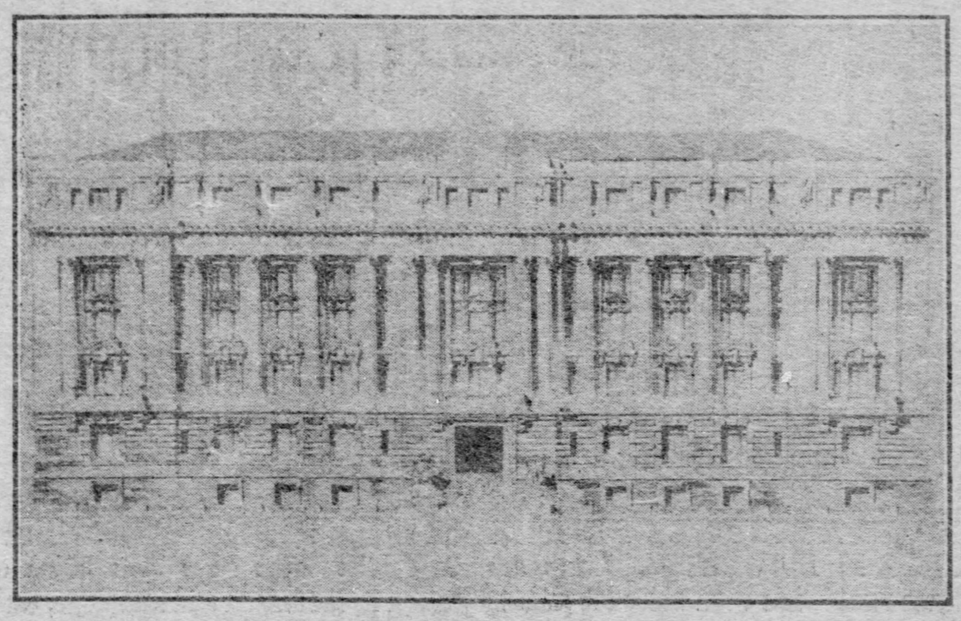
SUITOR SHOOTS HIMSELF.

Told by Maid the Object of His Attentions Is Not in, He Commits Suicide on Veranda.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 25.—Leon Von Kanel, 25 years old, of Cincinnati, shot himself in the mouth this afternoon while sitting on the porch of the home of Attorney H. J. Crawford, 858 Logan avenue, and died while on the way to a hospital. Von Kanel was attentive to Miss Branderbury, sister to Mrs. Crawford. He had called at the house this afternoon and asked for Miss Branderbury. The maid told him she was not in, and closed the door. Von Kanel then took a seat in a chair on the porch and shot himself. He had been stopping at the Hollenden hotel since October 16.

NATIONAL CAPITAL'S NEW MUNICIPAL BUILDING



WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—(Special.)—At last Washington is to have a city hall in keeping with the dignity of the capital of the nation. The venerable, old, cracked and scarred structure that now does duty as a city hall is to be replaced by a beautiful modern structure costing $2,500,000. It is in the triangle designated by the park commissioners for public buildings, and has been designed with the idea of working it into the extensive scheme for the beautification of Pennsylvania avenue and the Mall.

The new building has an imposing facade of light stone, four stories above the basement, the high cornice which supports an arched roof being ornamented along the Pennsylvania avenue front with colossal statues. A highly ornamental group, containing three figures surmounts the center of the building. In general the design accords well with the architectural style of the Treasury Department and the Postoffice buildings. Cope & Stewardson of Philadelphia are the architects, and the builder is James L. Parsons.

THE THREE RIVERS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—At 6 p. m. today the Ohio river at Cincinnati was 18.2 feet and rising. Today's departures of packets from Cincinnati were: Greenwood, Pomeroy, Courier, Maysville and City of Cincinnati, Louisville. The first packet to leave the port of Cincinnati for Pittsburgh in the regular run of business for the season will be the Keystone State of the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Packet Company, which leaves Thursday. The Pittsburgh coal fleet did not arrive on schedule time as expected today, the only boat to come into the upper landing of the up-river fleet was the Ironsides, which carried 22 pieces of coal with it. The remainder of the fleet was detained up the river somewhere on account of the wind and the bad weather conditions. The Ironsides sunk four of her barges by coming in contact with the piers of the new bridge which is being built between Ashland and Ironton. The boats will bring about 6,000,000 bushels of coal here. About two-thirds of this quantity will be shipped south and the remainder left here for local consumption. Cloudy and cooler.

RIVERMEN ARE INTERESTED.

National Board of Steam Navigation to Meet Next Week.

The stage of water at Davis island dam at 9 o'clock last night was 6.2 feet and the river was falling.

Several Pittsburghers will attend the meeting of the National Board of Steam Navigation to be held in the Merchants exchange at St. Louis next Tuesday. This will be the thirty-fourth annual meeting of the board, and a large amount of business of importance is to be considered. Among those who will go from Pittsburgh are W. H. Crumb, J. Frank Tilt and Capt. James A. Henderson. The delegation from New York, which usually consists of two carloads of people, will pass through Pittsburgh on Saturday night and the Pittsburgh people will join them here.

Maj. J. L. Sibert, government engineer, expects to have the work on the steel frame for the gates at lock No. 2 in the Monongahela river finished by the end of this week. Maj. Sibert did not receive a call from F. M. Ryan, president of the International Brotherhood of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, as reported.

The Golden Rod of the United States service arrived in the local harbor yesterday afternoon.

The Columbia of Morgantown, Capt. Lloyd, arrived yesterday.

The coal fleet which left Pittsburgh on Saturday and Sunday arrived in Cincinnati yesterday. The Ironsides sank only four barges instead of five, as was first reported.

WANTS TO ABOLISH PRESENT LAND SYSTEM

Secretary Hitchcock Will Ask Congress to Do Away With Costly and Useless Court.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—In speaking today of his determination to recommend to congress the abolition of all positions now held by land office receivers whose salaries aggregate an annual expense of $250,000, Secretary Hitchcock said:

"Under the law no application for settlement on the public lands can be heard unless both receiver and register are present and sitting as a court. If one happens to be sick or indisposed, or absent, the applications for hearing must await his return. Furthermore, both register and receiver must agree in their findings in order to constitute a decision. Sometimes they disagree and refer the case up to the general land office.

"Such is the public land system that has been in vogue in the United States for years. The register can perform his own work and that of the receiver with little trouble, while the saving in time effected by doing away with a court consisting of two persons by reducing it to one person will not only be a great benefit to intending settlers, but, what is more, it will save money and time to the government."

POPE'S POSITION STILL IN DOUBT

Summoning of Second Peace Conference Mixes Politics of Europe.

HESITATE TO RECEIVE VATICAN

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ROME, Oct. 25.—The Italian government expects to receive in the near future the program of subjects to be discussed by the second peace conference at The Hague, called by the emperor of Russia. It is thought that the conference will meet next spring and that Russia will be represented by a delegation headed by M. Nelidoff, Russian ambassador at Paris, and M De Martens, former professor of international law at the university of St. Petersburg.

Four parleys have passed between The Hague and Rome regarding the participation of the vatican in the conference. When the first conference was convoked Emperor Nicholas, who was on very cordial terms with Pope Leo, sent to the vatican a note identical with that addressed to all the powers, explaining his intentions.

The Italian cabinet, which had then Gen. Felloux at its head, successfully took the ground that the presence of a papal delegate at the conference would be offensive to Italy and would be interpreted as the recognition of the pope as a temporal sovereign. Great Britain assisted in this opposition, asking Italy in return to support her in having matters regarding the Transvaal and the Orange Free State excluded from discussion. As a protest against its exclusion, the vatican withdrew from The Hague Monsignor Tarnassi, the papal inter nuncio, who afterward died, it was believed, from grief.

Now that the returns between the Italian government and the vatican have become somewhat ameliorated, the cabinet of Premier Fortis has no objection to the vatican being invited, but a plausible reason must be found for the change, so that what in 1899 was a victory for Italian diplomacy should not now appear to be a defeat or to be due to a too good understanding between church and state which both have no desire to emphasize. Besides for the vatican as well as for the South and Central American republics there is the difficulty that the second conference must be opened by delegates of countries which participated in the first and these delegates will decide whether other delegates shall be admitted. It is expected also that at this time the admittance of the vatican will be especially opposed by France.

SENDING HONORS TO JAPAN.

King Edward Will Make Emperor Knight of the Garter and Legation an Embassy.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—It was officially announced this evening that King Edward had commanded that a special mission headed by Prince Arthur of Connaught, be dispatched to Tokyo early in 1906 to confer the order of the garter on the emperor of Japan.

The king has also decided to immediately raise the British legation at Japan to an embassy.

Hold Purse Snatchers for Court.

Ear Robinson and Gordon Spencer, negroes, were held for court by Magistrate Kirby yesterday on charges of larceny from the person. It is alleged by Wade Toler, a negro, that Robinson and Spencer snatched a chatelaine bag containing $11 from him at a ball in Wylie avenue a few nights ago. Toler said he was holding the purse for a woman who was dancing.

Woman Suffragists Say They Are Not Permitted to Reply to Cleveland.

MISS ANTHONY IS AROUSED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 25.—The articles in the Ladies' Home Journal, relative to woman suffrage, written by former President Cleveland, were the subject of discussion today at the convention of the New York State Women Suffrage association. A resolution was proposed protesting against the alleged refusal of the Journal to publish replies to Mr. Cleveland's criticisms, sent to the publication. Susan B. Anthony said she wished to amend it to say that "We ought to stop our subscriptions."

Mrs. Mary E. Craigie of Brooklyn said she had mailed a reply to the Cleveland artieles and had been informed that the Ladies Home Journal would publish but one side. Susan B. Anthony added that Ida Husted Harper had sent a reply to Mr. Cleveland's contribution, but without avail.

A feature of the afternoon was the informal reception given by Miss Susan B. and Miss Mary S. Anthony at their residence. The crush was so great that it was almost impossible to move through the house. Most of the guests made a pilgrimage to the attic, which is fitted up as a literary workshop.

A guest at the convention who attracted great attention was Mrs. Laura E. Taylor of Denver, Col., who was introduced as the only woman present who had ever voted.

HOLYOKE, MASS., Oct. 25.—Resolutions condemning the attitude taken by former President Grover Cleveland on the woman suffrage question and commending that of President Roosevelt and Justice Brewer of the United States supreme court, were adopted at the Massachusetts Woman's Suffragist convention here today. In referring to Mr. Cleveland's attitude, the resolution said:

Whereas, An ex-president of the United States has lately declared his belief that women are unfit to vote, therefore be it

Resolved, That we call attention to the fact that President Roosevelt is of the contrary opinion. He recommended woman's suffrage in his message to the legislature when he was governor of New York and in his speeches he has continually urged upon women their duty to take an interest in public affairs.

Negro Boy Tries to Defend Himself.

Charles Allen, aged 14, and George Jenkins, aged 12, negroes, were held for court on charges of larceny by Magistrate Kirby yesterday. It is alleged by Lewis Wheeler and Rosa Alpern that the boys stole ducks and chickens from their coops. Allen caused disorder in the court by trying to ply the magistrate and witnesses with questions.

SEASON'S HIGH SCORE BROKEN

Schumacher, of the Champion Brunswick Team, Puts Up Good Figures of 251.

LATEST FROM THE ALLEYS

The champion Brunswick team last night at the Great Eastern alleys easily won all three games from the Great Eastern team. Schumacher broke the high score record of the season by rolling 251 in the second game. This beat Hornick's figures of 247. Andy Kromer was in five frames, getting an average of 201 1-3. He made the 200 score and came with four pins of making three. All the members of the champion team did well, nearly every one increasing his score with each succeeding game. The Great Eastern boys could not reach the 200 mark in any of the games. Those of the players dropped by the wayside to make room for fresh men. The taller in each instance bettered the score. Considering that they are up against the champions, the Great Eastern boys did noble work. Their willingness to work, only makes one fight the few low scores hung up. Scores:

In the Monongahela Valley section last night on the McKeesport alleys the Braddock team won all three games from the Tube City combination. The McKeesports no doubt had stage fright at the sight of the ancient pin knights from Braddock. Later on they will undoubtedly put up a more interesting fight against the well-seasoned high rollers. The Commercials and Clippers met last night on the Wylie avenue alleys in their regular amateur league contest and the Commercials clipped the Clippers for all three games. The Commercials presented a stong lineup and that combination looks good to win the chicken supper which ex-Councilman John Voskamp has promised to the successful amateurs. H. Bert was the king bee bowler of the bunch. He succeeded in tieing the high score of the league at 211. He also had high average of 182. W. Bert was also there with the goods. Scores:

A meeting of the Pittsburgh Bowling association has been called for the Federal alleys for Monday evening at 8 o'clock. It will be an important meeting, and every club member should attend. The membership consists of all the clubs in the three sections of the Allegheny County league, and the South Pittsburgh league. All independent clubs wishing to join the A. B. C. should send a representative. At the meeting officers will be elected and probably delegates to the national congress at Louisville next March will be chosen.

The Colonial team of the Monongahela Valley section of the County league would like to have the match with the Arcades, scheduled for tomorrow, postponed until next week, either on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday. A postponed game must be rolled off within seven days of the original date.

The Unity club has formally postponed their match with the Ton Dus on Monday night. The executive committee will act on the case as soon as possible. The protest is based on the fact that no ring nor scales was on the Southern alleys, as provided by the rules.

On the Wilkinsburg Casino alleys tonight Kramer's Ducks and the Wilkinsburg team will roll a match game at duck pins.

Wilkinsburg will probably roll a return game with the Royals on the Wylie avenue alleys next Tuesday night.

Wilmerding has a lady's bowling league whose season will begin next week. There are four clubs, each made up of enthusiastic bowlers of the fair sex. The owner of the alleys will give a banquet to the league every month.

The national executive committee of the American Bowling league will hold a meeting at Chicago on November 2. George A. Metzger is the Pittsburgh member of the committee and should be in attendance. The association should see to it that he attends by voting at least to pay his mileage.

The McKeesport team of the Monongahela section has the following new players: A. A. Meyers, Henry Thon, Thomas F. Robinson and W. Kunnumaker. They will be eligible to bowl on November 2.

Capt. Vollmer of the Carrick team is leading a movement to organize a duckpin league. He would like to hear from all alley owners. Call up 13 Hemlock any time in the morning.

SPECIAL TRAINS LEAVE W. & J.

Manager Wicks Will See That Washington Rooters Take in Georgetown Game.

OFFICIALS FOR THE W. U. P.

Manager Wicks of the Washington and Jefferson college football team, was in Pittsburgh yesterday completing arrangements for the game Saturday afternoon at Friendship park with Georgetown university. Wicks announced that he has made arrangements for two special trains to leave Washington the day of the game. This will be the first time Georgetown ever played in the west, and it will be the first appearance of W. and J. in Pittsburgh this season.

Wicks said yesterday he anticipated a record-breaking crowd. The local football patrons will have a chance to get a line on W. and J. before the big game with W. U. P. November 11 at Exposition park. Wicks yesterday had tickets put on sale at Pratt's and Luckhardt's.

Much satisfaction was expressed at W. U. P. headquarters yesterday over the receipt of a telegram from R. N. Hockenbury of Syracuse university announcing his willingness to act as umpire in the W. U. P.-Dickinson game at Exposition park next Saturday. Dr. Farrar of U. of P. has been agreed upon as referee, thus assuring most competent officials. Long signal practice and scrimmage work is the program at W. U. P. each day. So many new combinations have been tried in the last few days that the final choice for Saturday's line-up is at present a matter of vague speculation.

SWARTHMORE, PA., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Swarthmore defeated Villa Nova this afternoon 12 to 0. The game was played in a drizzling rain, and both teams were handicapped by the muddy field. Steelton Putting Up Coin.

LATROBE, PA., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Word was received here today that the backers of the Steelton football team had secured $2,000 to place on the team in the Steelton-Latrobe game to be played at Steelton November 4. The management of the Latrobe team says that supporters of the team are ready to cover any amount that Steelton will put up. Many rumors are afloat regarding the line-up of the Steelton team. The resignation of Capt. Ernst is well filled by Metzentin, who played quarter back on Columbia team for two years. A hard struggle is expected in the game with South Fork Saturday.

Draper, Guard, Disqualified.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Penn today got another hard blow from the faculty athletic committee which disqualified Draper, the guard, who succeeded Ziegler. "Technical professionalism" is the charge. It is claimed Draper played with amateur teams at his home this fall. University football men now concede a victory at Carlisle, Saturday. There is much indigation, it being claimed that the faculty has discriminated unjustly in this as well as recent instances.

Mercer Forfeits to Slippery Rock.

SLIPPERY ROCK, PA., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—The Slippery Rock Normal today defeated Mercer academy 6 to 0 in a game that ended in a row after one minute of the second half. Referee Moreland of Mercer called a touchback a safety and Slippery Rock refused to abide by the decision. Moreland forfeited the game against the protest of his own men and a riot was imminent.

RAFFERTY DOING WELL ON THE TIGERS' LINE

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—During the earlier part of the practice the scrub was given the ball on the 10-yard line and told to push it over if it was the last bit of work they did. The coaches assembled around the 'varsity to look for weak points in the defense, while the second raters pounded away. After seven downs the scrub carried the ball across the line, but when they tried it again it took 10.

The new arrangement with H. Dillon and Rafferty in each other's places seems to add great steadiness to the line about center. Rafferty has always manifested a great nervousness to get into the play before the ball is snapped and has caused Princeton many penalties.

One man in particular stood out prominently for the scrub, Tibbett, the Germantown academy star, was found in every play, while his punting rivalled Bard's. He is developing rapidly as a halfback and may yet be taken in the varsity squad.

Cornell.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—From the way the varsity performed this afternoon in two hard scrimmages with sophomore and freshman teams, the critics are more pleased with Cornell's football situation than any time this season. Without exception they put more ginger into the action and played with better team work and made more consistent gains than have been made in any of the games. And considering that both of the opposing teams frequently threatened the varsity goal, they did not have easy propositions to meet.

Rice, at quarterback, playing a much better game than had been anticipated that he would put up there, was responsible for much of the success. Two touchdowns were made against the sophomores in the first 20 minutes. The freshmen then took up the opposition, and shortly after the kickoff pushed the 'varsity line with short gains until they had covered 50 yards and placed the ball on the four-yard line. Warner lashed his men into line and with a tremendous brace they held the freshmen for downs. With unexpected vim the regulars then rushed the ball back over the field and within five minutes scored against the freshmen.

Arthur McKean says he is captain of the W. U. P. scrubs. Walter Ritchey is manager. The lineup is left end, Banbury; Capwell; left tackle, Vitte; left guard, McKinney; center, McKean; right guard, Edgar; right tackle, Marshall; Martin; right end, Frye; quarterback, Boisseau; right halfback, F. Griggs; left halfback, Schmidt, Springer; fullback, Capwell, Mackrell. For games address Arthur McKean, 915 North avenue, Allegheny.

Yale.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Opinions differ among those who follow the daily work as to whether Yale's football eleven has gone down into a slump. There are impartial observers who feel sure that in their present state of uncertainty the Yale players will find it hard to hold down West Point on Saturday, if the soldiers play a good offensive game. Today's work on Yale field was discouraging, for the scrubs found little difficulty in making things troublesome for the varsity, both in aggressive and defensive tactics. And in the open practice during a 15-minute scrimmage the scrubs were able to score a touchdown by rushing, using only line plunges and end runs. Wiley's capable work on end plays was the scrubs' strong point. The varsity, however, scored twice.

Flanders will have to fight it out from now on against Smith for center rush. The former played only a few minutes in secret practice, and Smith stayed through both periods thereafter. In the West Point game Yale hopes it will not be necessary to show any of the new formations, but they are being tried daily for use if emergency demands.

W. & J.

WASHINGTON, PA., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Rain all this afternoon put a damper on the practice of the football squad at W. and J. college. The varsity men were put through light practice, such as running down punts and signal practice in the mud. Morris, a freshman, was taken from the scrub eleven an dwill likely be given a try at end or half in the game next Saturday. It looks as if 1,000 rooters will go to Pittsburgh Saturday to witness the game with Georgetown. Word from Washington, D. C., reports the Georgetown men in good shape. W. and J. is getting into first-class form and the coaches are taking great pains to get team work down to a science. Blackboard talks are given each evening at the training quarters by Coach Piekarski.

PATERSON, N. J., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Senator McKee, at the coming session of the legislature, will introduce a bill in the senate fixing a penalty of three years in prison and a fine of $1,000 for persons in an intoxicated condition driving an automobile in the state of New Jersey.

AMONG THE BOXERS.

There is a letter at this office for Ohie Sackett.

Jack O'Brien and Al Kaufmann are reported to be in the best of shape for their 20-round bout at San Francisco tomorrow.

Frank Walling and Tommy Trimble, the South Side boxers, are requested to be at The Gazette office at 8 o'clock tonight.

President Roosevelt's son Teddy is a lover of the boxing game. He has just joined the Douglass A. C. of Chelsea, near Boston, because the club holds boxing bouts.

James J. Corbett, the ex-champion, says of the new star in pugilism: "I remember Kaufmann only as an amateur, but that he has developed a whole lot it is needless to say, or wise Billy Delaney would never have taken hold of him. Delaney is a wonder when it comes to judging the ability of a fighter, and if he thinks a man has the stuff in him to make a champion you can bet the fellow is worth considering."

SPORTING NOTES.

YOUNG CORBETT BESTED IN SIX ROUND BOUT

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—Young Erne of this city had a trifle the better of Young Corbett tonight in their six-round fight at the Washington Sporting club. His advantage was so slight that some of the spectators were inclined to call it a draw. Both men put up a fast fight. Corbett was the aggressor, but was not quite fast enough, as the local man usually landed first.

In the opening round Corbett sent Erne to the floor, and after that the Philadelphian fought very cautiously. Erne landed the greater number of blows. He frequently jabbed Corbett and then went into a clinch before the latter could retaliate.

A large crowd was present, which evidently desired to witness the coming to life of Corbett as it had seen the resurrection of Terry McGovern last week. Many sports from New York and other cities were there. Corbett did not appear to be as active as he used to be, but he displayed his usual cleverness. Young Erne was in better shape and the ex-champion had no terrors for him.

DAVE BRAIN FINALLY SQUARES WITH BUFFALO

CINCINNATI, Oct. 25.—The case of Player David L. Brain against the Buffalo club, involving a claim for $1,200, which was once decided in the player's favor by the national baseball commission, but was later reopened on application of the Buffalo management, has been compromised, the commission so announcing today. The commission was in much doubt because of conflicting statements on the rehearing, and a compromise was finally suggested and reached, the player receiving $500 in full settlement of the case, of which $50 was paid to his attorney by the Buffalo club.

PLAN TO EXCLUDE RAILROAD LOBBY

Friends of Rate Legislation Declare Hundreds of Opponents Have Been Sent.

SHIBBOLETH IS FIXED UP

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—A clash tonight seems imminent between two factions of delegates to the interstate commerce law convention, which will begin a two days' session in Steinway hall tomorrow morning. Officers of the convention assert railroads have brought hundreds of delegates to Chicago from all parts of the country to pack the convention, and prevent an indorsement of President Roosevelt's plan of governmental regulation of freight rates by increasing the power of the interstate commerce commission.

The executive committee of the interstate commerce law association this afternoon, after much debate, decided it would be unfair to allow any delegates to participate in a convention with the purpose of which they are manifestly at variance. Therefore it was decided to have blanks prepared by the secretary containing the following extract from the president's last message to congress, as the sole subject to be discussed and considered at the convention:

"The interstate commerce commission should be vested with the power, where a given rate has been challenged and after full hearing found to be unreasonable, to decide, subject to a judicial review, what shall be a reasonable rate to take its place; the ruling of the commission to take effect immediately and to obtain unless and until it is reversed by the court of review."

Must Sign or Leave.

All delegates who refuse to sign these blanks will be declared ineligible. The executive committee declared:

"It is not the intention to shut off or curtail the free discussion of all questions, as to the best method of securing legislation in accordance with the President's recommendations, but those who are not in favor of such legislation have, as a matter of course, the great American privilege of hiring a hall and holding a meeting of their own."

Judge S. H. Cowan of Ft. Worth, Tex., chairman of the executive committee, said:

"The call for the convention was issued for a specified purpose, to indorse President Roosevelt's interstate commerce commission policy, as expressed in his last message to congress. We have been informed, and are certain, that men have been sent in the interests of railroads, and that their expenses have been paid by the railroads. It is clearly expressed in the call for the convention that the meeting was called by and for the friends of the President's policy, and we do not propose to allow the convention to be packed or stampeded by men, who, we know, are working in the interests of railroads and against the very purpose of the convention."

Parry Makes Statement.

D. M. Parry of Indianapolis, who is leading the opposition faction said:

"This convention will be composed of fair-minded and conservative business men from all parts of the country, who are regularly appointed under the invitation and the call for the convention. Many of them are opposed to the proposed remedy of President Roosevelt for the abatement of the rate evil. They are opposed to the government's going into the business of making railroad rates and think complaints against a railroad should be made to the courts. We will demand admission on our credentials, and if this is denied we will insist upon our rights."

Five hundred commercial organizations from all parts of the country have appointed delegates on the basis of one for each 100 members, and the governor of each state was asked to appoint one delegate from each congressional district to attend the convention. The call asserted that the only business to be considered was the indorsement of President Roosevelt's recommendation to congress, but a large number of delegates appointed by governors and commercial organizations are opposed to the policy of the President, and they assert that inasmuch as they were regularly appointed, their views, either for or against the President, should not be an issue deciding their eligibility as delegates.

Practice at Westminster.

NEW WILMINGTON, PA., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—The Westminster football squad continued practice for the game Saturday at New Castle with Grove City, under the direction of Head Coach Jack Long. Capt. Locke being absent. The fast and snappy work of the varsity eleven scored at will on the scrubs, the several new formations tried out being great ground-gainers. The practice tomorrow afternoon and Friday will be secret, the students to be only allowed to give the boys a send-off at the end of Friday's practice. Three hundred rooters will accompany the team to New Castle Saturday on a special train.

Arrangements are being made for a second game with West Virginia university of Morgantown, which the locals defeated 15 to 0 in the first game. Westminster feels confident of increasing the figures at the next meeting.

FLAMMER WILL OPPOSE JEROME

ACT WILL HELP MR. IVINS

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Charles A. Flammer tonight announced his resignation as Republican candidate for district attorney, and appealed to the members of the party to support the candidacy of William Travers Jerome. Mr. Flammer's resignation was announced in the following statement given out by Chairman William Halpin, of the Republican county committee.

"When I accepted the Republican nomination for district attorney I did so in good faith and full expectation, if elected, of being able to serve the people of this community honorably and well.

"As a member of the Republican party I desire to put myself in accord with the best tradition of that party in leading sound public sentiment, by not continuing my candidacy for district attorney against William Travers Jerome and, in response to what I recognize today as the sense of the majority of the best citizenship in this community, I retire as a candidate for district attorney.

"Though the thought is apart from the principle which occasions my retirement, I am hopeful and confident my action must assist in the unification of those citizens opposed to the continuance of the administration of this city by McClellan, Murphy and Tammany, in the support of Mr. Ivins for mayor in which, with all other good citizens, I am vitally interested.

"I beg to acknowledge my gratitude to those friends whose expressions of good will and loyalty have come to me in this campaign and I urge them, as well as all Republicans and all other good citizens to support and vote for William Travers Jerome for district attorney, as I shall do."

Mr. Halpin was then asked why Mr. Flammer had resigned.

"I don't know," replied the county chairman. "He came to me this afternoon and said he desired to retire. To this I made no objection and I believe this retirement will be most helpful to Mr. Ivins' candidacy. It is now too late for the Republicans to nominate anyone to take Mr. Flammer's place."

"What effect will the resignation have upon Mr. Jerome's candidacy?" was asked.

"It will undoubtedly help Mr. Jerome."

"Will Mr. Flammer's name go on the official ballot?"

"Yes," said Mr. Halpin. "My understanding is it will have to."

"Will the Republican organization come out and declare itself in favor of Mr. Jerome?" was asked.

"I cannot answer that question at present," said Mr. Halpin. "I will probably have something more to say tomorrow."

District Attorney Jerome when asked tonight if he had anything to say regarding Mr. Flammer's resignation, replied:

"This is a subject of too much importance to talk about tonight. I am tired with the day's business and the night's talking—too tired to talk any more. I will say nothing now. I may have something about it tomorrow."

BROKERS WERE EXCITED OVER DELAY OF REPORT

Record of the Cotton Ginned Shows a Decline of Almost Two Million Bales.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—A total of 4,940,728 bales of cotton ginned in the United States up to October 18 is the statement announced in a bulletin issued by the census bureau today.

No estimate is made of the total crop for the year, but figures are given out concerning crops of former years. These figures show that up to this date, in 1904, the product of the gins had reached a total of 6,417,894 bales out of a total of 13,693,279 bales for the year.

The fact that the bulletin was not issued until 2 o'clock, two hours after the usual time, caused some complaint from brokers in different cities. David Miller, the receiver of Sulley & Co., is quoted as saying the ginners' report was delayed from 12 o'clock until 2 o'clock to allow more time to certain parties to sell cotton.

In reply to the criticisms Director North said that more than half of the telegraphic reports from agents were received this morning and their compilation prior to 2 o'clock was a physical impossibility.

HERO'S STATUE CROSSEYED.

Sculptor Has Been Called Upon to Remedy Ocular Defect of Father of His Country.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—(Special)—Visitors have been under the impression that the noble statue of George Washington on the Esplanade was squinting at them. The capitol police were notified of the attack of strabismus from which the first president seems to be suffering.

Fearing some vandal had been at work one of the policemen climbed up and discovered a small piece of stone has been broken from just above the eyeball and falling, had lodged between the nose and the eye. This gives the appearance of cross-sightedness, which is an absurdity soon to be remedied by the sculptor's hammer.

PREPARING RAILWAY BILL.

Senate Committee on Inter-State Commerce Called to Draft Act Governing Rates.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Senator Elkins, chairman of the senate committee on interstate commerce, today called a meeting of that committee for November 21, for the purpose of considering the testimony taken early in the summer relative to the regulation of railroad rates with the ultimate view of reporting a bill to the senate.

Ever since the hearings on the subject closed the committee has had two experts and a number of clerks employed compiling information for the use of the committee and the senate. Senator Foraker also has a bill which will receive consideration.

M. & M. PILGRIMS IN CUMBERLAND

RAIN DOES NOT INTERFERE

Special Telegram From JEROME J. NORDMAN, Staff Correspondent.

CUMBERLAND, MD., Oct. 25.—Day or night, rain or shine, uphill or down, the M. and M. train, making its fifth trade extension tour cannot be stopped, and met and overcame all these conditions today. Nor did delays deteriorate from the welcome received.

This was especially demonstrated in the last three towns visited today. Everett, which was to have been reached at 5:35 this evening, was not visited until 9:30 o'clock, at a time when rain fell freely. Nevertheless the whole town, which had been waiting nearly three hours, was out with its brass band and nearly every building was festooned with bunting and flags. A speakers' stand was erected in front of the Grump building, from which an entertaining address of welcome was delivered by former Congressman J. E. Thropp. The merchants had sent a delegation of 15 ahead to meet the visitors at Saxton.

Bedford, which was scheduled for 6:40, was reached at 10 o'clock, but everybody in town was still waiting at the station, including a large committee from Cumberland, who escorted us to their city, where we arrived at 11:45 o'clock and spent the night. It had been expected to reach this point at 8:30. The Cumberland committee, which was a representative one, consisted of John W. Keating, De Warren Reynolds, P. J. Seaver, Hugh McMullen, Johnson Morgan, W. Schaffenberg, Thomas W. Footer, C. L. Bretz and John S. Seibert. The crowning feature of the day, if not of the trip, was the banquet tendered tonight in Y. M. C. A. hall by the merchants of this place, at which 350 covers were laid.

For more than three hours a sumptuous repast lay waiting for the pilgrims to arrive while speakers composed of the most distinguished citizens in the city stood by and patiently abided the coming of the visitors. Judge Robert R. Henderson acted as toastmaster; Gen. Joseph Sprague replied to the toast, "Welcome;" former United States Senator George L. Wellington spoke on "Finance;" ex-Judge Ferdinand Williams discussed "The Bar;" Capt. R. H. Gordon spoke on "The Natural Advantages of Cumberland," and Attorney DeWarren H. Reynolds delivered an address on "Railroads." The speakers were eloquent not only in discussing their alloted subjects but were equally eloquent in their praises of Pittsburgh and the M. and M. Association for its enterprise. Responses were made by President Lloyd, Secretary Wardrop and others. The associated merchants held a reception at their headquarters before and after the banquet.

The cause for the great loss of time during the day was due to the heretofore unknown experiment of taking a 10-car Pullman train from Tyrone up the Clearfield and Tyrone division to Osceola, Phillipsburg and Houtzdale, and around the magnificently picturesque Mule Shoe curve. Two of the largest sized freight engines and two passenger engines were employed in this task and made remarkable time, considering the slippery tracks.

Tyrone, the town that boasts that it has neither store room or house to rent at this time, was the first place visited today after leaving Altoona. A large delegation of Huntingdon merchants boarded the train at this place and made the mountain tour, remaining until their own town was reached. As Osceola the address of welcome was made by J. B. McFadden of the Osceola Leader-Courier. In the enterprising town of Phillipsburg the welcome was extended by Attorney George Zeigler, who revived the freight discrimination question and referred to the fact that goods could be received in Phillipsburg over the New York Central railroad and sent to Huntingdon and resold in the face of competition.

At Houtzdale the address of greeting was delivered by former Representative Harry Boulton.

Huntingdon, reached nearly two hours after schedule time, afforded a royal welcome. A committee of 75 merchants met the visitors but were lost in the crowd which had gathered about the station notwithstanding the prevailing rain storm. Marching to the Union National bank behind a band the visitors were addressed by Robert A. Orbison, president of the board of trade and former burgess.

NEW FT. PITT HOTEL KEEPS OPEN HOUSE

Penn Avenue Hostelry Is Formally Dedicated Under Auspicious Circumstances.

Pittsburgh's newest hostelry, the Ft. Pitt hotel, at Penn avenue and Tenth street, was formally opened last night. C. A. Blanchard, the manager of the house, threw out the latchstring and during the afternoon and evening several thousand people enjoyed his hospitality and viewed the comforts and luxurious surroundings of the hotel. The doors were opened at 4 p. m. and when the night clerk checked up his list of arrivals shortly before midnight, three pages in the book had been filled. The success of the Ft. Pitt seems assured.

No hotel in Pittsburgh has so much available floor space, and no downtown house has a lobby that approaches the magnificence and the roominess of the Ft. Pitt. With two wide entrance corridors, a large office and an ample waiting room and lounging corridor, there is an abundance of space that is especially appreciated by guests in Pittsburgh. On the main floor, connecting with the office and within easy reach of the elevators, are two large dining-rooms and a buffet room. The main dining-room seats 300 people, and the vine room, a cosy cafe adjoining, will accommodate 200. A private dining-room in addition seats 75. On the parlor floor are seven smaller private dining-rooms. An orchestra of eight pieces from the Hotel Majestic in New York will be a permanent feature in the dining-rooms.

The house contains 400 rooms, more than half of which are provided with private baths. The rooms are furnished with brass bedsteads and dressers, wardrobes, dressing tables, divans and chairs of dull-finished mahogany in Chippendale design. The walls are plain in various shades of terra cotta, and in every room, no matter how small, is a tastefully framed picture, which adds greatly to the cheeriness of the surroundings. The corridors and rooms are covered with heavy Wilton velvet carpets, and rich oriental rugs are spread upon the downstairs floors.

Mr. Blanchard was congratulated on every hand last night. His friends both in Pittsburgh and eastern cities remembered him with beautiful floral offerings. H. Brobst, who was so long identified with the Hotel Lincoln, is at the desk, with J. E. Richards, who is equally well known. Others on the staff are H. M. Stewart, Owen McGlade and F. Mullin.

LITIGATION OVER THE PIERRE RONALDS ESTATE

Son of "The Father of Coaching in America" Asks for Return of Valuable Property.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Suit was begun today by Reginald Ronalds, son of Pierre Lorillard Ronalds, "the father of coaching in America," who died in this city on October 21, to recover property valued at nearly $1,000,000 which had been deeded by the elder Ronalds to Miss Elizabeth N. Blake.

Pierre Lorillard Ronalds was 79 years old. Miss Blake says that for the past 19 years she has been as a daughter to the old man, her filial affection comforting his declining days, and during all that time he had been with her constantly.

The complaint of Reginald Ronalds asserts that at the time the deeds were executed his father was incompetent to manage his business affairs, and was without sufficient intelligence to comprehend or understand the effect of the documents he signed. The complainant also asserts that Miss Blake took advantage of his father's weak condition.

OLD ENEMIES FRATERNIZE AT UNVEILING OF MONUMENT

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 25.—In a pouring rain which lasted the better portion of the day, hundreds of interested spectators stood on the old Newmarket battlefield and witnessed the unveiling of a handsome monument to the dead of the Fifty-fourth Pennsylvania regiment volunteer veterans.

The ceremony of the unveiling was performed by Miss Mostaller and was witnessed by Neff Rice camp, Confederate Veterans, in their old gray uniforms, the erstwhile enemies fraternizing on the ground where once they had waged a valiant fight against each other.

After the unveiling other exercises were held in the opera house, which was crowded with people. The exercises consisted of the singing of the national anthem by a trained choir and addresses by C. W. Bennick, W. H. Rose and C. S. Campbell, the latter being the eldest son of Col. Jacob Campbell, who commanded the regiment in this battle.

UNIONS TO ORGANIZE PARTY IN THIS STATE

Railroad Employes, Mine Workers and Trades Bodies Unite for Political Purposes.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, Oct. 25.—The Union Labor party will be launched by a convention of representatives of railroad and labor organizations in Pennsylvania, now being held in this city for that purpose. The object of the proposed party is to secure legislation to better the condition of railroad employes and other skilled workingmen in this state.

The convention opened today with about 100 delegates in attendance, and will continue in session for 10 days. Committees will be appointed tomorrow to draft rules and arrange for the amalgamation of all the labor organizations in Pennsylvania.

The state legislative board of railroad employes was organized in Philadelphia last November to bring about such legislation as would better the condition of railroad employes. This board includes representatives from the Brotherhood of Engineers and Firemen. Now it is proposed to take in trainmen, conductors, telegraphers, trackmen, all labor organizations and the United Mine Workers.

When the amalgamation has been completed a representative from each legislative district in the state will meet in this city annually and nominate a state ticket. Local tickets will also be nominated in certain cities and counties where representatives of the proposed party believe there is a chance to win.

Authority has been received from the United Mine Workers to go ahead and include this great body of toilers in the new organization. Numerous other labor organizations have also consented, and it is expected a permanent organization will be completed Saturday.

WHAT JOY THEY BRING TO EVERY HOME

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature, and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained, by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.

THE CLUBS

Contributions to this department must bear the name and address of the writer to insure attention.

Visited by Eastern Club Women.

A surprise was in store for the members of the New Era club yesterday afternoon in the presence of Miss Jane Campbell of Germantown; Mrs. Mary Luckie of Chester and Mrs. Price of Swathmore, eastern club women who have been in Pittsburgh since last Saturday, stopping in this city on their way home from the meeting of the State Federation. The meeting yesterday was a very enthusiastic one and there were addresses by the eastern women, a report of the State Federation meeting given by Miss Helen Grimes, one of the delegates from the New Era club, who claimed for that club the largest representation in Cambridge Springs, 24 of its members attending the convention. Miss Campbell spoke on the right of both men and women to suffrage. Mrs. Luckie explained the provisions of the intestate law of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Price also speaking on woman suffrage.

Mrs. Richard Morrison took the place of Mrs. R. J. Cleland on the program, giving an admirable paper on the "Hebrew Language and Literature." Mrs. J. W. Riley described the "Zionist Movement." The program was conducted under the direction of Mrs. S. N. Taylor, the leader for the day.

During the brief business session the circular letter from the joint committee of Women's Clubs for Pittsburgh Playgrounds and Vacation Schools was read, asking for delegates to attend the meeting of the committee which will be held this afternoon. Mrs. Robert D. Coard and Mrs. William D. Grimes were elected delegates, with instructions to vote in favor of making the committee an incorporated body.

The music yesterday afternoon was furnished by Mrs. F. G. Pierce and Mrs. B. Wilson, vocalists.

Topics of World-Wide Interest.

While club women are meeting in their individual organizations and at the state federation to discuss education, co-operation between parents and teachers and other topics of present moment, it is interesting to note that women on the other side of the world are discussing the very same subjects. This week in Birmingham, England, the annual conference of the National Union of Women Workers is being held, opening on Tuesday and continuing three days. The topics scheduled for the different sessions include "Vacation Schools for Children," on which Mrs. Humphrey Ward will read a paper; "Play Centers," "Parental Responsibility in Various Aspects," "Children's Courts of Justice," "Emigration" and "The Destitute and Various Ways of Helping Them." Under this last head comes the "Colony System." In America women are discussing "Immigration," but on the other side of the Atlantic this same problem is looked at from another point of view, the distinguished men and women in England seeing the problem as one of "Emigration." Last week a great woman's suffrage convention was held in Hull when special attention was called to the help which women would receive from parliamentary representation in promoting their work in education, industry, the professions and practical philanthropy.

Needlework Ingatherings.

The annual ingathering of the Pittsburgh branch of the Needlework Guild of America will be held on Tuesday, November 14, in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church, Sixth avenue. The ingathering will be conducted during the morning and afternoon and on the following day, Wednesday, the distribution to the hospitals and other institutions will be made. Last year the Pittsburgh ingathering brought in over 3,000 articles to the Needlework guild. Mrs. Frank Bryce is the president of the Pittsburgh branch, having been elevated to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Mrs. N. Q. Speer to Berkeley Springs. Mrs. George B. Moore is secretary and Miss Eleanor Watson treasurer.

The Allegheny branch of the Needlework Guild of America will hold its annual ingathering on Wednesday, November 15, in the First Presbyterian church, Arch street, Allegheny, the Rev. David S. Kennedy, pastor. The Allegheny women hope to be able to make their distribution of articles to the different institutions that same day. The Allegheny branch has 16 sections, fewer than in Pittsburgh, and the number of articles received does not equal that on this side of the river. Miss Martha P. Bakewell is the president of the Allegheny branch; Miss Emma Mabon, secretary, and Miss Hamburger, treasurer.

Pittsburgh Playgrounds Meeting.

The annual meeting of the joint committee of Women's clubs for Pittsburgh Playgrounds and Vacation Schools will be held this afternoon in the Twentieth Century club at 2:30 o'clock. It is proposed at that time to change the name of the organization to the Pittsburgh Playgrounds association, and the question of securing a charter will be decided upon. Incorporation, it is believed by many, will be a decided advantage in the planning of the work for the summer playgrounds, vacation schools and recreation parks. A circular letter has been addressed to the women's clubs which have co-operated in carrying on the work since the joint committee was organized, and delegates have been appointed from these clubs to attend the meeting this afternoon, with instructions how to vote on the question of securing a charter, many of the clubs being in favor of this move. The giving of contract for work in the recreation parks has brought the matter to a focus, an incorporated body doing so with much more security than an unchartered body, whose individual members may become liable to suit.

Japanese Tea and Musicale.

Specially interesting musical programs have been arranged for the Japanese tea which will be given this afternoon and evening in the home of Mrs. J. Alexander Hardy, 429 Rebecca street, Shadyside, for the benefit of the Children's Aid society of Allegheny county. The afternoon recital will be a very pleasing feature of the affair, while during the evening a negro quartet will sing. No bazar will be conducted, but refreshments will be served. The receiving women will appear in rich imported Japanese costumes, elaborately embroidered, while the aids in the dining-room will be dressed in the picturesque Japanese Mimosas. Japanese decorations will prevail throughout the house.

Carter Conservatory Recital.

President C. D. Carter of the Carter conservatory, South Highland avenue, last evening gave the first of this season's series of recitals by the faculty, graduates and advanced pupils. The vocal numbers were sung by Mr. Carter, Miss Ethelwin Dible, Miss Eva Kates, Miss Ivie Taylor and Miss Bernadette Crawford, the latter the gold medalist of the vocal department last year. The pianists were Miss Bertha Gross of this year's graduating class; Miss Margaret Krebs, gold medalist in 1903, and Miss Bernadette Donnelly, gold medalist at the commencement last summer.

Babies Attend Reception.

At the request of many of the visitors to the Oakland day nursery, the babies will be present at the annual reception and donation observed this afternoon at the nursery in Atwood street, Oakland. The reception hours will be from 2 o'clock until 6 and the members of the board of managers will receive. They include the president, Miss Mary McKee; the vice presidents, Mrs. George Abraham and Mrs. W. H. Latshaw; treasurer, Miss Beulah Little; recording secretary, Mrs. William Phillips, and the corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Edwards.

Hold Postponed Meeting.

Pittsburgh Sorosis met yesterday afternoon in the Hotel Schenley, holding the regular meeting postponed from last week because so many of the members of the club went to Cambridge Springs to the meeting of the state federation. The meeting yesterday was under the direction of Mrs. William M. Carothers, the papers and discussions dealing with the earliest history of Holland. Reports of the meeting of the state federation were also given.

Controversy Almost Led to Duel.

The French lecture given yesterday under the auspices and in the lecture room of the Berlitz school was very well attended. Monsieur Georges Jud spoke interestingly of Paul Bourget, the author of "Outre Mer," and he explained at the conclusion the reasons for the controversy between Bourget and Mark Twain which nearly led to a duel between the two great writers. The next lecture will be in German, "Lenau in America," on November 16, and on November 29 there will be another French lecture on Rabelais.

Club Notes.

The Columbian Council of Jewish Women will hold its president's reception this afternoon in the Bellefield club house, North Craig street.

The regular meeting of the Woman's club of Braddock was held yesterday afternoon. Early American poetry and the poets, Bryant and Longfellow, were discussed by the club women under the direction of Mrs. J. K. Mills.

The Woman's club of New Brighton met yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Thomas Livingston Kennedy.

Wedding at "Athall."

Mr. and Mrs. James Scott have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Jessie Brown Scott, and Dr. Alyle Garland, to take place at 6 o'clock on Wednesday evening, November 8, at "Athall," the family home in Stanton avenue, East End. A reception will follow from 8 until 10 o'clock. Cards announcing Thursdays in February as at-home days in Elgin avenue are enclosed with the invitations.

DuBarry-Patton Wedding Day.

Miss Willa DuBarry has selected Monday, November 13, as the date for her wedding to William John Patton. It will take place at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. DuBarry, in Penn avenue, East End, at 7 o'clock in the evening. Invitations for the wedding will be issued today.

SOCIETY

Contributions to this department must bear the name and address of the writer to insure attention.

WITH her grandparents, Judge and Mrs. Thomas Mellon, seated at one side of the improvised altar, Miss Mary Caldwell Mellon last evening became the wife of John Herman Kampmann of San Antonio, Tex. The marriage was solemnized in the presence of the immediate relatives at the residence of Judge and Mrs. Mellon, in North Negley avenue, the Rev. Dr. Frank N. Sneed, pastor of the East Liberty Presbyterian church, officiating. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Thomas Alexander Mellon, who gave her away. Her only attendant was Miss Eda Kampmann, the bridegroom's sister, but the bridal procession also included Isaac S. Kampmann, as best man, and the ribbon bearers, Clinton L. Childs and Frank Irish. The bridal gown was an exquisite creation of Brussels rose point lace made en princesse, and with a train. The elbow sleeves were finished with a fall of the lace and, reaching to the end of the train, was the long tulle veil held in place by a spray of orange blossoms and a diamond tiara, Edward P. Mellon's gift to his sister. The bride carried a bouquet of white orchids, showered with lilies of the valley, while Miss Kampmann's bouquet was of lavender orchids. She wore a gown of pale green silk of a soft texture, the trimming for which was of silver embroidery. The gown was cut decollete and tucked into princesse effect, the skirt falling into a short train.

Immediately after the ceremony at 8 o'clock the home of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Mellon, across the street, was opened and a brilliant reception was held, Mr. and Mrs. Mellon and Mrs. H. D. Kampmann, the bridegroom's mother, receiving with the bridal couple. The long veranda was entirely closed and draped with smilax, a portion of it being divided by a wicker fence and gateway to conceal the orchestra. One corner of the drawing room was filled with palms, against which the receiving party stood to welcome the guests. Yellow chrysanthemums relieved the greens, and in the dining room was a centerpiece of the same. The den and the library had effective mantel bankings of farleyense ferns and the breakfast room at the rear of the house presented a particularly attractive appearance. The walls and ceilings of old rose were covered with southern smilax, while in the center of the table was a mound of yellow orchids. It was here that the bride's table was placed, with covers for 18, the guests including Mr. and Mrs. Kampmann, Miss Kampmann, Miss Georgia Neale Heard, Miss Ella T. Cassidy, Miss Alberta Harper, Miss Gladys L. Painter, Miss Rebekah Jane Friend, Miss Lucille Mellon, Miss Martha Heron, Edward P. Mellon, Hay Walker, Clinton L. Childs, Frank Irish, Thomas Mellon, Jr., John Evans and George W. Nicola. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Miss Catherine Yoakum, H. D. Kampmann, Miss Kampmann, Isaac S. Kampmann, all of San Antonio; Miss Lyde Paull of Wheeling, W. Va.; Miss Alison Wyeth of St. Joseph, Mo. The list included handsome pieces of cut glass, silver and bronze ware, with paintings and articles of furniture. Mr. Kampmann and his bride will make their home in San Antonio, at the conclusion of their wedding trip, which they began last evening.

Benefit Whist and Housewarming.

The benedt whist for the National Jewish Home for Consumptives was given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Kaufmann in Beason street, was a most successful affair. Sixty tables were in use, all of them being placed in the handsome ball room on the third floor of the house which received its formal housewarming last evening. The whist was in charge of a committee of women, including Mrs. Kaufmann, Mrs. Jobiah Cohen, Mrs. M. Oppenheimer, Mrs. Isaac Guckenheimer, Mrs. Jacob Kaufmann, Mrs. Bertha Benswanger, Mrs. Cass Sunstein, Mrs. A. M. Hast and Mrs. Marcus Raun. Thirty beautiful prizes, including pieces of cut glass, silver and needlework, together with vases, books and pictures were awarded at the close of the games. A china tea service, a dainty little vase, a cut glass dish, a live canary in a cage, and several other donations were raffled, and the proceeds used for the same worthy purpose. The magnificent home which was the scene of the entertainment needed but little decoration. A number of palms were donated by a well-known East End florist and these were placed on the broad landings of the stairs, in the bay window the dining-room and through the spacious halls. On a table in the lower hall stood a cut glass vase of American Beauty roses, surrounded by red satin ribbon roses with long streamers, matching in shade the walls and the upholstering. The yellow morocco leather panels on the dining-room walls were matched by the broad bows of ribbon which tied the candelabra. Yellow chrysanthemums carried out the prevailing color in the drawing-room and in the reception room of green oak stood a large vase of white chrysanthemums. Across the mezzanine in the hall room southern smilax was arranged, while palms were grouped near the large pillars in the center of the room.

Bowman of Brownsville, officiated at 7:30 o'clock, and the attendants included Miss Irene Lysinger and Thomas Morrison McKenna, as maid of honor and best man. Pink and white were the colors carried out in the decorations of chrysanthemums. After the wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. McKenna instead of taking the customary wedding trip went to their home in Semple street, where they are ready to receive their friends.

Clark-McDaniel.

Pink and white were the colors at the wedding of Miss Kathryn Clark, daughter of County Commissioner and Mrs. James A. Clark, to Bruce McDaniel last evening. The wedding was a prettily appointed home even at which the Rev. Dr. George W. Chalfant pastor of the Park Avenue Presbyterian church officiated. The bridal party included Miss Eda Beaver, Miss Mabel Keppel, and Frank Roessing. A gown of white crepe de chine trimmed with rose point lace and panne velvet was worn by the bride, who had as her only ornament the bridegroom's gift, a diamond brooch. She carried white roses and the bridesmaids, each in a gown of white batiste with eyelet embroidery and high pink girdles, carried pink chrysanthemums. These flowers, with quantities of greens, decorated the house. Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel began an eastern tour last evening and will be at home after November 15 in Baum street.

The bride wore a white chiffon toilette and a tulle veil fastened with Prince of Wales plumes. She carried a bouquet of maidenhair ferns and lilies of the valley. Miss Hunter, in a dainty frock of white batiste, carried maidenhair ferns. The ceremony was performed against a background of palms, ferns and white chrysanthemums, while yellow chrysanthemums were used in the dinning room. Letter Number Two

In Which the Brother Touches on the Hysterical Adulation of Public Idols by Women

My Dear Kittens: You will be interested, I think, if not altogether pleased, at an experience I had, apropos of your last letter.

You told me in that letter about the "time of your lives" that you girls had at Music Hall the other afternoon at a recital given by ——; how his playing simply "carried you off your feet"; how it "enthralled" you and made you all feel that this pianist was "simply divine." All the girls had "creeps down their spines"; they were "hot and cold all over," etc. In short, you had one of those hysterical flings that seem to appeal to girls and women at these recitals.

HARTJE FAILS TO GET CHILDREN

GRANEY NOT A MURDERER

The habeas corpus proceedings of Augustus Hartje, a prominent business man, to secure possession of his children from their mother, against whom he has filed sensational charges involving a coachman, in an action in diverce, was heard before Judge Frazer yesterday. The court, after a lengthy hearing, refused the petition of the children's father and permitted them to remain in their mother's custody, at least for the present. Although the court would not allow anything relative to the reasons assigned for the separation of the parents, to be offered in this case, these charges were hinted at during the hearing. The Hartjes have been married about 12 years and their two children, Scott and Mary L., are respectively 11 and seven years of age.

The Hartjes lived in Irwin avenue, East End, Mrs. Hartje before her marriage was Mary Scott, daughter of John Scott. In June the Hartjes went to Europe on a trip for the benefit of Mr. Hartje's health. They returned about the last of July and soon afterward, it is alleged, Mrs. Hartje left her husband's residence and went to the home of her parents in Bartlett street, East End. It is alleged she previously sent their two children there. Hartje then began proceedings for a divorce, in which he charged her with infidelity and named Thomas Madine, the family coachman, as co-respondent. She denied the charges and filed a cross-suit in which she made sensational charges against her husband, among other things complaining of his treatment of her and charging he did not give her enough money to live on.

Maintained $30,000 Home.

On the witness stand Hartje testified he maintained a $30,000 house and was amply able to provide for and educate the children. He also told of his wife's leaving him. The court said that it must be shown that the children were not surrounded by proper influences and circumstances if an order was made to change their custody, and at the close of the hearing he refused to make an order as the father wished.

John Graney was acquitted in criminal court before Judge Brown of the murder of Charles Laughlin at 611 West Robinson street, Allegheny, June 12. Graney and Laughlin were friends and the former was visiting Laughlin's house on the evening of the killing. A dispute arose between them while they were standing on a porch, and during a scuffle Laughlin fell or was pushed from the porch to the ground, breaking his spine and causing his death. There was very little evidence to show that Graney was responsible for Laughlin's death, and the jury was only out a short time before agreeing on a verdict. Attorney William M. Price appeared for Graney and Assistant District Attorney W. D. Grimes represented the commonwealth.

W. J. Stevenson secured a preliminary injunction against James Stewart & Co., the general contractors on the Annex hotel in Penn avenue, near Sixty-first street, restraining the defendants from interfering with the plaintiff and his workmen in the setting of the marble, tile and stair treads in the building. The plaintiff says he has a contract with the Columbian Marble Quarrying Company for doing this part of the work. He says his men were at work on October 22 when they were ordered away by the defendants without any right or excuse. The plaintiff says his men left rather than have trouble. A hearing is set for October 27.

New Water Line Causes Suit.

The new water line being laid to the South Side is the cause of a suit entered by R. J. Dougherty against the city, Director E. M. Bigelow and the T. A. Gillespie Company. Dougherty says he is the lessee of two lots in the Twenty-second ward, where he has a coal tipple. The defendants, he says, have started to excavate on the premises without permission and he asks for an injunction.

Mrs. Katherine Weisman, late of Millvale, left a will in which she gives $5 out of an estate of $2,100 to her daughter, Sophia Simon. The testatrix says she received during her lifetime "a large portion of my estate." The estate is left to a number of her friends.

The Central District and Printing Telegraph Company and the American Telephone Company filed answer to the reply of the borough of West Elizabeth to the equity suit brought against the borough. The suit was to prevent interference by the borough with the companies' poles and wires, and the companies declare they have a right to string their wires under the ordinance giving them the right of way.

The Crescent Laundry Company filed a bill in equity against Henry Broida, a former driver, to restrain him from operating on his old route for another company.

The Pittsburgh Boat Company has answered the suit of the Duquesne Cycle Company for a receiver for the boat company, denying that the cycle company is a creditor or that the boat company is insolvent. The defendant company says it is perfectly solvent and that the suit is to harass and annoy it. The court is asked to dismiss the bill.

Want Company to Pay.

A suit to compel the Pittsburgh, McKeesport & Connellsville Railway Company to pay $2,-672 62 as its proportion for improving Jerome street was entered by the city of McKeesport.

Antonio Santarello had a capias issued for Richard Hennessy, from whom he asks $5,000 damages, alleging slander.

A suit was entered by Theodore Cappell, receiver of the Schilling Bros. Co., against E. T. Schilling. He asks that the transfer of the Brilliant Pharmacy at 1005 Lincoln avenue be declared void, and for an accounting between the Schilling Bros. Co. and E. T. Schilling.

A. F. Young & Co. had an attachment for $1,128 issued against the Porter Produce Company. The plaintiffs say the above named amount is due them for produce, and that the defendants fraudulently concealed or have assigned or removed their property to defraud their creditors.

In the divorce suit of Harry H. Heil against Martha C. Heil, the respondent has filed an answer denying the charge of desertion, making a counter charge of abuse and demanding a jury trial.

Decrees in divorce were granted as follows: Valeria Habigger vs. John Habigger; Anna J. Herr vs. Clifford C. Herr, Augustus A. Myers vs. J. Harvey Myers, all on grounds of desertion, and Elizabeth S. Bender vs. Milton Bender, on grounds of indignities.

Kirk Q. Bigham, as executor of the estate of Maria L. Bigham, entered suits against the Wabash-Pittsburgh Terminal Railway Company and the West Side Belt railroad for the reopening of public roads leading to property of the estate, which, it is alleged, were obstructed by the construction of the defendant roads.

S. J. Dugan was given a verdict for $4,312 against the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad for land taken by the railroad.

In the divorce suit of Charles E. Erickson against Alma G. Erickson the jury rendered a verdict for the plaintiff.

Letters of administration were granted to Terrance T. McEvoy on the estate of Daniel C. Neary, deceased, formerly a hotelkeeper at Tunnel street and Fifth avenue. The realty is valued at $75,000, and the personal property of the deceased at $12,000. The decedent's widow and a minor daughter are the heirs.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed by Dr. Samuel S. Stewart. His liabilities are given as $45,226 45, and his assets as $20,520. The petition of Samuel Coleman, a hotelkeeper at Altoona, shows liabilities of $866, and assets of $207 50.

GRANT BOULEVARD CASE IS UP AGAIN

The contract for building the Grant boulevard, that expensive piece of highway foisted on the people, was before the supreme court for argument yesterday afternoon in the case of Werneberg, Sheehan & Co. against the city of Pittsburgh, appellant. The boulevard case has been before the courts in many shapes since its completion. In the present suit the jury in court of common pleas No. 2 rendered a verdict giving the plaintiff $138,936 01, subject to the question of law reserved as to whether or not there was any evidence which entitled the plaintiff to recover. On April 7 last Judge Frazer decided for the plaintiff in an order directing that judgment be entered for the amount of the verdict. The city took an appeal, raising the question of recovery for damages for delays, damages for grading in excess of the amount found by the estimate of the directors of the department of public works, and for recovery for fill in excess of the amount of excavation where no fill is used except what is taken from the line of the work.

The defense of the city is that the contract specifically precludes a recovery of damages for delay and that the final estimate of the director is conclusive. It is admitted that there was some slight delay in starting the entire right-of-way, but it is charged that the main causes of delay were insufficient and incompetent force and failure to push the work, the purchase of dumps along the line by a rival contractor and a slip at Jones' hollow. If the plaintiffs are allowed to recover in this case, it is argued that the city may as well abandon its custom of entering into written contracts. All that will be left for it will be to allow contractors to do as they please and pay them whatever a jury may see fit to allow them.

For the contractors the argument will be advanced that the delay was caused by failure of the city to secure the right-of-way, although Director Bigelow had said these had been secured. On the question of grading it is alleged that the director refused to measure the amount of fill. It is admitted that the work was done under contract, but urged that where one party to a contract fails to perform his part the other party can desist from further work and sue for damages, or can complete the contract and claim additional compensation.

An umbrella, said to be worth $1 25, is the loser of the case of Fred Buel, Jr., appellant, vs. Daniel A. Bergman, common pleas court No. 1. Bergman is a plumber and young Buel worked for him. He was given an umbrella by Mrs. Bergman to take to Bergman. He left it in a street car. Bergman wrote to Buel's father demanding $1 25 for the umbrella. The elder Buel was willing to pay, but said $1 25 was excessive. Bergman brought suit against young Buel for larceny. At the hearing he said he did not believe young Buel was a thief, but he wanted his $1 25. The case was discharged and Buel's father, for his son, brought suit for $5,000 damages and the jury found for the defendant.

The cases of Morris & Brown vs. James H. and John L. McCutcheon and John D. Armstrong, surviving partners, etc., and of John D. Armstrong, surviving partner, etc., against James H., John L. and Thomas G. McCutcheon and Morris & Brown, both from common pleas court No. 2, were argued together. These cases arose from the Northern Pacific panic of May, 1901.

Two cases concerning the Pittsburgh Railways Company were argued. In one John Mulvaney was the appellant, having been nonsuited in an action he brought to recover damages for the death of his son, Thomas Mulvaney. The Pittsburgh Railways Company was the appellant in the other. Josephine Dougherty, who was hurt on a Mt. Washington car, was given $12,000 damages. The company claims improper assertions were made to the jury by her counsel.

Other cases argued were E. N. Reed vs. the borough of Tarentum, appellant. An action in which Reed recovered $2,510 for damages received by a fall on the sidewalk and the appeal of A. L. Rich, trustee in which he seeks to having the award of sewers on the improvement of Tioga street opened.

The list for today is appeal of the Pennsylvania railroad from quarter sessions; Nicolette Lumber Company, appellant, vs. Peoples Coal Company; Hines, appellant vs city of Pittsburgh; petition of McGunnegle, appeal of Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad; Roth vs. Helter, appellant; Hanfuth vs. Tarentum T. P. Ry. Co.; appellant (2); McIlroy et al vs. Hamock et al, appeal of Hamock & Gartner; Kuhns, appellant, vs. H. C. Frick Coke Company; estate of Kountz, appeals of Jones, Fitch, Kountz and Backus; same, appeal of Fidelity Title & Trust Company, trustee; Boswell, appellant, vs. Boggs et al; Bergetstown National bank vs. Nill, appellant; Reif, appellant, is the E. W. Huff Company; Glassport Lumber Company, appellant, vs. Wolf et al; United States use, vs. Mercantile Trust Company, appellant; First National bank, appellant vs. McKinley Coal Company, in re Brighton road, appeals of Dietrich, Cooper, Eckert, Darlington and Pittsburgh Company for insurance on lives et al.

WILKINSON ADMITS ATTEMPT TO FIX JURY

Pleads Guilty to the Charge of Embracery in an Effort to Lighten His Sentence.

Samuel C. Wilkinson, charged with embracery in attempting to influence a juror during the trial of Police Capt. James Wilson for grafting in Allegheny, pleaded guilty before Judge Marshall Brown in criminal court. The court set Saturday for the hearing of evidence in the case, and Wilkinson will likely be sentenced on that day. Wilkinson's name had been on the trial list several times, but each time it was postponed on account of the illness of the defendant.

Wilkinson is alleged to have approached James Haywood, a juror on the Wilson case, when it was being tried in June. The matter was reported to the court and a warrant issued for Wilkinson's arrest on a charge of embracery. He was released on $500 bail, but when the case was called he had forfeited his bail and disappeared. After being absent several months he walked into criminal court about three weeks ago and gave himself up.

Rob Postoffice at Creighton.

Six burglars looted the money drawer and damaged the safe with glycerin in the postoffice at Creighton, near Tarentum, early yesterday morning. Before they could complete their work they were frightened away by the night watchman sounding an alarm at the Creighton glass factory. The burglars secured a few dollars, but failed to get anything from the safe. No mail was distributed at Creighton yesterday because the key of the mail bag is locked in the safe, which cannot be opened.

Sues Girl Who Jilted Him.

Joseph Getway, a Slav of Third avenue, Homestead, yesterday, sued Annie Wickle of Third avenue, for false pretense, before Justice Jones. Getway alleges after securing a marriage license the girl refused to marry him and that she kept $37.50 he had given her. The money was returned by the girl and the suit dismissed.

Weighty Professional Endorsements.

That the several American medicinal roots, the concentrated glyceric extracts of which make up Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, have the strongest kind of endorsement by scores of leading medical writers of all the several schools of practice, a brief glance at the standard works on Materia Medica will show. Of Golden Seal root, which is one of the prominent ingredients of "Golden Medical Discovery," Dr. Roberts Bartholow, of Jefferson Medical College, says: "Very useful as a stomachic (stomach) tonic and in atonic dyspepsia. Cures gastric (stomach) catarrh and headaches accompanying same." He also mentions catarrh of the gall duct, jaundice and constipation as diseases which the use of Golden Seal root overcomes; also catarrh of the intestines, even when it has proceeded to ulceration, is remarkably benefited by Hydrastis (Golden Seal root).

Dr. Grover Coe, of New York, says: "Hydrastis (Golden Seal root) exercises an especial influence over mucous surfaces. Upon the liver it acts with equal certainty and efficacy. As a cholagogue (liver invigorator) it has few equals." Dr. Coe also advises it for affections of the spleen and other abdominal viscera generally, and for scrofulous and glandular diseases, cutaneous eruptions, indigestion, debility, chronic diarrhœa, constipation, also in several affections peculiar to women, and in all chronic derangements of the liver; also for chronic inflammation of bladder, for which Dr. Coe says "it is one of the most reliable agents of cure."

Prof. Hobart A. Hare, M. D., of the University of Pa., says of Golden Seal root that it is "of service in chronic catarrh of the stomach and bowels, following abuse of alcohol, and as a tonic after malarial fever." He further says, it "has a distinct anti-malarial influence." Also "good in all catarrhal conditions, as uterine catarrh, leucorrhœa, etc., and as "a curative agent in chronic dyspepsia."

Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., of the Medical Department, University City of N. Y., is equally loud in his praise of Golden Seal root, especially for its tonic effects in convalescence from acute diseases and its special tonic influence upon mucous surfaces and upon the gall bladder.

Doctors Barton and Tully recommended Golden Seal root as a pure tonic and as an alterative in diseased conditions of the mucous membranes.

Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati, author of the AMERICAN DISPENSATORY, gives it a prominent place among medicinal agents, reiterates all the foregoing writers have said about it, as does also Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati. Dr. Scudder says: "It stimulates the digestive processes and increases the assimilation of food. By these means the blood is enriched, * * * * the consequent improvement on the glandular and nervous systems are natural results." Dr. Scudder further says, "in relation to its general effect upon the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic, useful in all debilitated states * * * *"

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of Golden Seal root: "It is a most superior remedy in catarrhal gastritis (inflammation of the stomach), chronic constipation, general debility, in convalescence from protracted fevers, in prostrating night-sweats. It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb." (This agent, Golden Seal root, is an important ingredient of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription for woman's weaknesses, as well as of the "Golden Medical Discovery.") Dr. Ellingwood continues, "in all catarrhal conditions it is useful."

Much more, did space permit, could be quoted from prominent authorities as to the wonderful curative properties possessed by Golden Seal root.

We want to assure the reader that "Golden Medical Discovery" can be relied upon to do all that is claimed for Golden Seal root in the cure of all the various diseases as set forth in the above brief extracts, for its most prominent and important ingredient is Golden Seal root. This agent is, however, strongly reinforced, and its curative action greatly enhanced by the addition, in just the right proportion of Queen's root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Bloodroot, Mandrake root and chemically pure glycerine. All of these are happily and harmoniously blended into a most perfect pharmaceutical compound, now favorably known throughout most of the civilized countries of the world. Bear in mind that each and every ingredient entering in the "Discovery" has received the endorsement of the leading medical men of our land, who extol each article named above in the highest terms. What other medicine put up for sale through druggists can show any such professional endorsement? For dyspepsia, liver troubles, all chronic catarrhal affections of whatever name or nature, lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, the "Discovery" can be relied upon as a sovereign remedy.

By reading the little book noted below any one will readily see the applicability of the "Golden Medical Discovery" to the cure of all the foregoing list of diseases as well as many other chronic affections, especially those of the heart, kidneys, bladder, skin and blood.

A little book of extracts treating of all the several ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines, being extracts from standard medical works, of the different schools of practice will be mailed free to any one asking (by postal card or letter), for the same, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and giving the writer's full post-office address plainly written.

In cases of chronic ailments, attended by marked, or persistent, constipation, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be taken conjointly with the use of the "Golden Medical Discovery," to regulate the bowels. They act in harmony with the "Discovery," and will be found to be a most valuable laxative, or, in fuller doses a cleansing cathartic.

Podophyllin, the active medicinal principle of Mandrake root, enters largely into the composition of the little sugar-coated "Pellets," in fact is one of their chief ingredients. They regulate the liver, stomach and bowels.

DR. CORBETT'S CONGREGATION

It Comprises Over 1,000 Members, All Chinese Converts.

At the quarterly meeting of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny presbyteries of the Presbyterian church, in the First church chapel, Sixth avenue, the Rev. Dr. Hunter Corbett, who for 44 years has been a Presbyterian missionary in China, told of the work at Chefoo. Dr. Corbett stated he is pastor of the largest church of Chinese converts in the world, enrolling, with the stations, over 1,000 members. He stated there have been over 20,000 converts since the Boxer uprising, which advanced the work of foreign missions more than anything else. Mrs. John A. Bell presided at the meeting, which was attended by 150 women. Miss Lillian Smith, leaflet secretary, made a report of the sales for the last quarter. Mrs. W. T. Larimer, the treasurer, reported the two presbyteries raised $713 82 in September, and since March 17 last, $3,925 91. Mrs. Larimer asked that a special effort be made to raise $16,000 by March 17, 1906.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It Is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beautr of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

STOCKS VERY ACTIVE, BUT CLOSED REACTIONARY

Several New High Prices Were Recorded, but Profit-Taking Was on a Large Scale—Norfolk Dividend Increased—Local Stocks Dull.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

There was a big, broad market in New York stocks yesterday, but the course of prices was irregular, and at the close the tone was reactionary. The sales for the day reached nearly 1,250,000 shares, the largest for any day in many weeks. Profit-taking was on an extensive scale, and there were some weak spots, the decline in which was not fully explained.

Foreign markets for American securities continued depressed, but Wall street ignored the lower quotations from London, and soon after the opening a number of new high prices were recorded. One of the most active of the railroads was Reading common, which advanced to 127⅜, the highest price in the history of the company. There was a highly improbable story that Mr. H. C. Frick had submitted to an interview on the intrinsic worth of Reading, and that he had estimated the value of the stock at 150. Delaware & Hudson also made a new high mark by selling at 237½, but a rumor that some valuable subscription rights would accrue to stockholders was authoritatively denied. Both these stocks reacted from the highest prices, but Reading closed 1½ higher and Delaware & Hudson 4 per cent higher. Jersey Central, which made a favorable report for September, advanced to 234½, the highest ever quoted.

In the industrial list American Locomotive common was specially active and on large transactions advanced to 71, the highest of the year. Later there was a reaction to 69, but the stock closed at a net gain of 1⅝ per cent. There was talk of the beginning of dividends on the stock at the rate of 5 per cent in January, but there was no official warrant for such expectations. United States Steel stocks fluctuated within narrow limits, the common closing ⅜ lower and the preferred ½ higher. The weekly review of a trade authority stated that the orders booked for finished iron and steel during the month of October thus far were up to the maximum of last month, and that unprecedented activity prevailed in all departments of the industry. Republic Iron and Steel common and preferred closed at a loss of ⅝. Amalgamated Copper closed ¼ higher and Smelting ¼ lower. American Woolens common sold at 43⅝, the highest ever quoted.

A very conspicuous counter movement occurred in the market at the time of its greatest activity, and was finally responsible for the reactionary tendency which appeared in the entire market during the late afternoon. Decided weakness was displayed by Rock Island, the common selling off to 29¾ and the preferred to 72½, and they closed at net losses of 1¼ and 1½ per cent, respectively. The selling was ascribed to the pool that has been working in the stock, but which met with little following from the public. What looked like a raid occurred in the fractions. Metropolitan was the greatest sufferer, selling down from 126¼ to 123¼ and closing at 123½, a net loss of 2½ per cent. Metropolitan Securities broke from 80½ to 77½, and Brooklyn Rapid Transit from 78½ to 76⅝. The decline was said to be due to a political scare. Very positive assertions were made that the Pennsylvania railroad had acquired control of Brooklyn, but they did not check the decline in the stock.

The standard railroad stocks were moderately active and firm during the greater part of the day, but closed irregular, many of them at net declines. Norfolk & Western directors declared a semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent, thus fulfilling expectations, but after the announcement the stock sold off from 88½ to 87¾ at the close. Call loans were easier, ranging between 4 and 3 per cent, closing at 3 per cent.

The local stock market was the dullest for weeks, the total sales falling below 4,000 shares, of which 2,226 shares were Ohio Tonopah at 24@25c a share. Consolidated Ice declined to 5½, a loss of a dollar a share, and the lowest of the year. Crucible Steel issues were quiet, the common closing unchanged at 13½ and the preferred a shade lower at 87½. National Fire Proofing common declined to 6½, while the preferred was ¼ higher at 21¼. Ohio Fuel Supply was strong and higher, closing at 38. Manufacturers Light and Heat was also a shade higher at 36. The Brewing issues were unchanged. There were no sales of any of the coal issues, Westinghouse Electric or any of the bonds. The tone of the market was very steady, considering the extreme dullness.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

The announcement that the stockholders of the Westinghouse Machine Company will hold a special meeting on December 23 to vote on an increase in the capital stock from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000 had absolutely no effect upon the securities of the company. In fact, there has been no public sale of Westinghouse Machine Company stock on the local exchange since 1901, and there have been very few transactions in the bonds. The last increase in the capital was in 1903, from $2,000,000 to $5,000,000, and the new stock, par value $50 a share, was subscribed for at $100 a share. The company has been paying 10 per cent per annum in dividends on the stock, but the latter is very closely held. The company works in harmony with the Westinghouse Electric Company, and in 1903 held $955,000,000 par value of the shares of the British Westinghouse Electric Company. There were no transactions in Electric on the Pittsburgh exchange yesterday, and only 77 shares Airbrake. The market as a whole was almost stagnant, but despite the dullness held steady to firm.

The Westinghouse Machine Company is about to install one 500 K. w. Westinghouse-Parsons turbine for the Boston & Maine railroad. This is the second one installed this year, the previous one having been set up early in August. A similar turbine will be installed in the Quincy market cold storage warehouse very shortly. The Westinghouse Machine Company is now building at its works 30 gas engines of from 500 to 2,200 brake horse-power, two of which are for the Carnegie Steel Company.

At the quarterly meeting of the Pressed Steel Car Company, held in New York yesterday, T. N. Wallace of New York was elected a director to fill the vacancy on the board caused by the death of Mr. Macklin. J. H. Regan was elected assistant secretary, with offices in New York. A quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent was declared, payable to stockholders of record at the close of business November 2. The transfer books will close at 2 p. m. November 3 and reopen at 10 a. m. November 24.

It is either a feast or a famine with the railroad equipment companies. The orders for steel cars, which have piled up on the books of the Pressed Steel Car Company, naturally induce figuring on the earning power of the property. If the company could put through all the business it now has on hand in one year, and if its average profit was 12½ per cent, the finacial results would be equal, it is calculated, to 42 per cent on the common stock. The largest year's business done by the company was in 1902, when it amounted to $32,000,000 gross.

The Pittsburgh Trust Company has declared dividend No. 44, being 5 per cent for the past quarter, payable November 1 to stock of record October 25.

The brewers of the country, it is understood in Washington, will bitterly oppose the proposed raise in the tax on beer. It has been stated that the ways and means committee, at the coming session of congress, will report in favor of restoring the war tax on beer as one means of reducing the treasury deficit. Such action, if carried out, would double the present tax. Local brewing securities have not been affected by the discussion.

The Norfolk & Western Railroad Company declared a dividend of 2 per cent on the common stock. This places the stock on a 4 per cent basis. The directors have authorized an issue of $3,000,000 of car trust certificates. The stock rose to 88¾, as compared with 89½, the high point of the year reached last March, and closed at 87¾.

It was plausibly argued that Norfolk & Western, as a 4 per cent payer of recent creation, was sufficiently high when it was within a point of Atchison, which had been paying 4 per cent for some time.

A London paper says that Standard Oil interests are quietly absorbing Canadian Pacific. Their supposed object is to have an influence in controlling the oil-bearing lands of the company.

Charles A. Painter, of the firm of Scully, Painter & Beech, was this week elected a member of the Chicago board of trade. The new firm is now represented by membership in the principal exchanges of the country.

C. B. MacDonald, who was a large buyer of other stocks, bid up Union Pacific with fair success before midday. He has a certain floor following, mainly on his supposed connection with the Harriman interest, and is in any case an active trader, who sometimes takes a prominent position in the market.

The gross receipts of Jersey Central for September increased $325,009 and net income increased $128,810.

Gross earnings of Wabash for the third week in October decreased $92,907.

Gross earnings of Canadian Pacific for the third week in October increased $175,000.

Gross earnings of Missouri, Kansas & Texas for the third week in October decreased $46,747.

Delaware & Hudson officials say that they have no knowledge of the reported acquisition by the company of the Wilkes-Barre & Eastern Railroad Company.

Corn Products was a weak feature of the market. The showing made by the company for the six months ended August 31 was not favorable. However, it was representative of past and not present conditions, as the fierce war that raged between rivals in the business for so many months is now over and prices have been restored to something like the normal. It is shown that the net income for the period named, after deducting all fixed charges, was $150,277; the total net profit of the constituent companies, $288,955, and the total net income to which the Corn Product Company is entitled is $262,689.

American Hide and Leather preferred stock sold down to 21¾, as against 25½, the high record this year, recorded March 17. The weakness in the stock reflects the uncertainty existing with respect to dividends, action on which will take place today.

The board of directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company have authorized the creation of a car trust to take care of the new equipment recently ordered. They also authorized the completion of the Hollidaysburg classification yards at a cost of about $800,000.

The strength in wheat was based upon the large export clearances, amounting to 514,000 bushels for the day. Bankers as well as grain dealers are watching the outward movement of breadstuffs with much interest.

Richard H. Swartwout and Paul Appenzeller of New York announce that, on November 1, 1905, Courtlandt Babcock retires from the firm of Babcock, Swartwout & Co., his interest having been purchased by the two first named partners, who will conduct the business of bankers and note brokers at the same address under the firm name of Swartwout & Appenzellar.

C. F. Beech has been elected cashier of the First National bank of Birmingham, succeeding his brother, Gabriel Beech, who resigned to become a member of the firm of Scully, Painter & Beech, bankers and brokers. Mr. Beech was formerly paying teller and has been connected with the bank for over 15 years. Daniel Beech remains a director of the bank.

No actual news was forthcoming to explain the movement in the coalers beyond general considerations bearing on the trade, but many surmises were afloat as a result of the large demand for Lehigh Valley in Philadelphia. That company's recent purchase of the Coxe Brothers' Company and the accompanying movement in the other coalers give rise to the conjecture that more effective combinations are working out in this group of properties, already very strongly bound together. The publication of an elaborate analysis of the Reading properties and of its capital was another stimulating influence.

A temporary advance in Sugar was due to a suggestion of a possible coming distribution of surplus earnings.

The rise in Pacific Mail was explained by the return from an oriental trip of the head of the company.

The pressure upon Rock Island was prompted by the disclosures of an amount of earnings in the annual report which was insufficient to meet the preferred dividend requirement.

If New York money continued relatively easy, but as a result of this condition foreign exchange made a further advance to within the immediate neighborhood of the gold export point. A decline in sterling exchange at Paris and a further rise in the discount rate at Berlin were additional factors making toward gold exports. New York exchange at Chicago also fell to a discount.

PIG IRON PRICE RISES RAPIDLY

Quotations on Northern Bessemer Advance from $16 to $16 50 This Week.

GENERAL STEEL MARKET NEWS

Despite the efforts of some of the larger steel manufacturers to hold the market in restraint and prevent a boom, the market seems to be running away in some lines at least. Pig iron is advancing sharply and coke is rising at a pace which means enormous profits for those who still have their capacity unsold a few months from now providing the boom keeps up.

The price for Bessemer iron at the valley furnaces on Monday might have been placed at $16. Yesterday it was squarely $16 50, and it was openly prophesied that $17 iron would be seen before November had advanced far.

Foundry coke has sold as high as $4 this week and contracts on the basis of $3 50 for deliveries extending through 1906 are common. The price of spot furnace coke is firm at $3. The remarkably good operation of the Pennsylvania railroad during the past week has done more than anything else to keep down the price of coke, both furnace and foundry. It would not be surprising to see furnace coke reach $5 if a snowstorm should come which would hinder railroad operation. The stocks are very low. Even the United States Steel Corporation furnaces have very low coke stocks.

The price of billets now is firm at $26. This covers Bessemer, as there are no open-hearth billets to be had and quotations are therefore not of significance.

There has been another sharp turn in the market for old iron and steel. Dealers in scrap who figured two months ago that there was a big bull market ahead and after loading up lost their nerve and sold are now again disappointed. It is said that 11,000 tons of scrap were sold at a price which is below the present market by $1.

The past week has not been notable for especially large deals either in pig iron or the finished lines in steel. The steel corporation is undoubtedly figuring on larger purchases of pig iron from the merchant furnaces for November use than have as yet been consummated, but a policy of great secrecy has been adopted in this matter, precisely as in the case of the reports of the iron stocks and the furnace operations.

There has been an advance of about $2 per ton in the quotations on light rails. Steel plates were also advanced in the eastern markets $2 per ton.

The Hardware Market.

Orders for hardware continue to arrive in very good shape, the demand being exceedingly good and the volume of business showing a very fair increase over the same time last year, the coming of colder weather starting up an increased demand for home-comfort goods in the shape of stoves, fenders and other heat-producing appliances, making an additional demand for sheet iron of various kinds. Business in builders' hardware, carpenters' tools and general supplies continues very good, the demand all along these lines apparently increasing. Nails and wire continue to move out in very good volume, the mills finding difficulty in filling orders with any degree of promptness. Window glass continues to move along much as at our last report, the trade feeling they must keep their stocks in shape in order to do business, and the season closing the demand necessarily is increasing. A good demand in tea continues on paints, brushes and such lines, the open weather being very favorable for the prosecution of outside work. Prices generally are very firm, manufacturers reporting an excellent demand throughout. The Bindley Hardware Company furnishes the following quotations:

Columbia pocket knives, discount 35 per cent; Albion hatchets, discount 40 and 10 per cent; Bindley canal shovels, $6 50 per dozen; Great Western files, discount 70, 10 and 10 per cent; sheet iron, base, $26, $2 35 per 100 lbs.; galvanized sheet iron, discount 70 and 10 per cent; sash weights, per ton, $27; Albion sewing machines, discount 25 per cent; blue and white enameled ware, 60 and 10 per cent; Albion hot plates, 40 per cent; Albion lanterns, 40 per cent; hay forks, 60 per cent.

STILL SOUND WARNINGS AGAINST HIGH PRICES

Influences Are Brought to Bear to Keep Prices of Ore from the Danger of a Runaway Market.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

CLEVELAND, Oct. 26.—The Iron Trade Review says: Interest again centers in raw materials and conservative business men are sounding a note of warning that there is real peril in the present tendency to advance prices. The strong influence working against a runaway market has, however, been shown recently in the decision not to advance the price of plates and other finished products, and this week two of the largest ore concerns in Cleveland, which are also identified with the manufacture of iron, have stated in a very positive way they are opposed to advancing the price of ore for 1906 more than 25 cents a ton.

The coke market is in a feverish condition, and buyers are objecting strongly to what they declare are unreasonable prices. On account of the condition of the coke market there is a marked renewal of activity in coking operations. Some important iron and steel interests which have their own coal supplies are preparing to add largely to their coke-making capacity. One company will build about 400 ovens, and the Toledo furnace company which has decided to erect a second stack at its plant, will also build a by-product coke plant.

The pig iron market is rather quiet so far as actual transactions are concerned, but it is fully as firm and prices are tending upward.

Pressure in Many Iron and Steel Quarters Is Enormous—Outburst of Basic Pig Buying in the East.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The Iron Age tomorrow will say: Bookings of finished iron and steel continue on an enormous scale, and thus far this month are nearly up to the record-breaking rate of September. The pressure in many quarters is enormous, and the plants are provided with work for long periods.

In the eastern steel trade there has been another outburst of buying of basic pig iron for delivery during the winter, and fully 75,000 tons have been taken at advancing prices, with negotiations pending for at least half as much more. A scarcity of pig iron for steel making is developing in the Chicago district and it is likely iron may be shipped from lower lake ports to that district by water before navigation closes.

The United States Steel Corporation has secured options at $16 and $16 50 on practically all the Bessemer pig available in the Mahoning and Shenango valleys till the end of the year, the only exception being one lot of 10,000 tons held by a merchant. These purchases of iron are necessary in spite of the fact that the Steel Corporation is operating all its blast furnaces except three, of which two are out for repairs.

In the steel rail trade a number of fair orders have been booked and some additional large tonnage is looming up. Inability to make prompt deliveries of structural material continues to be the only serious phase of the situation in that branch. The amount of business done in bars has been large and sellers are holding back. There has been a heavy movement in tin plate.

STRONG MARKET FOR CREAMERY BUTTER

Receipts Are Small and Demand Good—Red Cabbage Makes Its Appearance.

All markets were steady yesterday, there being few changes in prices. The damp and raw weather had a bad effect on buyers and sales were not heavy.

Red cabbage made its appearance in the local markets and is quoted at from $1 75 to $2 00 a barrel. This was the only new arrival in market.

Hickory and walnuts are in great favor at present, while mixed nuts also find a good sale. Catawba grapes, which arrived a day or so ago, are finding a very ready sale.

Sugar and coffee remained firm yesterday, although a drop in the price of sugar was looked for. There is still a strong demand for beans of all sorts, which are very scarce.

There continues to be a strong market for fine creamery butter with the receipts small. The demand for cheese continues and extends to all varieties. While there has been a slight change in the price during the past week, the market as a whole remains firm.

HAY AND GRAIN.
Receipts.

Receipts yesterday were: Pennsylvania, 12 cars oats, 20 cars hay, 6 cars feed, 2 cars corn, 2 cars rye; Baltimore & Ohio, 5 cars hay, 1 car corn; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 6 cars hay, 4 cars oats, 1 car rye. Demands for straw, oats and hay continue and the merchants are beginning to think they will have to do without a good supply of these things. Receipts were rather light yesterday and everything that was brought in was picked up at once. There was only one change in price, that being in oats, which went up about ½c.

Foreign Money Markets.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Rates for money and discounts were firm in the market today. The stock exchange requirements were fairly heavy. Trading on the stock exchange was quiet and mostly uninteresting. Contangos were stiff, owing to the dear money. Consols were a shade off. Home rails were in fair demand, helped by the latest traffic returns. Americans were irregular and quiet. The movements were slight on either side of parity, and mostly fractionally lower on profit taking. The local operations were merely an evening up of accounts. Prices drooped later on New York selling and closed dull with a few exceptions, notably Reading. Grand Trunk was lower on the traffic returns. Mexican rails benefited by the traffic increase. Russian and Japanese securities were easier on realizations. Japanese Imperial 6s of 1904 were quoted at 102. Consols for money, 88 3-16; consols for account, 88⅝; bar silver steady at 28⅝d per ounce; money, 3¾@4 per cent; the rate of discount in the open market for short bills is 4 per cent; the rate of discount in the open market for three months' bills is 4 per cent.

PARIS, Oct. 25.—Prices on the bourse today were heavy, but became stronger on semi-official reports that the confusion of negotiations for the new Russian loan was imminent. Russian Imperial 4s were quoted at 93.25 and Russians of 1904 at 529. Three per cent rentes 58 francs 10 centimes for the account. Exchange on London 25 francs 15½ centimes for checks.

BERLIN, Oct. 25.—Prices on the boerse today were weaker on account of the high rates charged for money. Exchange on London 20 marks 46¾ pfennings for checks. Discount rates—Short bills, 4 per cent; three months' bills, 4⅝ per cent.

The Drygoods Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The volume of business in the drygoods market today was materially restricted by the prospect of labor troubles in Fall River and also by the upward bound in raw material. RUSSIAN DISORDERS ADVANCE THE MARKET

December Wheat Delivery Is Up Half a Cent—Corn and Oats Also Show Gains.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Spread of strike disorders in Russia put up the price of wheat today in Chicago. The December delivery closed ½@¾c up. Corn and oats are up ¼c. Provisions are practically unchanged.

The wheat market was strong from start to finish. At the opening the December option was up ½@¾c to ⅞@⅞c at 87½c to 87⅝c. Higher prices for wheat at the leading European grain centers gave impetus to the market here. The advance in foreign markets was reported as mainly due to news of increasing disorders in connection with the railway strike in Russia. Cable advices today indicated that as a result of the stoppage of railway operation all shipments of grain from Russia might be shut off in the near future. An English authority reported the cancellation of contracts for two cargoes of Danubian wheat. The situation was given a still darker aspect by a private cablegram, which stated that Russian offerings of wheat had ceased altogether. In the pit here demand for wheat was active and general throughout the greater part of the session. Offerings were chiefly from longs. Strength of cash wheat at all the principal grain centers of the United States helped to stimulate bullish sentiment. At 88⅛c the December delivery touched the highest point of the day. During the last half hour the market reacted slightly on profit-taking. The close, however, was firm, with December at 87⅞c. May sold between 88⅛c and 89½c and closed at a gain of ⅝c at 88¼c.

Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 615,000 bushels. Primary receipts were 1,205,000 bushels, compared with 1,044,000 bushels a year ago. The world's visible supply, as shown by Bradstreet's, increased 7,600,000 bushels, against an increase of 3,530,000 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 361 cars, compared with 611 cars last week and 735 cars a year ago.

Urgent export demand caused strength in the corn market. Bullish sentiment was augmented by small local receipts and by wet weather throughout many sections of the corn belt. New York reported today 60 boatloads taken for export. Late in the session prices reacted somewhat on quite liberal realizing, the close was firm, December opened ⅛c to ¼c higher at 45¾c to 45⅞c, sold up to 46c and closed at 45¾c. Local receipts were 92 cars, with 37 cars of contract grade.

A strong tone prevailed in the oats market. The constantly increasing demand from exporters was the principal bullish influence. A minor factor was decreased local receipts. New York confirmed 110,000 bushels taken for export today and good sales were made from here. The market closed firm. December opened unchanged to ¼c higher at 29⅝@29¾c, sold up to 30c and closed at 29¾c. Local receipts were 722 cars.

Strength of grain had a steadying effect on the provisions market. The volume of trading was small. At the close January pork was up a shade at $12 87½. Lard and ribs also showed a gain of a shade, closing at $6 75@6 77½ and $6 67½@6 70, respectively.

The Drygoods Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The volume of business in the drygoods market today was materially restricted by the prospect of labor troubles in Fall River and also by the upward bound in raw material. BIG SHAKE-UP ON THE WABASH

Thousands of Main Line and Probably 100 Local Men May Leave Within Next Month.

NEW PENNSYLVANIA SERVICE

Prediction is made that within the next 30 days there will be a larger "shake-up" in the ranks of the Wabash system than has been made since the Gould-Ramsey struggle began. The prediction comes from a number of sources here and along the main line of the Wabash railroad from Toledo west. Locally the changes, it is said, will be particularly in the operating, engineering and freight traffic departments. All efforts to secure a word regarding the changes from any of the employes were without avail, and Vice President B. A. Worthington and all the other officers are spending this week inspecting the lines east of Toledo.

The changes are said to be in contemplation because of the Delano administration taking charge and desiring to have its own men in the responsible positions. When it was pointed out that the principal local offices have already been so filled, the informant said that while such is the case, there are fully as responsible and confidential places yet filled by men of the Ramsey-Patterson regime in the operating and engineering departments and of the Ramsey-Holliday regime in the traffic department. If the changes are made, it is expected that probably 100 men on the Wabash Pittsburgh Terminal line will be affected. The shake-up does not extend to the Wheeling & Lake Erie men, all of whom, it was said, will be cared for.

On the Wabash railroad proper the changes are said to be in contemplation by the men themselves and also by the railroad management. In this shake-up it is said that there may be thousands of men affected, as many are not satisfied with the change of policy, while the management under President F. A. Delano is not desirous of retaining in the service any men who are not in thorough sympathy and harmony with the affairs of the Wabash of the present. The main line changes, it is predicted, will be general throughout all departments and over all divisions.

New Trains to and from Cleveland.

A foreword on the changes that will be made by the Pennsylvania lines west when the fall time card is inaugurated on November 26 was given officially yesterday. The announcement included only two items of the new schedule, two new trains between here and Cleveland and four new trains between New Castle and Cleveland. All of these trains are to be operated by way of Youngstown and over the new cut-off that has been placed into service between Niles and Ravenna. This cut-off shortens the distance of the former route by way of Salem two miles, and naturally offers a better route for the high-class Pennsylvania service. The new service between Pittsburgh and Cleveland was predicted in The Gazette several weeks ago. The business has become very heavy for all of the trains. The new service by way of Youngstown will be in addition to the service now in operation by way of Salem and also by way of Wellsville. No time for the new service from here or Cleveland was announced. The New Castle-Cleveland service will include evening and morning trains from both cities.

Papers by Kimball and Lord.

Two papers will be presented at the semi-annual meeting of the passenger traffic representatives of the Pennsylvania system, which will be held at the Hotel Schenley tomorrow. Aside from the general discussion of passenger affairs at each meeting, papers are presented and discussed on subjects of paramount interest. The papers will be presented by C. L. Kimball, assistant general passenger agent of the lines west at Chicago, and W. W. Lord, Jr., passenger agent of the middle district of the lines east at Philadelphia. The subjects have not been announced. J. R. Wood, passenger traffic manager of the lines east, is chairman of the organization, E. A. Ford, who holds a similar position on the lines west, is vice chairman, and Col. F. N. Barksdale, advertising agent of the lines east, is secretary. There will be a banquet tomorrow evening.

Regret Death of H. S. Storrs.

Regret was expressed by many of the railroad men of Pittsburgh yesterday when the news of the death of Henry S. Storrs, general superintendent of the Lake Shore, came over the wires from Cleveland. Mr. Storrs was known to most of the railroad officers in Pittsburgh, while he was particularly well known and highly esteemed by the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie officers and men. Mr. Storrs died of paralysis at his home in Cleveland. He was 57 years old. He started his career as a switchman on the Burlington, rising rapidly. He was appointed assistant superintendent of the Lake Erie & Western five years ago and was promoted to general superintendent of the Lake Shore a year later.

Panhandle Men Honor Conboy.

At the funeral of James Conboy, the well-known engineman of the Panhandle, at Crafton yesterday, were a large number of men from the road to honor his memory. Conboy had served the company for many years and was one of the trusted men of the throttle. His last service was in hauling No. 14 and the second section of No. 20 between Pittsburgh and Dennison. Among the men from the western end of the Pittsburgh division at the funeral were Enginemen P. C. Hartigan and James Nulton and Roundhouse Foreman Matthew Possel of Columbus.

Wabash Increasing Freight Facilities.

That the Wabash is steadily gaining ground in its fight for the traffic out of and into Pittsburgh is shown by the company having to construct an extra elevator in the temporary freight house to care for the freight. Since the opening of the road for freight service the business has been cared for at the West End, and on one of the platforms in the trainshed at the passenger station in Ferry street. These quarters are becoming too small to care for the business now offering. The new freight station will hardly be opened for service before January 1, although President Delano and Vice President Worthington are endeavoring to get things in running order at the station before that time.

Appointments on Wabash.

The office of superintendent of telegraph has been created on the Wabash lines east of Toledo and C. O. Dambach, chief clerk to General Superintendent H. W. McMaster, has been appointed to the office for the present, also continuing his duties as chief clerk. The office of general southeastern agent has also been created, with headquarters at Atlanta, Ga., and George L. Word has been appointed. His jurisdiction will extend over the freight and passenger business south of Virginia and Kentucky and east of the Mississippi river.

Railroad Notes.

The time card meeting of the Baltimore & Ohio will be held at Baltimore next Wednesday.

The Southern railway announced that quarantine restrictions had been raised and that regular service would be resumed to New Orleans and all other affected points.

The American Railway association adopted a recommendation that the daily charge, known as per diem, for use of cars belonging to companies other than those using them, should be raised from 20 to 25 cents.

Division Engineer L. P. Rossiter and Master Carpenter W. C. McCulloch will meet the bridge and structure inspection party at Connellsville this morning to begin the annual trip over the Pittsburgh division of the Baltimore & Ohio.

Being unable to attend the annual convention of general passenger agents at Mexico, at which he was to be orator, D. W. Cooke, assistant traffic manager of the Erie, read his address into a phonograph and it was reproduced at the convention.

T. C. Batchelder, superintendent of the Baltimore & Ohio at Chicago, has announced the appointment of George W. Spencer as assistant train master in place of H. S. Carroll, who has been transferred to division operator, a position previously held by Mr. Spencer.

At meetings of the directors in New York, F. D. Underwood, president of the Erie, was elected president of the Pere Marquette, and Russell Harding, vice president of the Pere Marquette, was elected vice president of the Erie. In the reorganization of the Pere Marquette directorate a number of Erie directors were chosen for the board.

The biennial convention of the American Railway Association began in Chicago, with 300 members, representing 247 roads, present. The main topic discussed was uniform regulations in transporting explosives. Pennsylvania officers were prominent in this discussion, the road being the foremost in modern methods of carrying such freight.

S. C. Long, superintendent of the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania, and A. G. Mitchell, superintendent of the Monongahela division, inspected the latter road to Uniontown and the Southwest Penn branch from Redstone Junction to Greensburg. They were accompanied by their staff officers. Mr. Long will inspect the South Fork and New Portage branches of his division today.

GOOD PROFIT IN FIFTH AVENUE

T. W. Nevin and L. A. Clark Sell 1207 to S. H. Rubenstein for $36,000.

CASTLE SHANNON FARM SOLD

A good idea of the way values have gone up in outer Fifth avenue is gained from the sale of 1207, made yesterday through the office of L. A. Clark & Co. The property, which was bought by S. H. Rubenstein, brought $36,000. In 1900 T. W. Nevin and L. A. Clark bought the lot for $11,500, so that their deal now nets them $25,500 on a four years' investment, although the buildings are in somewhat better shape than when they secured them. The lot has a frontage of 24 feet on the north side of Fifth avenue, near Elm street, and runs back 88 feet to Our alley. A three-story brick building used for stores and flats stands in front and a small house in the rear. The rental of these is $185 a month. The purchase, which was made for an investment, figures at the rate of $1,500 a front foot.

Nathan Kaufmann is reported to have sold to a local investor the properties at 1205-1207 Wylie avenue, between Logan and Townsend streets, for $36,000. They were formerly known as the holdings of J. Greenwald and J. P. Quinn, and were secured by Mr. Kaufmann something over a year ago. The lot measures 42x109 feet and is improved with three brick houses and one frame dwelling.

Big Castle Shannon Deal.

Walter D. Green of Pittsburgh has purchased the Leonard Richi farm of about 30 acres at Castle Shannon for $40,000 or $900 an acre. Although the report could not be confirmed it is rumored that the deal, which was handled by Smith & Kearns, was made in the interest of a local syndicate which proposes to plot the property and put it on the market in the spring. The farm adjoins Castle Shannon on the west and is one of the best located properties for plotting in that neighborhood. It is less than half a mile from the Charlerol car line, and is only a few minutes walk from Arlington station. Another street car line is surveyed by the farm which comes out almost to the Castle Shannon pike. It adjoins the McCormick farm facing on the Washington pike, which was sold last spring for lot purposes.

Jacob Tannenbaum has invested $37,500 in Liberty avenue real estate, getting 1307-1309, opposite the Union station. The property belonged to the McKenna heirs and consists of four brick houses on 33.3x100 feet. The rental is now only nominal. At the price paid the purchase figures at $1,126 a front foot, or $11 26 a square foot. In view of the prices paid recently for Penn avenue properties in the corresponding square and the buildings that are scheduled for early erection in the neighborhood the figures seem reasonable. Besides the six-story brick warehouse and stables to be erected by the Excelsior Express and Standard Cab Company near Twelfth street and the seven-story warehouse to be built by James W. Houston & Co. at the corner of Fourteenth street at a cost of $50,000, M. Arnfeld & Sons are planning to build three good store and warehouse buildings in Twelfth street.

Another School House for Crafton.

Crafton's younger generation is growing in numbers so rapidly as to entirely overflow the $30,000 school house which was built in the Second ward of that borough two years ago, and which is one of the finest buildings of its kind in the county. Another 12-room school house, to cost at least $60,000, will be built next spring on a site which the school directors secured some time ago. The site includes nearly an acre of ground at Noble avenue and Sidney street, and cost $8,000. The need of such a building is well understood when it is known that nearly 100 new houses can be counted in the borough now, and that the prospects for a steady building boom all winter are excellent. Moreover, the borough is much better prepared to make such improvements than the average borough in this county because its bonded indebtedness is comparatively small. Its borough improvements have been pushed ahead steadily, but in such a way that no large burden of debt was incurred at one time.

Two other costly buildings are now nearing completion in Crafton. One is the Roman Catholic church in Crafton avenue, a handsome structure of Cleveland gray stone, which is costing nearly $100,000. The other is the Presbyterian church, also in Crafton avenue, which is up to the roof and which will cost $40,000.

Third Center Avenue Sale.

Through the office of S. Arnold & Co. M. and T. Burke have bought the property at 1900-1902 Center avenue for $14,500. The property includes 40x200 feet, extending back to Dinwiddie street, and has on it two eight-room brick houses. The new owner contemplates the erection of a modern flat building in the near future. This is the third Center avenue deal that these brokers have made and closed during the last 10 days.

The Commonwealth Real Estate Company has sold for William M. Kennedy to William E. McKelvy 97x142 feet on the east side of Von Lent place, near Dahlia street, Twentieth ward, for $18,750. The buyer will build a high-class residence on the lot.

Clarence B. Moore has purchased from Samuel H. Weller an improved property, 40x100 feet, on the north side of Wylie avenue, near Duff street, Thirteenth ward, for $11,500.

Rumors of two large deals being closed yesterday afternoon were current, and at least one of the properties is known to have been downtown. Another downtown purchase of considerable size has been articled for by two outer Fifth avenue investors. The extreme reticence which has held back from publication many important deals of late is beginning to relax and some interesting announcements are booked to appear within the next few days.

Another real estate deal was closed yesterday in McKeesport by which John Harris, the Pittsburgh theatrical manager, bought 60 feet frontage in Market street, near Fifth avenue, for $40,000, from John A. Bell of Pittsburgh, who purchased it three years ago for $20,000. The property is occupied by frame and brick buildings and has a depth of 140 feet. The purchase was made for investment, but plans are under way for improvements to the buildings next spring. Talk concerning the erection of a new theater on the property by Mr. Harris was not confirmed by the purchaser.

BLAMES IT ON WATER.

Bullet-Like Hole in Ship's Sidelight Is Said to Have Been Made by Big Wave.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—(Special.)—In one of the thick sidelights of the steamship Sarnia, which arrived today from the West Indies, is a small hole as clean as though made by a bullet. Capt. Wentzer says that the hole was made by a wave.

The ship encountered heavy cross seas last Sunday morning. A wave came over the side and smashed against a bulwark with such force that a thin stream was projected through an opening in the obstruction. This stream struck the heavy sidelight and went right through it, thoroughly wetting the cabin.

Burglars ransacked the Keystone hotel in Walnut street, and the home of John A. James at 820 South Soles street, McKeesport, early yesterday morning. The thieves took several quarts of whisky and some money from the hotel. At the James house they took two revolvers, $50 and household articles.

P. R. R. Authorizes Cars and Yard.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company today authorized the issuance of car trust certificates to the amount of about $13,000,000 to be used in payment for equipment, all orders for which were decided upon favorably at the meeting today. The company also authorized the extension and improvement of the Hollidaysburg freight yards at a cost of about $800,000.

The Deaf Are Always Lonesome

Why Be Deaf When This Remarkable Invention of Mr. Geo. P. Way Can Surely Cure You?

No one appreciates the lonesome, miserable existence of the deaf more than Mr. Geo. P. Way, the well-known inventor of the Way Ear Drum, who is now in this city.

Mr. Way was deaf for over 25 years, and during all this time felt his lonesome position extremely. He was cut off almost entirely from enjoying the society of his fellow-men. He could not attend public meetings, lectures or concerts. He could not enjoy a social conversation with his friends. He was handicapped in business, and saw far less able men forging ahead of him because of his unfortunate infirmity. He could not even talk to his own family freely and easily as he should like to have done.

No one but those who are afflicted with deafness themselves can appreciate what Mr. Way suffered.

About six years ago Mr. Way, while connected with the Y. M. C. A. of Detroit, in his capacity as chief electrical engineer, made an astonishing discovery. He found a way by which his deafness could be cured. Patiently and slowly he perfected his invention, working it out on strictly scientific lines. He studied deeply into the structure and principles of the human ear, and by special arrangement with prominent medical colleges, attended lectures and clinics on this one subject which had become to him a life study.

The result of these years of investigation and research is the Way Ear Drum, a remarkable little instrument, which makes the deaf to hear, and which has caused thousands to rejoice over the blessing of having their lost hearing restored.

The Way Ear Drum is very small, and is placed inside the ear, entirely out of sight. It is made from a peculiarly sensitized material and is worn with entire comfort. It can scarcely be felt when in position and no one but yourself need know you have it. And yet this little contrivance makes all the difference in the world to the person wearing it. It enables a new hold on life to those who have considered themselves as separated forever from their fellowmen by the barrier of deafness.

Mr. Way will be in Pittsburgh, at the Hotel Duquesne, until Saturday night, October 28th. All who are deaf should be sure to call on him, as it will cost nothing to learn whether he can cure you or not.

IN THE THEATERS.

The Serious Drama Will Be Largely in Evidence in Local Playhouses Next Week.

The sale of seats for the engagement of Mrs. Fiske and the Manhattan company in "Leah Kleschna" at the Belasco next week opens this morning. The many advance orders already received indicates that this engagement will be one of the largest that Mrs. Fiske has ever played in Pittsburgh. She comes here from a 34-weeks' season at her New York theater, the Manhattan, and has the most notable play and the most brilliant company of her career.

Mr. Wright Lorimer's splendid production of "The Shepherd King" has made a fine impression, and the seat sale for the second week, which opens this morning, indicates large business. This is the most beautiful of all the Bible plays.

When Manager William A. Brady's press representative coined the phrase, "The play that will live forever," which he makes free use to anent "Way Down East," many wise heads thought him to be a trifle premature, but in the face of returns of the now famous play he was not far wrong. The celebrated rural play has already seen several seasons, and that length of time in things theatrical brings a play to old age. But "Way Down East," coming to the Alvin next week, is not even thought of as outliving its usefulness. It is in just as great demand as ever.

Manager Harry Davis has scheduled a vaudeville entertainment of splendid strength for the patrons of the continuous performance at the Grand next weeks. Berzac's circus, which has been one of the vaudeville sensations this season, is a feature. Salerno, a juggler who has been described as the greatest that ever lived, is another noteworthy number. The Elinore sisters, who have won high popularity in their grotesque comedy, come with a new sketch that is said to have been a great success. Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Crane, two clever players, in a sketch, "Am I Your Wife?" and 15 big other acts, make a strong bill.

Mr. William T. Keogh's big scenic production of "The Gypsy Girl," by Hal Reid, with Miss Dolly Kemper in the leading role, will be the attraction at the Empire theater week of October 30. She will be supported by a company of well-known players, and the production will be presented with strong scenic embellishments and unique and novel mechanical effects. As a special feature of the engagement of Miss Kemper this little lady will give receptions after the matinees.

The Colonial Belles will be the attraction at the Academy next week. The company has always been a big favorite at this place of amusement, and with such clever comedians as Charles Robison, Charles Falke, Charles Nelson, Tom Carter and Frank Farrell, the show should more than please.

"Babes in the Wood."

There will be but four more performances of the big spectacular production, "Babes in the Wood," which has attracted so largely at the Belasco theater. Miss Cherida Simpson, who is now appearing in the part of Robin Hood, has added materially to the performance. A very unique dancing specialty has been introduced, and the whole performance is a marvelous one.

ARREST DUCHESS CONSUELO.

Rural Constables Seize the Peeress of Marlborough for Scorching in Automobile.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Through the arraignment in Harlem court today of Joseph Fritz, chauffeur for Harry Payne Whitney, it became known that the duchess of Marlborough had the experience of being arrested by two rural constables for automobile scorching, a few days before she sailed for England.

Fritz said the duchess, Mr. and Mrs. Whitney and Mrs. McIntyre and himself were arrested while hurrying from Mineola to Hempstead. Mr. Whitney was fined $20. Fritz was again a prisoner for fast driving today. Magistrate Crane held him for trial.

Fairbanks and Beveridge Speak.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Oct. 25.—The corner stone of the Methodist hospital to cost $300,000, was laid this afternoon. Vice President Fairbanks and Senator Beveridge spoke. Governor Hanly laid the stone.

HAD DENIAL READY BEFORE BEING ASKED

French Count Denies Report of His Betrothal to Mrs. Ogden Goelet or His Suit.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Almost before interviewers had a chance to ask him: "Are you betrothed to Mrs. Ogden Goelet?" Count Armand De Gontaut-Biron, who came to town today aboard the Oceanic, was ready with a denial.

"I should certainly deem it an honor if Mrs. Goelet should condescend to accept my suit, but you understand that I am not a suitor. One cannot accept what has not been offered," said the count.

Paris society people believe that the coming of the count to New York will shortly be followed by the announcement of the forthcoming nuptials. Representatives of the Goelet family have said that they are not engaged. An elder brother of the count married a daughter of John G. A. Leishman, formerly of Pittsburgh, now United States minister to Turkey. The count is wealthy, and is engaged in the manufacture of automobiles. Most of the members of the American colony in Paris know him well.

SOLOMON'S Anniversary Sale

Our fall and winter catalog will be sent free upon request.

The Paddock is fashion's favorite now

What is more dressy for all occasions than a Paddock-overcoat? It is an overcoat, yet how much different it is from a regular overcoat cut on conventional lines. An overcoat may be a little off in fit or length and not be particularly noticed, but not so with a Paddock.

It is a great thing to dress as well as you want to without finding it a hardship to pay for your clothes. In our suits you get the best money's worth of actual cloth-value and style-value in the two cities—and now during this Anniversary Sale you can purchase these garments at considerably less than the marked prices.

A Paddock is either all right or else it is all wrong—and in many cases it is all wrong. It takes tailoring of a very superior sort to turn out a Paddock that will be a credit to its wearer and to us. Our Paddock-overcoats give the man a distinguished, well set-up appearance. The back fits closely—the waist curves all around and the coat is perfectly smooth over the hips. The skirt drapes gracefully, it does not split when walking—a point of construction that even the most exclusive tailor frequently falls down on.
